

NOVA SCOTIA FOX COMPANY JUST STARTED

B. Roy Holman of Charlottetown Has Interested More Capital in Fox Ranches.

B. Roy Holman, president of the Maritime Fox Exchange and Investment Company, has returned to Charlottetown from Halifax, N. S., where he has interested a number of the leading business and professional men in the fox industry. Mr. Holman has promoted a fox company, which will have five pairs of the very best foxes. The ranch will be situated near Charlottetown in an ideal locality. The company will be known as "The Kingsboro Fur Farms, Limited," with head office in Halifax. The authorized capital is $150,000, paid up capital $80,000, which will include the cost of building the ranch and the keep of the foxes for the first year. The authorized directors are: President, K. K. McDonald, M. D., Halifax; Vice-President, Hon. R. G. Beazly, M. L. C., contractor, Halifax; secretary, J. D. Campbell, manufacturer's agent, Halifax; treasurer, J. P. Fry, proprietor Fry's Bakery, Halifax; directors, Henry Beazly, P. W. Bishop, B. Roy Holman, managing director, Charlottetown. These are all prominent gentlemen in Nova Scotia. They own the greater portion of the stock. The solicitors are Messrs. McLean, Burchell and Ralston.

The management of the Spring Park Ranch report an increase of 13 pups, all of which are strong and healthy. This will assure the stockholders of a good dividend, as the company's capitalization is very low.

BLACK FOX FUR IN DEMAND AT ALL SEASONS

Royalty Abroad Demands the Skin Because it Will Hold Gold Tippings Well.

Making a million dollar proposition in twenty years out of a little Prince Edward Island farm is an unusual development. This is what happened and is happening in Prince Edward Island. A large part of the island has become excited over the comparatively new industry of conducting black fox ranches. Big money is being made out of it, according to reports, and plenty more is predicted. The skin of the black fox demands a high price. Royalty abroad demands it for the skin which will hold gold tippings as none other will. Up to the present the ranches of the island have not tried to enter the market extensively for furs. They have found that from other places where ranches are being started there is a strong demand for live foxes, and practically all that are raised are sold for breeding purposes. It is expected that in about five years the industry will have reached a stage where the ranches will be able to supply furs extensively and that then there will probably come a drop in price, but not one that will mean any serious loss in profits to the rancher.

Among the P. E. I. fox legislation passed at the session of the legislature this spring was a bill making it a criminal offense to break into a ranch. Heretofore there was no special legislation to cover this, this of furs being placed in the same category as that of trespassing.

SHEEP AS WELL AS FOXES ARE POPULAR NOW

People of United States Interested in the Fur Farming Industry—Have Invested.

P. D. Compton, secretary of the New England and Prince Edward Island Fox Co., who is visiting the island in the interest of his company, has returned to Bangor, Me., where he intends to open up an office. He reports that the stock of his company is selling well in Boston and other New England cities. Mr. Compton is also the proud owner of three young Karakul lambs. Last autumn he purchased a pure blood Karakul ram and ewe, placing them on the farm of Alex. McKenzie, Long Creek. One of the above lambs is a pure blood male, the coarse-wooled Karakul, and Mr. Compton estimates the value of his pelt at $15. The closeness of his curl and lustre show that he is of the best breeding strain of "Persian lamb" sheep. The other two are half bloods and of a very high quality. Mr. Compton is moreover fortunate in that the three lambs are males.

The Maritime Fox Exchange and Investment Company have opened a branch office in Halifax, N. S., in Roy Building. It will be under the direction of Mr. J. D. Campbell, who is well known in Charlottetown. Mr. Campbell, who, during the past year, sold a considerable amount of fox stock for various companies, is a business man with a wide experience, having travelled for a number of years.

A FEW FOXES 'WAY DOWN ON P. E. ISLAND

Boston financial paper views industry from a personal standpoint.

How would you like to be part owner in one of the most profitable fur businesses in the world? Stated this way, the offer looks far more attractive than to ask whether you would like to be part owner of a few foxes down on Prince Edward Island. The simple truth appears to be, however, that the two questions mean one and the same thing. With a few black and silver foxes for their entire and original capital, a body of men on that island have built up an industry whose increase last year, on the Government's own figures, was worth a full $3,700,000. For some years the fur merchants of London, England, had been receiving consignments of a few dozen pelts from Prince Edward Island, but in 1910 a single black fox pelt brought a price of between $2,500 and $2,900, the highest figure that has ever been paid, so far as is known, for the pelt of any fur bearing animal. According to excellent authority, there are single foxes of high fur value and large litter record that cannot be bought today for $50,000 and the selling value of the proved breeding foxes ranges from $20,000 to $30,000 per pair.

The services of one of the most experienced ranch builders in the Province have been secured, and with his skill, coupled with the advice of our Veterinary Specialist, we will be able to give our shareholders the most up-to-date ranch yet built. It will be absolutely safe, sanitary and comfortable.

RANCHING EXPENSES.

There will be absolutely no charge for the ranching of the foxes for the first year. All charges for keep, food and everything connected with the maintenance of the foxes—salaries of the keepers, watchmen, veterinary inspector—will be paid by the promoters up to September 1st, 1914. This one item alone means a saving to the shareholders of from fifteen to twenty-five per cent., as the charges for keep in the greater number of companies is from fifteen to twenty-five per cent.
