Hestia Ran Ashore Early Monday Morning - Three Bodies and Two Boats Recovered.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 27.—(Special.)

The company had placed contracts in the last few days, he said, for $25.—
Was wrecked off Seal Cove, Grand Manan Island, at one o'clock Monday morning, not twenty-four hours later as previously supposed, was declared to-day by Third Mate Stewart, and the other five survivors. These half dozen men, who had been unable to find places in the small boats remained lashed to the rigging for thirty-eight hours without food or water, before they were taken off by the life savers. One of their number, seaman Keene, was in a serious condition to-day. So far as can be ascertained to-night, those on board the Hestia comprised Captain Newman, a crew of thirty-five three cattlemen, and two boys.

"These expenditures," he said, "are absolutely necessary to meet the demands of business. The traffic records for the months of September and October to date are said to have exceeded anything in the company's history. The previous high water mark was for the first three-uarters of 1907, just before the panic. We could have ten per cent. greater business to-day if we had the equipment to bandle it."

The verdict was returned at five o'clock yesterday afternoon, after an hour and forty minutes' deliberation upon the evidence. Fifteen minutes before their final return the jury filed into the court to hear read that portion of the evidence as to the statement made by Stefoff to the police as to his actions on the day of his arrest.

The scene in the courtroom was dramatic indeed. As the jury seated themselves the prisoner's eyes scanned the faces of the men who were so soon to decree his fate. As their finding was translated to him he shook his head in a dazed way, and murmured a barely audible "No."

J. M. Godfrey, who has conducted his defence immediately rose and asked that the jury be polled, and these twelve men, six of whom had sat on the jury which had come in for such sharp criticism for what was termed "the disgracefully weak" verdict of manslaughter in the Mabel Turner case, and four of whom had reduced Walter Blythe's crime from murder to manslaughter stood up and one by one answered to their names with the one word "guilty." Some of them spoke clearly, and with firmness, while others were barely heard.
