DAVID MAGEE IS AGAIN HEAD OF MERCHANT BODY

Annual Meeting of Retail
Association of City
Last Night

BUSINESS MATTERS ARE TALKED OVER

Support For Maritime Industry and Farming Urged—
Officers Elected

The annual meeting of the Saint John Branch of the Retail Merchants' Association was held in the Board of Trade rooms last evening with the president, David Magee, in the chair. In the absence of the secretary, G. H. Marr, the secretary's report was read by the provincial secretary, Miss Alward. The treasurer's report was read by H. Magnusson showing a balance on the right side of the ledger.

The president delivered an interesting address in which he gave much of historical interest. The address was heard with close attention by the members and at its conclusion Mr. Magee was tendered a hearty vote of thanks.

MATTERS DISCUSSED.
Following the president's address there were several interesting discussions, the following subjects being dealt with: The censorship for programs and contributions, H. H. Scoville, insurance, G. R. Wason, legislation, M. E. Grass, collections and credit reports, Joseph Kennedy, chain selling and canvassing from door to door, J. H. Vaughan, Maritime made goods, Gordon C. Simpson.

Mr. Vaughan stressed the fact that Maritime industries and farming must be solidly supported in order that business might be stimulated.
E. E. Wetmore called the attention of the meeting to the matter of the early closing petition signed by the meat dealers not having been acted upon.
Walter H. Golding gave an interesting talk on The Copyright Act.
A vote of thanks was passed to the Board of Trade for the use of the rooms.

OFFICERS ELECTED.
The election of officers resulted as follows: Honorary president, H. Mont Jones; president, David Magee; first vice-president, H. W. Biding, second vice-president, J. J. Magee; third vice-president, G. R. Ewing; secretary, J. H. Marr; treasurer, H. Magnusson.

Fine of $20 Struck
In Foreclosing Case

John W. Vanwart, charged with foreclosing in the city market, was fined $20 in the police court yesterday afternoon. John Stephenson, clerk of the city market, brought the charge. It was alleged that the defendant had purchased a box of chickens before they had been exposed for sale the necessary number of hours. Evidence was given by Samuel Withers, assistant clerk of the market, and William Wallace, a teamster in the employ of the defendant.

Mr. Vanwart intimated that the clerk was unfair and made exceptions and the magistrate said that if such were the case relief should be obtained from the commissioner of public safety. Mr. Vanwart paid the fine and said that the case would be appealed.

Good Program Given At Joint Meeting

An excellent program was much enjoyed at the joint meeting of the Jessie Chipman Mission Circle and Dr. William Macdonald's Bible Class of the Portland United Church held last evening in the Y. M. A. hall with Mrs. Fred Smiler, president of the Mission Circle, in the chair. Dr. Macdonald gave an illustrated address entitled, "Introducing India," and showed a number of lantern slides. The opening prayer was offered by Miss Jane Henderson. The program included the following numbers: Piano solo, Miss Vera Corbett; vocal solos, Miss Nan McDougall and Mrs. George Hartshorn; reading, Miss Mary Lingley, and a sketch, dealing with missionary work in India, in which those taking part were Miss Laura Panjov, Miss Annie Hershorn, Miss Mildred Kirk, Miss Greta Robinson and Miss Nan McDougall. The accompanist of the evening was Mrs. A. C. Powers.

Weddings

Currie-Brough

A wedding of much interest was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, April 19 at four o'clock, in St. Mark's Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., when Marguerite Brough, younger daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Brough, became the bride of John W. Currie, son of Mrs. Agnes E. Currie, formerly of Saint John, now residing in New York, and the late John S. Currie. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Robert E. More. The bride who was given in marriage by her brother, Percival M. Brough, of Wellfleet Hills, Mass., looked very charming in a smart gown of blue de rose crepe with picture hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Brough, as maid of honor, who wore a becoming gown of grey georgette crepe, with hat to match, and carried a beautiful bouquet of sweet heart roses, and forget-me-nots. Little Miss Jean Brough, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl and the bride's young nephew, Duncan Brough, acted as ring bearer. St. J. Jackson was the groomsmen and the ushers were Norman Brough, brother of the bride, Paul B. Cross, of Saint John, brother-in-law of the groom, William Richardson and Leo P. Roy, formerly of Saint John. After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the Buckingham Chateau, where the bride and groom, with their party, were entertained. The happy couple left on an extended motor trip through the Southern States. On their return they will reside at 681 Ocean Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Percival Brough and children, of Wellfleet Hills, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Cross, of Saint John, N. B.

FOUND WANDERING

Dorothy Hazel Butler, aged four years and six months, and residing in Robbsey, was found wandering about King Square yesterday afternoon by Police Matron Adams and taken to police headquarters for safety. The child had wandered away from her mother, who later on called at headquarters for the little girl.
Shipping on the Rhine last year totaled 14,000,000 tons less than in 1913.

PAPERS CRITICIZE CHURCHILL BUDGET

Feeling of Alarm and Animosity is Expressed By London
Papers

LONDON, April 27.—The British newspapers today greeted the announcement of the English Government budget by Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, with alarm and animosity.

The Daily Mail in referring to the "extravagant expenditures" outlined, asserts: "We are given pious phrases concerning economy and little else. If the policy is continued, the taxpayer must prepare for greater extravagance." The Daily Express says: "The bad budget is Churchill's, not the nation's." "A dull budget, brilliantly presented," comments the Daily News.

"Viewing the budget broadly we see

Push Carriages.

BERLIN, April 27.—The fad of pushing their own baby carriages has taken fashionable German mothers by storm. It used to be bad taste for a mother to be seen with her child on a Kurfurstendamm, Berlin's Park avenue. Now the avenue is crowded with mothers, showing off their spring coats and giving baby a ride.
