QUIGLEY OR THE MYSTERY?

Boxing Followers Are in a Quandary as to the Winner of Tonight's Big Bout.

George Keegan still stays favorite for tonight's battle with Jerome Quigley in the Mutual-Street Ring, but when the Philadelphia's bookmaking friends hold their scales this afternoon at Woodbine Park things may take on a different aspect. Both men did fight well yesterday and are nicely down to the 135 lbs., at which weight they scale this afternoon.

The veteran Harry Gilmore arrived in the morning from Chicago and was busy renewing acquaintances all day. He is quite confident that his protégé will still remain a mystery for the Quigley's following is concerned. Harry speaks highly of Harry Forbes, who has beaten everything

GEORGE KEEGAN, CHICAGO.

In the East, and says he may bring him to Toronto to meet Champion Jimmy Smith.

Teddy Chandler has made the most of the short notice to meet Andy Ward and a hot 10-round semi-wind-up is assured. Joe Popp picks the East Bander to win. Everyone should be on hand to see the curtain-raiser.

Charles Godwin of the Bammers will try hard to retrieve the laurels lost to Champion Harry last winter before the T. A. C. They will start the fun at 8:45. Referee Walter Kelly will arrive this morning, along with a big crowd from Buffalo. The Crescent A. C. has everything in readiness to handle a big crowd. The reserved seat plan will be in force at Griffiths'. 235 Yonge-street. The men all weigh in at Father's Bath, Yonge-street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A match has been made between Jack of Wilmington, Del., and J. W. Curran of England. The fight is to take place before the Empires Club of Syracuse on Oct. 17.
