all the elements which enter into the physical well being of mankind, are none of greater importance than water which is daily consumed in the of nature's requirements. It is in that an article entering so largely the internal economy should be of the absolute purity. No water can be called pure unless it has been filtered. Innumerable filters have been used while filtered water is an improvement over the natural conditions there and much to be done in the filtering of an apparatus which would be the requirements of scientific accuracy. This has at last been accomplished in a manner that has elicited the commendation of all authorities who have given their attention. The "Perfect Water" now being placed on this market by the "Patison Manufacturing Company" of Windsor, N. B., will give a supply of chemically pure distilled water. W. W. On Monday evening last about thirty-five of the friends of A. E. MacIntyre of this city tendered him a farewell dinner at the Ban Leonard House. The party drove out to the lake in the Tally Ho and backboard leaving the city about half past four in the afternoon. Noon after their arrival the company sat down to an elegant supper prepared in the best style of Mr. Sterling Barker the genial host of the Ban Leonard House. Mr. E. A. McKinnon and Mr. C. J. Miligan occupied the chair and vice chair respectively, and after a hearty dinner came toasts and speeches. The toast to the Queen was followed by the National anthem, and that to the Government of Canada and E. use of Common was responded to by Mr. John L. Clarkson and Mr. M. McDade. C. J. Miligan proposed "Our Guest" and on behalf of some of his friends in seat and appropriate language presented Mr. MacIntyre with a handsome travelling bag. Mr. MacIntyre responded feelingly and expressed his deep regret that circumstances had to rule that he was to leave St. John with its many warm friendships for a city in which he practically knew no one. St. John had been the city of his adoption and in it he had formed friendships which he could not forget although he was now leaving his friends. In conclusion he thanked heartily the donors of his handsome present. Isaac Burpee proposed the toast of "The Ladies" which was fittingly replied to by R. L. Johnston and Dr. Barry Foxworth. "The John St. John" was proposed by J. P. McIntyre and the reply brought Aid Ruel and R. C. J. Dunn to their feet. John McDonald proposed the "Mercantile Interests" and John Magee the "Learned Professions." These toasts were responded to by R. N. Cooke, J. V. Russell, Geo. Ketchum, Dr. D. Walker, C. E. Ferguson and C. T. Bailey. Other impromptu toasts then followed. All through the speeches of the evening ran the feeling of deep regret at the departure from the city of Mr. MacIntyre. During the evening song was sung by Messrs. A. E. Lindsay, J. P. MacIntyre, Geo. Craigie, G. G. Ruel and A. F. MacIntyre. The evening broke up with Auld Lang Syne; all present joining in the very best of good wishes for the future success of Mr. MacIntyre.
