

IN PULPIT AND PEW

BAPTIST

Preaching at College Street Chapel, Northampton, Eng., on Sunday evening, the Rev. W. Y. Fullerton made a striking suggestion regarding the use of the extra hour which would be added to next Sunday, through the alteration of the clocks to normal time. Many people would probably avail themselves of the opportunity for extra sleep, pleasure or idleness, but surely Christians should use the time to better purpose. Why should they not rise as they have been accustomed to do during the summer, and devote the extra sixty minutes thus gained to breakfast and morning service to thanksgiving and intercession? That would be redeeming the time in the best sense. If multitudes of God's people throughout the country were thus to unite in prayer for our nation and its cause, and for the Church of Christ at home and abroad, the results would be without measure. It should yet be possible for ministers to arrange for morning gatherings at their churches for this purpose.

Frogmore Street Church, at Aberavenny, England, is happy in its prayer-meetings. The room in which they are held is often crowded. On Monday night every seat was taken. It is the practice of the church to hold, once a month, on a Monday evening, an intercession service for its own men. The pastor reads the long, type-written list, and each man, as a rule, answered for by a relative or a friend in the meeting. In this way the church knows month by month where every man is, whether he is in the trenches or in the home camps or in hospital or a prisoner of war. This guarantees an intimate interest being taken in all the men and assures their needs being supplied if they are in want of any articles of clothing, etc. And the service of intercession is found to deepen the religious life of the church.

The First Church, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, Dr. F. T. Galpin pastor, has issued a 100 page year book. It is an encyclopaedia of information concerning the multifarious activities of a great church. The church raised last year for current expenses $14,866 and for benevolence $7,082. The church has a total membership of 514, of which eighty-eight were received during the past year.

Governor-elect Miliken, of Maine, is a member of the board of our Foreign Mission Society and of the Finance Committee of the board. On the night of the election he hurried away from Maine that he might be present the next day in Boston at the meeting of the board. That is the kind of Baptist Governor that we like!

From the Maritime Baptist:—Dr. I. B. Oakes of Wolfville, has been appointed honorary pastor for Kings County, N. S. Dr. Oakes is best known through his work as Principal of Acadia Academy, which position he filled for twenty-one years. Of late years he has become well known to the Convention as Secretary of the Board of Governors of Acadia University. In his Kings County he has secured a faithful and competent official. Otto Fletcher, the younger son of Rev. M. E. Fletcher, who went overseas recently, as a member of the 115th Battalion, is now in France. He has been transferred to the No. 1 Field Ambulance Corps, of which his brother, Durlin, is a member. The brothers, and the parents as well, are greatly pleased with this arrangement. Again we extend sincere sympathy to Mr. W. P. Starratt of Moncton, an honored deacon of the First Church. A few months ago Mrs. Starratt died under peculiarly sad circumstances.

Belgians are Starving While Canadians Have Plenty

Our Heroic Allies Deserve More Help than We are Giving

An accident of geography, and the fortunes of war, have subjected Belgium to the cold-blooded, calculated cruelty and attempted starvation of the German conquerors—while we in Canada, secure from danger, are making money out of the war.

Legitimate though our profits are, we surely owe a substantial share of them to our Allies, who are destitute because they dared stand up for their rights and defy the enemy.

We have given much—but barely enough to help keep the Belgians alive. More of them every week are calling for help, as their own resources are exhausted, and every one of the millions should have something more than the three slices of bread and the pint of soup which is all the Relief Commission can supply out of present contributions.

If you have been helping, do more if you can till the war is over and Belgium is free. If you have not given yet, will you make up for lost time with a substantial contribution? Better still, will you give every month, enough to feed one or more Belgian families, at the rate of $2.50 each per month?

Whatever you can afford to give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or stance, being fatally burned through coming into contact with the blaze in a gas range. A few days ago the sad news was received that his youngest son, Will, had fallen on the field of battle.

Rev. J. B. Hogan has received and accepted a call to Palmouth, N. S. A few months ago he resigned the pastorate of the church at Lockport and enlisted as a member of the American Legion. But afterward he failed to pass the necessary physical tests, and was honorably discharged from the corps.

A recent casualty list contained the name of Cyril C. Colpitts of Forest Glen, N. B. His early death has brought sorrow to a wide circle of friends and relatives. He was a grandnephew of the late Sir Charles Tupper. Mrs. (Rev.) J. S. McFadden of Andover, N. B., is a sister.

