liberal party of Halifax shows as yet no sign of healing. Wire pullers in the two ions are bitter in their denunciations of each other, and are not backward in charging all manner of evil-doing against those with different views of the situation. made by the Jones workers that the conon had been packed in the interest of Russell, when the Russell men read that the first thing they did was to retaliate by saying that there was just as much "packing" on the other side.

'Why," said a prominent Russsell wire puller, "I saw five men at the convention ot one of whom had any right to be present, and who were all Jones men. They were J. W. Creighton, (though he did not vote), J. H. Barnstead, Mr. Walsh, Thomas Cook and James Fraser. The delegate's ticket held by at least one of se men was not genuine.

"What was wrong with it?" PROGRESS

asked. "Only this," was the reply, "that C. B. Burns, who was acting sec-retary, says the name "C. B. Burns" which retary, says the name "C. B. Burns" which was affixed to J. H. Barnstead's ticket was not his signsture, that his name on that the Russel men do not hesitate to call it, ticket, in fact, was a forgery. And it was not alone on that ticket this liberal wo knot alone on that ticket this liberal wo ker went on to say, that the name C. B. Roche, then of Russell, but always op-Burns was forged, there were other tickets posed to Jones:
"The first we heard that anything was who sat, took part, and voted in the convention, whereas the town has a right only to four delegates. Russel is a Dartmouth man himself, so that those 23 were doubtless taken there to the convention to vote for the pro- taken to Mr. Roche :- Wm. Chishol fessor, though it is denied that they voted John Murphy, George Mitchell, and Hon. in a body for him.

"How could this kind of thing be done, if it was done p" is a natural question. The convention was originally called a year ago. the delegates who nore creations of ward as made when the convention first met.

That list was the basis of membership in ... Those who were satisfied with Mr. That list was the basis of membership in was made that the names of the delegates had been lost. No one knew who they it was not lost at all, and that the story Jones, and for either Roche or Russell, as Jones, and for either Roche or Russell, as the case might be. Things must have reached a pretty pass in the liberal party of Halifax when such charges as this are possible, that the membership roll of a nominating convention. bership roll of a nominating convention should be lost and that then a section of the Jones boon openly started, without, how faithful to the young men's section in particular. This may account for 23 him in the interest of Jones."

Coming over from Dartmouth, while poor The news of his declining came like s Mr. Barnstead, a life-long, daylight to dark, liberal, who had the misfortune to terrified the Roche be a Jones adherent, was refused admission to the convenion even though he had a ticket. But his ticket was one of choice of the convention, and the those with a signature which C. B.

Burns repudiated. There are hints regarding the place of printing of these questioned tickets, and the signing of Burns' name to them, but, in Barnstead's some other standard than that of Mr. case, that gentleman says he was given his ticket in Burns' office, in response to a letter which he presented showing that he had been regularly appointed a delegate for Jeddore or some such district. Yet when Mr. Barnstead showed himself at the convention door he was ignominiously challenged, his ticket disdained, and had he not been a determined man of considercase, that gentleman says he was given his Jones. Hence they took measures to

TROUBLES OF THE GRITS. | had been on a former occasion. The objection to Barnstead, even with his questioned ticket in his hand, was that he could not be a member of the adjourned convention, though bearing a letter of appointment from a section, for he had been appointed since the first meeting of the convention. As it was merely an ad-journment, none who had not held seats in the original bidy could hold seats at the subsequent meeting. Thus the young men tried to rule Barnstead out, and as some of his friends say, at the same time admitted many from Dartmouth, a place entitled to only four, or perhaps eight delegates. From this it may be seen how effective for good or evil such a catastrophe as losing the membership roll of a political convention may become

One year ago when William Roche and Michael Dwyer w're nominated by the liberal convention how bright the cutlook was for that party. Mr. Roche is worth $700,000 and Mr. Dwyer $500,000. The latter declined on the ground that his health forbade him entering upon the campaign, and in taking that course every man on both sides of politics knows that, while devoted heart and soul to liberalism, Mr. Dwyer was merely performing his duty to himself. The present trouble has been brought about by Mr Roche declining at the eleventh hour, to remain a condidate, yet the men who are responsible for this are those who induced Mr. Roche thus to

Jones men."

It will be seen from this how serious is the rupture between the old and the young men in the party in Halifax, or between the Jones and the anti-Jones men.

