Of Dollars is Rossland's Yield for Six

nths of 1898, ending June 30, Rossland luced 39,365 tons of ore, valued

Le Roi mine alone aggregated 22,970 tons and shipments have ranged about $30 in gold, 3 per cent. in copper and 2 ounces in silver, which gives a total value as follows: Gold $30, copper, at 11%c, $7.05; silver, at 59c, $1.18; total, $38.23 per ton. On this basis the Le Roi shipments for six months are worth $875,846.10.

During the first six months of the year War Eagle produced 11,889 tons and, according to the last annual report of the manager, the value of the ore is computed as follows: Gold $19.73, silver $1.93, copper $6.01; total $27.67. On this basis the value of the total ore produced is $328,968,63,

The other properties of the camp in the first half of the year produced 4506 tons, which, while absolute valuations on it are impossible, would run close in metal contents to the Le Roi output, Applying the Le Roi valuation to this ore, the metal value of it is found to be $172,264.38.

To recapitulate these figures, which are taken from The Miner, the total value of the output of Rossland camp from Jan. 1 to June 30 may be summed up in the following table:

Property. Tons. Value.

Le Roi. 22,970 $75,846 16

More English Capital. More English Capital.

A company called the Pacific Northwest Mining Corporation has been offered to the public in London, England. Its capital is $200,000, and its objects are to acquire a number of mining properties in Montana, British Columbia and Alaska for a sum of $62,000 in cash and $68,000 in shares. The properties have been selected by W. H. and A. A. Wynne of London, in co-operation with Howard C. Walters, an American mining engineer, and these three gentlemen will nanage the business of the company. The properties are: Snowshoe claim, silver-lead, Kootenay County, Montana; Maude S. and five other claims, free-milling gold quartz, on Columbia River, West Kootenay, B. Virginia was the feature in mining stocks esterday. On Thursday 20,000 shares of this stock were sent out of Toronto to supply the demand in the West. These were all disposed of on the Rossland market at 50 and above. Such figures brought the Toronto sellers good profits, but they would have made more by hanging on another day. Before the close of the day in Rossland, Western buyers went wild, and Virginia shares were bid up to 75, with none offering.