The attention of our city churches is drawn to the Annual Provincial Boys' Work Conference to be held in St. John, Oct. 26-29. It begins Friday evening at 7.30 and continues in session till Sunday evening. This is for all men workers with boys and older boys of fifteen and over. These conferences in the past have been a splendid inspiration to men and boys alike and have been a real help to church and Sunday schools in doing effective work with boys. The programme is a comprehensive one which all ministers, Sunday school superintendents and men workers with boys, as well as boys of fifteen and over, will find intensely interesting and practical. Rev. P. K. Darfoot will represent the Baptists as one of the speakers. The Baptist homes are asked to share in the entertainment of delegates.

PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. John Hardwick was on Thursday evening inducted by the Presbytery of St. John to the pastoral charge of St. Matthew's church, St. John. Rev. J. A. MacKellan presided and inducted. Rev. T. A. Mitchell gave the charge to the minister and Rev. J. A. Morrison addressed the people. Mr. Hardwick enters upon his work under favorable auspices, and best wishes are expressed both for pastor and people in their new relationship.

The churches of St. John are showing commendable enthusiasm in the re-opening of their several activities for the fall and winter months. Among the features in the meetings of the present week or within the past few days we note a congregational "at home" in St. Andrew's church on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the home department of the Sunday school; a social reunion in Calvin church on Thursday evening; a re-opening of "soldiers' evening" in St. David's, also on Thursday; a missionary meeting in St. Matthew's on Friday evening, addressed by Rev. and Mrs. Morton with a view to organization of a women's missionary society. St. John Presbyterian church has had its first meeting of the Young People's Society and a good programme is being prepared for the winter. Other congregations are making their plans which will mature shortly.

Rev. W. A. Ross, general secretary of the Sunday School Association, will be present at a series of institutes to be held in the several parts of the city of St. John during the first week of November, reaching a climax in the county convention at the close of the month.

Rev. J. S. Sutherland, late of St. John's, N.B., will be inducted to the pastoral charge of St. Paul's church, Fredericton, on Tuesday evening. Rev. W. M. Fraser will preside and induct. Rev. F. S. Dowling will give the charge to the minister, and Rev. J. H.

A. Anderson will address the congregation.

Rev. Robert Johnston of Park street Presbyterian church, Halifax, N. S., has been appointed chaplain to the 33rd Regiment, the home regiment in that city. He succeeds Rev. Dr. J. W. Macmillan, formerly of St. Matthew's church, Halifax, now professor in Manitoba College, Winnipeg.

The congregation of New Dublin and Conquerall, N. S., recently made vacant by the translation of Rev. Malcolm Ferguson to Plaster Rock, N. B., has extended a call to Rev. J. F. MacDonald of Riverside, N. S., in the Presbytery of Lunenburg and Yarmouth.

Pts. Harold A. Smith of the 5th C. B. has been reported wounded and now in one of the base hospitals in France. He is one of the Pine Hill war honor roll, a native of Sydney and served as student missionary at Harrington Harbor, Labrador. Mrs. C. G. Cumming of San Fernando, Trinidad, is a sister.

"We have used 'Fruit-tives' in our house for over three years and have always found them a good medicine. Our little girl, Hattie, was troubled with Kidney Disease. The Doctor said she was threatened with Dropsy. Her limbs and body were all swollen and we began to think she could not live. Finally, we decided to try 'Fruit-tives.' She began to show improvement after we had given her a few tablets. In a short time, the swelling had all gone down and her flesh began to look more natural. Now she is the healthiest one in the family and has no signs of the old ailment. We can not say too much for 'Fruit-tives' and would never be without them."

The general plan has been arranged by the national advisory committee on boys' work, composed of representatives of the Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist, Presbyterian and other churches, together with representatives from the Sunday School Association and the Y. M. C. A. The local arrangements in each province are made by the provincial advisory committees on boys' work which are constituted in the same manner as the national committee. The objective is to lend inspiration and leadership to work among boys throughout Canada. It is expected that a team of about ten leaders representative of the various co-operative units will be present at the St. John conference. The names of Rev. C. Robertson and Rev. C. A. Myers represent the Presbyterians, while the further list includes such names as Rev. S. T. Bartlett, F. H. Langford, E. W. Halpern, R. A. Hiltz, Taylor Statten and others. A promotion campaign has been conducted in various parts of the province, and already the list of boys and adult leaders coming to the conference from outside of St. John number over 125.

