TWO MORE HERE FOR LIQUOR LOADS

One Schooner Clears for the West Indies; Other Awaits Cargo.

Two more schooners are in port loading liquor for a reported destination in the West Indies. They are the Hiram D. McLean and General Ironsides. The former cleared this morning for Hamilton, Bermuda. She was loaded at the Pettigill wharf but shifted this morning to No. 6 Extension, San Point, in readiness to sail at the first favorable opportunity. The local Customs authorities cannot give out the individual cargoes of vessels leaving this port, according to an order received about three years ago from Ottawa so that the number of cases on the schooner could not be secured this morning. Captain Livingston is in command.

The General Ironsides is at the McLeod wharf awaiting her cargo. She arrived here from Halifax in charge of Samuel Shaw. The vessel had her name painted on her stern with Grand Banks, Newfoundland, as her port of registry. The local customs officials, it is understood, on examining her papers found that a mistake had been made as the vessel really was registered at St. John's, Newfoundland.

The vessel was built at Grand Banks and it is said that the mistake occurred by the owners noting the place where she was built instead of her port of registry. The local officials informed the captain that no clearance would be granted until this matter is rectified. It was said that the change will be made at once.

Vessels in the liquor trade from this port receive their consignments in bond. The liquor is either shipped to St. John from Europe and is then held here in bond for transshipment to other vessels, or it arrives here from some other province in bond billed for outside ports. There is a steady stream of shipments of this kind through St. John.

MARRIED TODAY

A wedding of much interest took place in St. Peter's church at 5 o'clock this morning when Miss Stella Loretta, daughter of Mrs. Helen and the late John Breen, became the bride of James Leonard, son of Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Leonard, 155 Bridge street. Rev. James Cloran, C. S. R., was the celebrant at the nuptial mass and officiated at the marriage ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, John E. Breen, was dressed in a tailored suit of sand tricot, with hat to match, and wore a black fox fur, the gift of the groom, and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by Miss Gertrude Steele, who wore a tailored suit of navy tricot, with hat to match, and a squirrel tie, and carried a white prayer book. The groom was supported by his brother, William L. Leonard.

After the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother, which was prettily decorated with leaves and cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard left by C. N. R. for a trip to the northern part of the province. The going-away suit of the bride was of navy serge, with hat to match, and seal scarf. On their return they will reside at 82 Main street. Many presents were received, showing their popularity. Among them were substantial checks from the bride's mother and the groom's parents and grandmother, Mrs. C. H. Holt. The ceremony was witnessed by relatives and immediate friends only. The gift of the groom to the bride was a gold ring, with pearl setting, and to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links.

PLAY FOR MARITIME TITLE UNLIKELY

There was Talk of the Portlands Meeting Westville, N. S., Team.

Baseball fans in Moncton were endeavoring to arrange to have the Portlands, winners of the City Amateur League, and the championship of the province, meet Westville, champions of Nova Scotia, in a play-off for the Maritime title there next Saturday. The Portlands won the N. B. title when they defeated Hillsboro in a home and home series and Westville carried off premier honors in Nova Scotia by defeating Springfield. From present indications this play-off will not take place. It was said this morning by A. W. Corey, president of the Maritime branch of the A. U. C., that it was too late in the season now to hold a championship series and that it would not be a fair proposition to consider playing only one game for the title as proposed. Another feature was that the Saturday half-holiday was over for the majority of fans and this would interfere with the attendance. The cost of bringing Westville here, sending the local boys there was considered too heavy at this time of the year. He said the Portlands would not take kindly to the Portlands going to another city to play off for the title. If a series had been arranged it would have been a case of home and home games and in event of a tie, playing the deciding game on neutral grounds.

D. S. REID HAS MOVED TO MONCTON

D. S. Reid, formerly proprietor of the Reid Studio in Charlotte street, left yesterday afternoon for Moncton where he will open a modern, ground-floor photo studio in the Mabel block. Mr. Reid went to the city by motor, and was accompanied by his wife. Both have many friends in St. John who will regret their removal from the city, but they will be followed by best wishes for a continuation in their new home of the success which Mr. Reid achieved while in business here. Their son, Harold, will remain in St. John. Mr. Reid opened his St. John business about 12 years ago, and since then had carried it out with great success. His work of film photography has been during the war, copies of his photographs having been sent to practically every part of the British Empire. He had the distinction on two occasions of making pictures, by special appointment, for the Duke of Connaught, then Governor-General of Canada. Mr. Reid disposed of his local business about six months ago.

NORMAL AGAIN.
The water was turned on in the 36 inch main from Spruce Lake this morning. Commissioner Wigmore reported and pressure on the Lancaster Heights is back to normal.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I have been gadding about some in recent weeks and meeting folks."

"I s'pose," said Hiram, "you found out this aint the only town on the map."

"I confers," said the reporter, "that I did meet people who were thinking about something else."

"An' you found lots o' people that 'ud still hev somethin' to think about if they didn't hear nothin' 'bout St. John fer a week," said Hiram.

"Half that you say is quite true," said the reporter.

"Kin you see the lesson stickin' out there?" queried Hiram.

"I am not sure that I do," said the reporter.

"Well, sir," said Hiram, "here it is, the rest of the country aint listin' to you when you stay home an' holler. If you want folks to know about this here town, put 'em 'bout what a town you got, you'll jist hev to go an' tell 'em—yes, sir."