Martin was going round asking for the money for this object, and after a little ef-In proof of the statement that the anti-Jones workers ran scores of "delegates" plained his lack of success by say-into the convention who had no right to be ing that be could not get subthere, the Jones men tell as an instance how Dartmouth sent over 23 "delegates," scriptions from certain persons till they were informed definitely who the candidates who sat, took part, and voted in the were to be. Then Dr. Barnstead took up H. H. Fullers, Another citizen taking a warm interest in the intriguing going on was H. D. Blackaddar, who lost no convention was originally called a year ago. opportunity of informing Mr. Roche's and the body that met recently, when Russell and Keefe were nominated, was think it would be possible to elect Roche, only an adjourned meeting. A list of the delegates who bore credentials of ward 5 at midnight talking over matters the adjourned meeting, of course. And so it would have been, had the list not been lost. When it was decided to call the concome a candidate, not to speak of his anvention together a second time, to receive the reply of Messrs. Roche and Dwyer, or election that he would retire from Dominion ominate their successors, the discovery politics. On subsequent occasions Mr. Jones continued in his policy of retirement. At the barquet of Hon. were. Accordingly the notice summoning the convention asked all delegates to come to the secretary and get convention tickets of admission to the convention. Whether the list taking the place vacated by the retirement was actually "lost," or nos, very tew know, of Mr. Dwyer, and lastly, one month but there are more than a few who say that it was not lost at all, and that the story Mr. Jones again, at a meeting of the that it was missing was only a clumsy de- liberal executive committee, once more vice to place the convention in the hands of those who wished to control it against party's ticket. It Mr. Jones had ever "Three days before the convention the party should feel justified in stating that it ever, any direct authority from the old had been intentionally lost in order that lader. H. D. Blackaddar in ward 5; a the body might be packed in the interest of a particular candidate.

crowd of young lawyers throughout the city, John H. Barnstead and other would-The tickets, bogus and good alike, be organizers of the party in the Southwere printed at the Recorder office.

The good ones wers not all person work that Mr. Roche was on the verge The good ones were not all personally held by C. B. Burns for delegates.

The tickets were handed to ward chairmen few hours more completed their work, and for distribution—to all who had a right to on the day before the convention ren-but, the Jones men charge, to those assembled Roche succumbed to the con

The news of his declining came like a thunderbolt but it angered rather than now become anti-Jones partizans. Done he not been a determined man of considerable force of character and physical ability, he would have been turned out to the street, as, indeed, he and C. C. Blackaddar, as well as some others, certainly is yet a lot of hot fighting in sight for the liberals, old and young, of Halitax city and county.

was on a journey. The tune is "Hey Tuttie Tattie," an old march that is said by tradition to have animated Bruce's men at

SONGS WE ALL KNOW.

Who Wrote Them How, and When Some Them Were Written.

"The Campbells are comin" is a very

"One Bumper at parting" is one of the best known of Moore's convivial songs. The tune was called, "Moll Roe in the Morning.

Morning."

"Come, Landlord, Fill the Flowing Bowl," dates from the time of Shakespeare.
It appears in one of Fletcher's plays.

"Cheer, Boys, Cheer" was the work of Charles Mackay, the music being by Henry Press.!! It was the authorms of an evening.

Russell. It was the out come of an evening of conviviality in 1843.

"Drink to Me only with thine eyes" is from a poem entitled "The Forest," by Ben Jonson. The air is an adaptation from one of Mczart's opera melodies "Allan Water" was written by Matthew Gregory Lewis, better known in literature as "Monk Lewis," whose weird tales were the fashion when Scott was young.

"What are the Wild Waves Saying?"

duet that was once immensely popular, was suggested to Dr. Joseph Edwards Carand Son. "Rule Britannia" is usually credited to James Thompson. It first appeared in a play, entitled "Alfred," by Thompson and Mallet, in 1740. The air was by Dr. Thomas Arne. "The Wearing of the Green" exists in several forms and versions. The best-known one was written by Dion Boucicault the dramatist. It is sung by "Shaun the Post" in "Arrah-na-Pogue."

"Scots, Wha Hae" was by Burns. It was written on a dark day while the author

Something New.

Save half your time and money at a "real business" school-Learn shorthand in a week tren do your bookkeep ing in shorthand-three times faster than longhand. Take both courses in time of one. Lesson in shorthand free.

SNELL'S BUSINESS COLLEGE,

CONDENSED ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED Trustworthy men and women to $40.00 to $60.00 monthly, to suitable persons. Address, Drawer 29, Brantford Ont.

