SHANGHAI NOW IN HANDS OF REBELS

City was Taken with Only Few Shots Fired, and No Resistance.

British Soldiers on Guard Prevent Damage to Shanghai.

Text of New Constitution Secured for People of China Through Efforts of Assembly.

Shanghai, Nov. 3.—Except for the foreign concessions Shanghai tonight is entirely in the hands of the revolutionists who captured the city late this afternoon. There was practically no resistance, only a few shots being fired. All the Chinese soldiers have joined the rebels and the police and firemen apparently are sympathizing with them for they are wearing white badges on their arms.

After taking over the arsenal the rebels burned the Taotais Yamen in the native city. The Associated Press correspondent this afternoon covered the entire outlying section of Shanghai but did not discover a single instance of disorder. Even in the native city where the revolutionists were burned to the ground, complete order prevailed. Every courtesy is being shown foreigners.

While the action of the rebels was expected the movement was made quickly. About four o'clock a slight disturbance occurred in the northern section of the city and shortly afterwards throughout the native city notices were posted announcing that the military government of China had taken over Shanghai. It warned the populace against disorder.

The arsenal where recently there had been the greatest activity preparatory to assisting the upriver forts and providing ammunition for Admiral Siah was called on to surrender by the revolutionaries. The chief officials of the arsenal quietly disappeared but a few other officials continued to hold it without, however, any show of force. A few shots were fired there, but the revolutionists warned the officials remaining that they intended to take the arsenal even if they had to fight for it. No one was killed.

British Soldiers on Guard. Quickly following the demands for the surrender of the arsenal came an attempt to cut the wires of the Nanking-Shanghai railway which was frustrated personally by A. W. U. Pope, general manager of the company.

Frightened by Threatened Inspection Chicago Wheat Holders Glut Market and Brokers Go Down in Wreck.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 3.—One brokerage firm today suspended and another transferred its trades to avoid going to the wall, when the heavy holders of wheat poured the holdings into trade channels to clear decks, in common belief for the threatened inspection by federal authorities on a hunt for possible wheat corners.

The suspended firm, a small one, was that of Sam Finney-Pringle & Wing, got under cover by transfer of trades when the call for margins went out.

FRANCE AND GERMANY IN ACCORD NOW

Germany Gets Slice of Territory in Congo and Recognizes Morocco as Protectorate of France.

TREATY AGREED TO.
Berlin, Nov. 3.—In making public tonight a summary of the treaty concerning Morocco arranged by Foreign Secretary Herr von Kiderling and the French ambassador M. Cambon, the foreign office issued the following statement:

"The German government believe that both parties can be in agreement over the contents of the new treaty. It will have a calming effect not only upon conditions between Germany and France but also upon the general political situation."

"Germany stands at the conclusion of this treaty in the same position as to French undertakings in Morocco as does England. It is especially emphasized that England has not interfered in the negotiations."

Paris, Nov. 3.—France as compensation for German recognition of her protectorate in Morocco cedes to Germany about 25,000 square kilometres in northern French Congo touching the German Kameruns.

The territory ceded is inhabited by about 1,000,000 negroes and has a commerce valued at $2,400,000 annually. The accord does not affect Togoland, but Germany cedes her duchy's bill, extending from Char river to Logone river. France and Germany agree to submit to The Hague tribunal all difficulties arising from the operation of the accord.

In reference to Morocco France agrees to safeguard the economic equality and commercial liberty for which provision is made in existing treaties. The only reference to commercial rights in the ceded territory is the mutual agreement to take over the rights and obligations in connection with the companies holding concessions there.

The Premier's Reply.
After the toasts to the King and the Governor General had been duly honored, the chairman proposed the toast of the evening, "Welcome to Premier Fleming."

Premier Fleming in replying, said that he intended to run the government entirely independent of federal issues, it had nothing of a definite nature to say in regard to the Valley Railway, except that he would continue to further its completion where the contract was signed. Special attention would be directed toward the working of the crown land department and all the other departments and especially toward maritime representation. He thanked them heartily for the complimentary resolutions, gave a short review of the past sixteen years of the provincial government, telling of the conditions as they existed prior to 1908, as compared with the conditions today.

