He was followed closely by Baby Dorothy Young, aged six months, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, of 1084 Frances street, who took second prize. Baby Helen Haigh, of 459 Nelson street, came so nearly up to the standard of Baby Young, and a third prize was invented for her.

Over Two Years.

The first prize for the most perfect baby over two years of age was awarded to Baby Florence Brown, of three years and nine months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brown of 440 Charlotte street, and the second prize to Baby Thomas Forth, aged two years, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Forth of 81 Wellington road.

The most perfect twins brought to the clinics were Bables William and Chester Macrow, aged four and a half months, and sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Macrow of 77 Emery street. Albert and Walter Coulson, aged five months, were the winners of second prize, and are sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Coulson of 144 Fullarton street.