WANTED -Young or middle aged men of Canada, started with us. About $14.00 a week to begin with. The Bradley Garretson Co. Ltd. Toronto, Ont.

WANT ED to EARNEST MEN AND WOMEN, Suffering Armenia," a trilling book. Graphic ac-count of the Eastern Question, the Turk, Armenian and Mohammedanium with its horrible massacres.

WANT D RELIABLE MERCHANTS in proof Cold Water Paint. Five million pounds sold in United States last year. VICTOR KOFOD, 49 Francis Xavier, Montreal.

RESIDENCE at Rothesay for sale or to ren pleasantly situated house knewn as the Titus prob erty about one and a half miles-from Rothesay Sta tion and within two minutes walk of the Kennebe

PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT

"A Life on the Ocean Wave" was the work of Epes Sargesnt, an American poet, the idea being suggested to him during a walk on the Battery in New York, one day, when a high wind was blowing in from the sea. It was set to music by Henry

' The Last Rose of Summer," one Patti's favourite songs, was the work of Thomas Moore. The melcdy is a very an tent Irish tune, formerly known as "The Groves of Blarney." This tune has been found in collections of Irish music at least two hundred years old.

'The Blue Bells of Scotland" was the work of Annie McVicar, afterward Mrs. Grant, the daughter of a Scottish officer in the British army. The melody was long believed to be Scottish, but is now known to be of English origin, being an old English folk song.

"Kathleen Mavourneen" was written by Mrs. Crawford, an Irish lady, whose songs ninety years ago were in high repute. The music was by Crouch, an accentric genius, who in his old age and poverty begged his way into a concert given by Titiens, that he might hear his own com-Titiens, that he might hear his own composition filly sung.

"Love's Young Dream," one of Moore's best, was set by him to an Irish tune called "The Old Woman." Moore heard the tune from a blind fiddler, wrote it down, and, discerning its beauty, determined that it should have better words than the nonsentical verses to which it was sung by the Irish peasantry.

"I'll Hang my Harp on a Willow-Tree" hrs attached to it a bit of royal romance. It was written by a young nobleman who became deeply enamoured of Queen Victoria a year or so before she ascended the English throne, which event destroyed his bopes of winning her hand. The words first appeared in an English magazine, and were set to music by Wellington Guernsey.

"Auld Lang Syne" is of uncertain origin.

zine, and were set to music by Weinington Guernsey.

"Auld Lang Syne" is of uncertain origin, there teing several versions of this deservedly popular song. One of the best is by Burns, but only the second and three stanzas are by this poet, the remainder being from the pen of Ramsay, The seng is of uncertain antiquity; one version is dated 1716, another is said to date from the sixteenth century.

An amusing story comes from a French provincial city where a stock company at a smill theater were playing "Hamlet." A herald annonced "the king," and as the actor stepped into view, a sarcastic voice came from the gallery: "What, him a king! why, he owes me two francs."

Maine's forests are being made into paper at the rate of about twelve thousand tons of pulp and paper every year. Some five thousand men are employed in the pulp anp paper industry, and $13,000,000 of capital is invested in it.

One hundred and nine thousand loco-motives are at presett running on the earth. Europe has 63.000; America, 40, 000; Asia, 3,300; Australia, 2,000; and Africa, 700.

Columbia and Hartford

W.H.THORNE & Co., L. td.

Market Fquare, St. John. . . Agents.

Engish Cutlery.

Knives, Razors, Scissors, Shears.

M'AVITY & SONS, King St., ST. JOHN. N. B.

Your Attention is Directed

To our Display

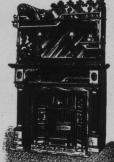

of Wood Mantels

in Oak, Cherry and Walnut.

Slate Mantels, Register Grates,

Plain and Fancy Tiles, Brass Andirons, Brass Fenders,

Gas Logs, Artistic Fire Places. Write for Illustrations and Prices

EMERSON & FISHER.

Proof of the Pudding Is in the Eating.

We have had practical experience in Bicycles for five years and have had opportunities of testing all the best makes of Wheels in our Bicycle Academy and Repair Shop and are now prepared to give you the benefit of our experience. The three lines of wheels which we recommend are the Stearns, Eclipse, Waverley.

Quick Repair Shop.

See our samples or write us for information.

THERE WILL BE NO DELAY, for we realize how much a rider dislikes to part with his wheel, even for a day. We hope to make friends by being prompt.

Fifty second band Bicycles in good order for sale cheap.