DOVERCOURT AGAIN.

Dovercourt still kept to their winning streak on Saturday. Winning the toss, Dovercourt put Rosedale in to bat at U.C.C. on a bowlers' wicket. The "vetteran" Butterfield and Smiling Jim Colbourne were at top form, too good to be bourne were at top form, too good to be slogged at. Carpenter hit up 10 quickly. Goodman played steadily for 7. With 3 extras, the balance of the team only made enough to bring the total to 27. Butterfield had four wickets for 8 runs and Jas. Colbourne six for 16.

Wookey's first ball took a wicket, the second went for 1 run, but Watson, playing very carefully, was assisted by Simmons (6), and James Colbourne's addition of 8 made a tie at the sixth wicket, At this period, Edwards and Butterfield

HAD TO HUSTLE TO WIN THE HANDICAP

New York, July 24.—On Watch had to be an exceptionally good three-year-old to win the Yonkors Handicap, of $6,000; feature of the day's racing at Empire City. After following the fast pace set by Cromwell, on which Jockey J. Mooney had the mount, Barrett, on On Watch, elected to make his run after straightening out in the stretch, but Mooney, on Cromwell, carried On Watch extremely wide at the last turn. War Mask, which had been several lengths back, slipped thru on the rail at this juncture, momentarily taking the lead. But when Barrett called on the son of Colin an eighth out he responded gamely and coming with a determined challenge, caught War Mask twenty yards out and awon at the end by a length going away. Jockey Barrett, when he returned to the stand, went before the stewards and complained that he had been roughed and carried wide by Mooney. Today's victory marked the third straight at Empire City for the G. W. Loft colorbearer. Ten-Lec, the Foreign Stable's representative, made a show of the field that engaged in the Eastview Stakes, of 2 $6,000, second feature of the card. Ten-

WEIGHT TOO MUCH FOR PAUL WEIDEL

My Dear Beats Lowenstein Horse in Kenilworth Feature Event.

Windsor, July 24.—F. Musante's threeyear-old King James, Bettle-Ladon filly My Dear which has been running herself into condition in unpretentious races on the Canadian circuit this summer, stepped down in the front end of the procession in the $5,000 added Windsor Handicap, paid $44.70 for a two dollar ticket, curiched the coffers of her owner to the extent of $4,400 and among the other accomplishments defeated Paul Weidel, which thru repeated success in the Canadian stakes had come to be considered as having them at his mercy.
Paul Weidel's defeat, however, was not ignominious. Picking up 130 pounds he broke from an inside position, and started in a businessilke way to traverse the mile and a sixteenth cut out for him He outrun his field to the first turn and swinging easily thru the back stretch, raced Claymore into submission, but turning for home met a challenge which he was unable to fend off. My Dear, restrained for a little more than a half mile, moved up rounding the turn and engaged Paul Weidel as the field straightened away for home. The Lewenstein horse held on gamely in a long drive, lut the weight anchored him hadly in the last sixteenth of a mile, and badly in the last sixteenth of a mile, and be succumbed by three-quarters of a singhth. My Dear, also was stopping siightly in the end and Extero rushing up landed third and lacked, but half a length of overhauling Paul Weddel.

The largest crowd in the history of the Kenilworth Rasing Ascolation course, attended today. The grandstand which stretches for a sixteenth of a mile down the track was crowded as were the bleachers in front of it. The spacious lawn was packed. What threatened to be a showery day brought sunshine with it before the close and the racing was of a high order despite frequent upsets. Jockey B. Kennedy was forced to cancel the remainder of his engagements after the second race because of an injury to his eyes, received when one of his mounts tossed its head back and bumped him.
