	GEUKGE SIEWANI,	We sing the praises of the little store—that one at the head of the market. Twill be time enough to talk about the prestige of the large store when our own covers a block—for the present our eye is single to the advantages of the small store. And it has its advantages. Do you want a dress? And before you buy do you wish to see what is in the market? Don't go to the small store but to the large; the latter can show you ten pieces to the latter's one.	everywhere. Morgan, Parry and Hardwick are the married men of the party. "To compare the English team with some of our Americam athletes: Morgan will find his superiores in Cary and Sherrill; Nickols will find that Downs and Dohm know how to run a quarter, also that Cary and Sherrill can run a 220; Morton and Parry will find that Willie Day can run, and the distance races will be hard to decide until they all meet; but I have great faith in our wonderful little Yankee and think he will win. The climate will effect all but Morgan, who was a sailor and who is used to all climates. Morris will be beaten by some of the boys. We sail on the Majestic Sept. 17." The Wheel. A REMARKABLE RECORD. His first quarter in 39 3-5 seconds proved to be of the steady kind that enabled him to warm to his work, while his twentieth and last quarter in 35 4-5 seconds was in itself a very fine performance. The analysis of miles also affords interesting reading, viz.:—his first in 2.28 1-5; second in 2,31 2-5; third in 2.38 3-5; fourth in 2.40 3-5; and fifth in 2.35 4-5, making a total of 12.54 2-5 for the full five miles; or 22 seconds faster than McCready's best. Perhaps the finest performance of the lot, however, and certainly one that seemed to stagger the onlookers the most, was his first two miles in 4.56 3.5, as against McCready's best, 5.12 3-5.