He asked only that the people judge the government on its merits when it went to the people. He briefly touched on the different departments of the government and showed the great change for the better during the last three years.

WOULD GET RICH FROM CAT SKINS

Here's a Scheme for Easy Wealth Which Was Put Up to the Postmaster of Chicago.

HE DIDN'T BITE.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 3.—"Get rich quick" schemes of J. Rufus Wallford, facile financier, or the tried and true roads to wealth by thrift and industry which have met with more or less success when pursued by John D. Rockefeller, J. P. Morgan, and others, are as the blundering activities of children compared to a plan submitted to Postmaster Campbell today.

"The plan is nothing more or less than to feed rats to cats, skin the cats and feed the cats back to the rats, in endless succession, the only break being the deduction of the cat skins, the sale of which is to supply the profit, outlining his plan, said: 'We will start a cat ranch getting 1,000,000 cats. Each will have twelve kittens a year. Cat skins are worth 10 cents for white ones and 75 cents for black ones. They will average 30 cents each. There are 12,000,000 cat skins a year, a daily gross income of some $10,000. A man can skin fifty cats for $2 and it will take 100 men to operate the ranch, leaving our profit over $8,000 a day. We will have to feed the cats.

"Start a rat ranch next door. Rats multiply four times as fast as cats. We will have, therefore, four rats a day for each cat, a plenty. How to feed the rats.

"Simply feed them on the cat bodies—a fourth of a cat per rat—apply sufficient. Thus, you see, the business will be self-supporting automatically.

"The cats will eat the rats, and the rats will eat the cats, and we get the skins and the wealth. Are you with me?"

DON'T PAY DUTY ON YOUR GLASS EYES; SMUGGLE THEM IN

New York, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Illicit traffic in glass eyes between Germany and the United States has been conducted for some time, it is charged, by persons who are said to have been supplying some New York oculists with the articles free of duty.

The customs authorities today issued warrants for two men charged with the smuggling, and have already it is said seized $1,000 worth of the artificial optics at the smugglers' supposed headquarters. The officials say they have been aware for some time that the smuggling was going on, but had found difficulty in learning how it was done. Employees of the steamship lines are declared to have helped the smugglers.

English Officer Tells of Fiendish Atrocities by Italian Soldiers.

Mosque in Tripoli Filled with Bodies of Mutilated Innocents.

Calls on England to Stop Horrible Butchery without Parallel in History of War.

London, Nov. 3.—The agitation against alleged atrocities by Italians in Tripoli which has sprung up in the British press and been taken up by a few members of the House of Commons since uncorroborated reports arrived here from English newspaper correspondents concerning recent occurrences in Tripoli, received fresh impetus tonight through a telegram received by a news agency from Herbert Montague, a second lieutenant of the Fifth Fusiliers.

Lieut. Montague telegraphed from Soubkhatina, by way of Debbah, on the frontier of Tunis, as follows: "I feel it my duty to send to you the following telegram and I beg you in the name of Christianity to publish it throughout England. I am an English officer now voluntarily serving in the Turkish army here. As you know already about the ferocious resistance which the Turks and Arabs are offering the Italians, I will only express my admiration for their bravery and fortitude which would warm the heart of any Englishman or of any true soldier in the world."

"Imagine my feelings when on entering and driving the Italians out of Arab houses which they had fortified and were holding, was discovered the bodies of some 120 women and children with their hands and feet bound, mutilated, pierced, and torn.

"Later on at the name of the town was lost in transmission we found mosques filled with bodies of women and children mutilated almost beyond recognition. I could not count them, but there must have been three or four hundred.

Calls on England's Aid.

"In this European war are such crimes to be committed? Cannot England do something to stop such horrors? In our civilization and times you can hardly believe but it is true, nevertheless, I myself have seen it, so I know.

"Even now we are getting news of further massacres of women and children, who were discovered in different farms lately occupied by Italians. The idea of the Italians when they slaughtered the innocents obviously was one of revenge for their heavy losses in battle."

"We are at this moment under a heavy shrapnel fire, so you must excuse me if these sentences are somewhat disjointed. There is also an aeroplane circling over our position and directing the enemy's gun fire on us."

Lieut. Montague's message is dated Nov. 2.