Mrs. John Morton, who has just written a memoir of her late husband, John Morton of Trinidad, has been spending a few days in St. John, previous to her intended departure for Trinidad next week, accompanied by her son, Rev. Harvey H. Morton, with Mrs. Morton and family. She addressed a large gathering of the members of the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Societies of the city on Wednesday afternoon in St. Andrew's church. Mrs. J. H. Thomson presided, and an informal reception was held at the close. Mrs. Morton first went to Trinidad with her husband on his appointment as missionary there in 1867 and has seen the work and its development there since its very inception.

A new book which will be read with interest bears the striking title of "The World, the Church and the Devil." The author is Rev. John Archibald Morrison, D. D., minister of First Presbyterian church, West St. John. Though published in war time, it is not a war book. It was prepared ere yet the war cloud broke, and bears no marks of conflict, save the conflict, suggested by the title, which is alike. The story is a character study, and the author shows insight, description and power. James Muir, is introduced at the beginning and we follow him to the end. In the fulfilling of his career, he moves among a group of varied characters with a reality and interest all their own. Wealth, fashion, worldliness, rationalism, science, prodigality, are all personified in the community with which the story deals. There, too, the finer forces of life act and react in perfect naturalness. Many of the present day problems of religion and the church emerge in the way to command the attention and the thought of the practical everyday man. The lover of the "Kirk" will find himself quite at home in the atmosphere and framework of the story. The book is well written and the reader will respond to the perusal. This Dr. Morrison's first venture in the world of books, and it revealed a power which promises well for the future.

Simultaneously with the appearance of the above comes a little book of short poems by Mrs. John Archibald Morrison, entitled "My Soldier Boy and Other Poems." Some of these have already received honorable mention with high commendation in the prize competition in the "Bookman," London. Several of them, like "My Soldier Boy, Are Ye Worthly?," "God Save Our Empire, Somewhere in France and others have been inspired by the great war. Some are nature

METHODIST

At the recent annual meeting of the Board of Managers of the W. M. S. Miss M. Wilkes, much to the regret of the board, declined re-election as treasurer. Mrs. N. A. Powell was the unanimous choice of the members for the important office. Mrs. Powell's address is 167 College St., Toronto, Ont.

Rev. H. Tompkinson, who has had to resign his position in the Overseas Expeditionary Force, because of his failure to pass the medical examination, has taken charge of the Victoria church, Sydney. Rev. F. A. Buckley, A.B., pastor, becomes travelling secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association.

We are glad to learn that Rev. I. B. Champion, who was successfully operated on in the General Public Hospital, has returned home to Centreville, and is making good progress to health.

Rev. Wm. Harrison, D.D., writes interestingly in the Nashville Christian Advocate of Canadian Methodism. In view of the proposed union of the

E. church, north and south, he writes very appreciatively of the union of Canadian Methodism in 1882. All his articles are worth reading. Frederickson will lose his pastor, Rev. P. Marshall at the close of this conference year. The work is too strenuous, so he seeks a field less exacting on his energy and time. The Wesley Memorial Church, Moncton, is being improved and receiving a new coat of paint. The diligent pastor, Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick is doing excellent work. Cape Wolfe and O'Leary Circuit have determined to become independent of all church funds. Rev. N. M. Brodie is giving of his best on this compact field.

This afternoon from 3.30 to six o'clock an apple tea will be conducted in Trinity church schoolroom with the object of securing funds to buy apples for the wounded Canadian soldiers in Oxford hospitals. Tea will be served for 15c, and there will also be a candy and home-cooking table, and a grass. Subscriptions to the fund will be received and forwarded by Rev. L. R. Sherman.

What groceries did Brown advertise?

JOHN BROWN is noted for being the liveliest merchant in town because of the way in which he advertises and creates interest in his well known grocery store. Recently Mr. Brown presented a clever puzzle to his customers. It is one that will give much amusement and entertainment to every puzzle lover. Look at this picture of Mr. Brown's store, and you will see his idea. He carefully covered the labels of the various articles in his stock. Then he drew a series of puzzle pictures to be used as labels to represent the names of the various goods. The artist caught the spirit of the idea, and at once drew picture No. 2 to represent the various goods. Then he drew picture No. 3 to represent the various goods.
