Mr. Hannwell—"Yes, dear; but when the staff is too heavy, it is a hindrance rather than a help."

THE RING

Britt Confident

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17—Consternation reigns in the camp of the Native Sons of the Golden West because of the plan to have the Britt-Nelson fight on Sept. 9 Admission day. The order has been arranged for a celebration at Sacramento. It is claimed that the fight will be a counter attraction and will keep thousands away.

The officers of the order are making overtures to Coffroth to postpone the fight at least a day. Coffroth says it is to his interests to have the fight on a holiday, and Sept. 9 is the only one available. The matter is still under consideration.

Britt who is in the mountains of Lake Tahoe, training, is confident of victory, and has told his friends there will be no doubt about the decision—the knockout will be clean. The only bet of a size recorded was $400 to $500, with Britt on the long end.

About the Boxers

No account of the battle between Jack O'Brien and Jack ("Twin") Sullivan at Dawson City last week has as yet been received.

George Gunther has an idea that he is being "hoodooed" by some one for he cannot get a match. He is going to try his luck in England.

Jimmy Gardiner and "Buddy" Ryan, who will meet at Colma, Aug. 25, are to weigh 142 pounds, and the purse is to be divided 75 and 25 percent.

If Jack ("Twin") Sullivan gets back from California in time, he is to be matched to meet Tommy Burns at Los Angeles.

Joe Grim is to bring his brother into the game. He is 19 years old, and a giant.

Mike ("Twin") Sullivan's wish for a match with Joe Gans may be granted by Gans' manager, Al Herford. The latter is to hold a show at Baltimore next month, and is figuring on having Sullivan and Gans for the feature bout.

John L. Sullivan has cast his protégé, Jim McCormack adrift. The big fellow was riled because the Texan caused him to get the laugh from the sporting people. He has advised McCormack to quit the ring and go to work.

Jack McCallahan has been matched to box Joe Bernstein at Wheeling next month.

Dan Littlejohn wants another go with Beth McLeod. Dan thinks he can make good.
