THE GIBERSON MINE.

THE STORY IS NOT A MYTH.

A correspondent writing from the Tobique says: "The Giberson Mine is not a myth, as a local paper stated last week. It is a reality. The secret died with the finder, but there are numbers who have seen specimens of the quartz. Your correspondent remembers seeing a piece which was in the possession of an old California miner, some thirty years ago. There are some specimens in Andover, and the Crown Land Office has a sample. We trust that Mr. Baily has found the mine which has been searched for in vain for over forty years, instead of a score as you stated last week."

TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY.

It is with serious regret that we learn of Mr. W. B. Jewett's intention to sell out his business in this county. He has determined to remove to the States as soon as possible and is offering the stock in both the Woodstock and Hartland stores at cost to clear. The people of Hartland and vicinity have appreciated their jewelry store and will regret if it is closed up. It is to be hoped some other enterprising jeweller will find it profitable to start business here.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

James Culbert, living two miles below town, met with a distressing accident on Monday morning. He was thrown violently from a sleigh, attached to a runaway horse, and had his forehead cut on the ice in the road so that a dozen stitches were necessary. He was able to walk from the scene of the accident to the house. Dr Estey was at once summoned and attended to the unfortunate man's wound. The great wonder is that he escaped death, or at least a fracture of the skull. He is about 65 years of age.

BADLY CUT.

Frank Adair, of Carlisle, who was in the woods for McNair, on the Tobique, came out on Wednesday with a bad cut—an ugly gash extending across the back of his right hand. The cords of the thumb were severed so he will have partial loss of the use of that member. The wound was inflicted on Monday, and was not cared for by a physician until Wednesday, when the young man came to Hartland, and sought relief of Dr. Curtis. Adair is stopping at the Hartland House.

DEATH IN CAMP.

THE UNWHOLESOME PORKER
CAUSED IT ALL.

GENUINE CASE OF TRICHINOSIS.

Many employees in McNair's lumber camps on Trowser Lake, Tobique, have been stricken with a strange malady. At first it was supposed to be typhoid fever, being contracted from drinking the lake water. Later investigations shows the disease to have had its origin in pork that was taken in last winter, and off of which, to make the load lighter, the toters had drained the pickle. About fifteen men were stricken down, and the utmost skill of Dr. Wiley of Andover was tried to bring the sufferers through. One young fellow, about 16 years of age, after being taken to his home in Sisson Ridge, succumbed to the disease.

One brave woman, on hearing of her husband's illness, walked 25 miles in to the camp to nurse him.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD.

On Monday Mrs Elizabeth Jenkins died of consumption at the residence of George Johnson. She had been sick for seven or eight years. Mrs Jenkin's maiden name was Davis and she was born 60 years ago in Hibernia, Queen Co, and lived there the greater part of her life. For many years she kept a general store at that place. About 35 years ago she was married, and later came to Carleton County where she lived at Coldstream a long time. She was a widow many years. She was a sister to Mrs G W Boyer, of this village, and a cousin to the late Hugh H H, and G W Davis of Woodstock. During her life Mrs Jenkins was known to have amassed considerable wealth, which she disposed of by a will. The funeral was held in Rockland on Wednesday. Rev John Perry preached the sermon.

LARGE HOGS.

A gentleman brought to market one day last week the, up to that time, largest porker of the season. It tipped the scales at 575 pounds, and was purchased by Mr. John Owens. On Friday, however, Mr. Albert Kilburn, of Mac'n'quack, brought to town the largest hog that has been seen here for some time. It was eighteen months old, and weighed 610 pounds when dressed. It was purchased by Mr. E. Estabrooks—F'ton Gleaner,
