NEW SERIAL AND NEW VAUDEVILLE

Opera House Programme is Enjoyed by Large Audiences.

Capacity houses greeted the change of programme in the Opera House last evening and judging from the criticism of the patrons, their hearty laughter and prolonged applause they thoroughly enjoyed the performance. The vaudeville acts were really good. The musical renditions would be hard to excel and the acrobatic feats were meritorious.

A feature was the new motion picture serial, "The Black Secret," which was written by Robert W. Chambers, fiction writer, as a serial in one of the popular magazines. Judging from the first episode it should be one of the most thrilling ever thrown on a local screen. The plot deals with the great German spy system and the scenes are laid in the United States and Europe. Pearl White is featured in the leading role, and if the first episode is to be a criterion she was a good choice for the part. It is thrilling yet devoid of far-fetched scenes so familiar in serial pictures.

Santosa had a musical surprise in store for his audience. He appeared on the stage playing two saxophones, after which he played two clarinets with apparently as much ease as the average player plays one. Other musical numbers were thoroughly appreciated and he received well merited applause.

"The Four Gardeners" have a pleasing number. They are a ladies' singing quartette and their songs are well chosen and equally well rendered. Their voices blend well and their efforts were undoubtedly enjoyed. They won rounds of applause at the conclusion of each number.

Hollman Bros. present an acrobatic horizontal bar act which would be hard to equal. They are clever performers and some of their feats evoked hearty applause. They intersperse a little comedy in their offering and this makes it amusing as well as highly entertaining.

Martin and Wayne, in a comedy singing skit, "Can You Prove It?" also made a favorable impression and received a share of the plaudits.

Robb and Whitehead in "Back to School Days," a novel comedy skit, were well received. They have a bright act which seemed to take the fancy of the audience.

SEEMS EVERYONE
HEARD ABOUT IT

All want to try new drug that dries up corns so they lift out.

Good news spreads rapidly, and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezine, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any pharmacy, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, itching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

BIG MONEY DEAL WITH BELGIUM

Purchase of Gold Notes with Unique Feature in the Arrangements.

New York, Jan. 14.—A United States syndicate has purchased $23,000,000 worth of one year and five year six per cent kingdom of Belgium gold notes. Banking houses, banks and trust companies of New York, Chicago and other prominent cities will participate in the underwriting. It was said that the notes, due on Jan. 1, 1925, are a direct lien on Belgian exchange. They give the holders the right to surrender them at any time during their life to the fiscal agents and demand that Belgian francs be sold in the United States market at not less than eleven francs to the dollar, approximately the present ruling, to meet them. This unique feature, according to the fiscal agents, offers the prospect of unusual profits to holders in the event the Belgian rate of exchange goes up between now and the maturity of the notes.

ADMIT COMBINE OF THE BAKERS

Montreal Bread-Makers Say It Was Fact—One Who Would Not Join Said He Was Hounded.

(Canadian Press Despatch).
Montreal, Jan. 14.—At an enquiry yesterday into a complaint against the city bakers here that a combine had been formed in November to eliminate competition and raise the price of bread, J. E. Billette, representing most of the French-Canadian bakers involved, admitted that there had been a coalition of the bakers who united and decided to raise the price of bread and fix a common price. It had been done, he said, to obtain a reasonable profit. Gustave Monet, representing other bakers, agreed with and supported Mr. Billette. J. R. Robitaille, a baker, said that as a consequence of refusing to put up with the price of his bread, he had been so harassed that he had sold out. He said that he had been refused food because he did not belong to the bakers' association.

K. C. ADD MEMBERS

At a special meeting of St. John Council, 937, K. of C., in their rooms in Coburg street last evening, sixteen candidates were initiated in the first degree which was well exemplified by the grand knight, W. M. Ryan, and his team. The meeting was attended by many members and following the degree ceremonial a reception was held for the new members, refreshments served, and a moving concert conducted. Addresses dealing with the order and its work, its part in the war and its share in the process of reconstruction were delivered by the grand knight and the state deputy, Dr. G. D. Broderick. Vocal solos were given by E. Bates Tapley and M. T. Morris, and a violin solo by Maureen O'Neill. Several choruses of popular songs which everybody joined afforded pleasure.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

An interesting address was delivered by Rev. G. D. Hudson last evening at the opening of an evangelistic campaign in Victoria street Baptist church. Rev. Mr. Hudson spoke on the subject of the features of the evening was a vocal solo by Miss French. The campaign will be continued during the week.

NEW HAT FOR WOMEN.

London, Jan. 14.—A new millinery fashion is a silk beaver hat, in the Irish style, with high crown and very narrow brim. The veil is attached to the hat and covers the face to the upper lip.

GOING TO PARIS.

F. A. Adams, deputy minister of labor of Canada, who will be one of the Canadian representatives at the labor congress in Paris. Sir George Perley and Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, also will be delegates.

SPECULATION ON RESIGNATION OF
GEN. TOWNSHEND

London, Jan. 14.—The war office, while admitting that General Townshend, the hero of Kut-el-Amara, had written a letter asking permission to resign, would not divulge the contents of the communication or comment on it. It is generally recalled that two facts exist which might have had a bearing on the case. The first was that he published articles in which he charged the government with failing to furnish him sufficient troops and munitions in his campaign, thereby causing his surrender. The second was his failure to receive recognition in the way of honors and grants of money similar to those bestowed on other famous British leaders. The general's friends have made it known that they were deeply incensed because his services were not recognized. However, all inferences as to General Townshend's resignation is mere speculation.

COSTLY VISITOR
FOR UNITED STATES

New York, Jan. 14.—Ellis Island's most protracted visitor, Migl Cogic, who has been detained there since Aug. 3, 1914, is on his way home to Austria. He arrived at the outbreak of the war but was found to have defective vision and was ordered deported.

WHITE TIE OF SANCTITY.

London, Jan. 14.—My old grandfather thought it was wrong to go for a walk on Sunday. He would have thought it very improper if a man had not a white tie on that day, said the Rev. D. C. Young at Westminster Central Hall, describing the Sundays of his boyhood. "The women always had better bonnets and dresses on Sundays. The men all had frock coats. I can't think what my grandfather would have said to the jackets of today."

Smith Got Wise.

A sore corn, he said, was had enough, but to have it stepped on was the limit. He invested in a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, and now wears a happy smile. Corn is gone—without doing hair cutting, shaving and lathering for immigrants.

HOTEL FOR BACHELORS.

London, Jan. 14.—Lodgings being as difficult to get as houses in Luton, a local motor firm is to build a "bachelor hotel" for its young men. There will be accommodation for about 100 bachelors, aged from eighteen to twenty-five. The new hotel will be built close to the works. It will have a lounge, billiard room, buffet and central dining hall, reading room, a "quiet" room and plenty of baths.
