Another Big Snap In Boys' Suits for $2.98

We find too many 32 and 33 sizes in our Boys' Norfolk stock, and to relieve the pressure we have marked about 75 Suits of the $4, $5 and $6 qualities at $2.98. Among the lot are a few 1-2 lined suits and a few small sizes—27 to 31.

These won't last long, so be on hand early in the morning.

Final Session to Be Held With Company To-Day - An Italian Stabbed.

HAMILTON, June 18 .- (Special.)-Leo Barry and Henry Ainsborough were this afternoon locked up on the charge of aggravated assault on Joe Since, an Italian, at James and Ferriestreets. The Italian was injured so seriously he had to be taken to the city hospital. He was stabbed behind the right ear.

The conference committee had another session this evening on the pro-posed new street railway deal. A final sion will be held with the company aldermen have agreed on many important points, but there are still signs of trouble over the specifications for the new cars. The company asked that they should conform as to type, size and equipment to cars 117, 118 and 119 now in operation. These are far from being modern cars and the aldermen decided this evening that they men decided this evening that they would not stand for the company's specifications and will draw up new ones. The company will not have to furnish any new cars until May 24 next. The company refused to carry

ON STYLES OF CARS NEW RATES FOR I.O.F. WILL BE ARGUED TO-DAY

Probable That Compromise Scale May Be Adopted Until Actuaries Report

Rates was the great question before the Foresters yesterday, W. H. Hunter, supreme counsellor, presenting the report of the committee of 25 appointed to deal with it.

The rank and file of the members appear to have lost sight of the assessment system of -life insurance under which the order operates. Members Friday morning and it is hoped to have the agreement ready for the council Monday evening. The company and aldermen have agreed on many in either he relief to meet cost it must aldermen have agreed on many im- either be raised or paid more fre bers appear largely to forget that if the rates are not raised extra assessments must be paid. In order to let the older members down as easily as possible in the increase of rates several plans have been suggested. Three are before the supreme court in the committee's report. Three Proposals. The first is to re-rate the members on the scale adopted in 1899 as at age of entry. The second, the proposal of Mr. Stevenson, is to give old members credit for insurance for the amount their present premiums would entitle them, and for the balance of their policy charge them the rates now in force for the age which they have now attained. This is a compromise to enable members to retain their policies at thorities, which experts believe will have to be adopted finally by all fra-

length to-day. In Toronto Henceforth. Another work on hand in this connection is the preparation of a new actuarial table based on the I. O. F. experience in the last thirty years. This when completed, and the task will occupy two years or more, should show the actual cost of insurance in the order. Until this is ascertained the supreme court may adopt a compro-
