

HUMBERT FREED OF TREASON

French Editor Falsely Accused of Communicating With the Enemy.

Paris, Jan. 21.—(Havas).—Investigations have established the falsity of accusations made against Charles Humbert, who was charged with communicating to Germany the contents of two documents relative to the National Defense.

Charles Humbert, a member of the French senate and former editor of the Paris newspaper, Le Journal, became involved during the trials of Bolo Pasha, who was executed for treason, and the directors of the Germanophile newspaper, the Bonnet Rouge. Revelations during the inquiry into the Bolo Pasha case led to the arrest of Humbert, in whose newspaper Bolo had bought an interest with money that came from the German foreign office through banking houses in New York.

While the case was pending it was said that fresh evidence of communicating with the enemy had been discovered. This was early last August and the court martial of M. Humbert, fixed for Aug. 26, was postponed. Late in September a formal demand was made before the French senate for the consent of that body to prosecute him on a charge of treason, the penalty for which under the French code is death. No authoritative outline of the evidence said to have been found in the case was ever given out.

FRENCH CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES

Cooperate, in Response to an Appeal from Clemenceau, in Assisting Conference.

Paris, Jan. 21.—Premier Clemenceau, having appealed to the Chamber of Deputies to cooperate in the task of making peace, Maurice d'Amour, supported by 100 deputies, has introduced a motion in the chamber for the appointment of a committee on the subject to give its opinions on various matters, and to prepare reports for submission to the chamber.

By this method, M. d'Amour points out, the parliament would be kept in close touch with the negotiations, and would afford the negotiators needed moral support. The chamber thus also would be able to study the preliminaries of the peace before they were committed for ratification.

AMERICAN SAILORS HOME BY FEB. 15

London, Jan. 21.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, under-secretary of the navy, after a conference with Admiral Sims on plans for demobilization of the American navy in American waters, said tonight that he was confident that with the exception of about 3,000 men, the American navy would be out of Europe not later than February 15.

When the armistice was signed there were 70,000 American sailors in European waters. Today there are approximately 23,000. Several thousands are at aviation stations in France and Ireland, but are being sent home as rapidly as possible.

Is Your Blood Starving
For Want of Iron?

Iron is Red-Blood Food—Nuxated Iron
Helps Put Roses Into the Cheeks of Women and Strength and Energy into the Veins of Men.

If you were to go without eating until you became weak, thin and emaciated, you could not do a more serious harm to yourself than when you let your blood literally starve for want of iron—iron that gives it strength and power to change food into living tissue, muscle and brain. Without plenty of iron in the blood, no matter how much or what you eat, your food simply passes through you without doing you any good—you don't get the strength out of it and instead of being filled with youthful strength and energy you are weak, nervous and all run-down. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can walk or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks, then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form. But don't take the old kinds of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like Nuxated Iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. You can prove, and Nuxated Iron from your druggist on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or your money will be refunded.

Specks Floating
Before His Eyes

When specks start to float before the eyes, when everything turns black for a few seconds and you feel as if you were going to faint, you may rest assured that your liver is not working properly.

The essential thing to do in all cases where the liver is slow, lazy or torpid, is to stir it up by the use of a medicine that will clear away all the waste and poisonous matter from the system, and prevent as well as cure all the troubles arising from this accumulated mass which has collected in the system.

Keep the bowels open by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no liver trouble of any kind. They will clear away all the waste and effete matter which has collected and make the liver active and working properly.

Mr. John R. Morrison, Grand River Falls, N. S., writes: "Several months ago I was troubled with a sour stomach, and had specks floating before my eyes. I took five vials of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills which cured, and cleaned my blood before any length of time. I told my friends about it and they got some, and they, too, find themselves different since they took them. I recommend your pills very highly."

The happy couple left at noon for St. John, on a tour through the province, followed by the good wishes of a large circle of friends, with whom they are deservedly popular.

U. S. COMPTROLLER MAKES REPORT

Shows National Banks of America to Have Weathered Stress and Storm Most Successfully.

Washington, Jan. 21.—In annual report issued by the comptroller of the currency for the fiscal year ending October 31, he reviews the activities of national banks during the period of the war.

The comptroller says the demands upon the capital and banking resources of the country have been unparalleled, and that "the financial strain upon us would have wrecked and crumpled any financial system not founded on sound economic laws and governed by conservation and established principles of finance, and no system, however meritorious, could have survived such strain had not its component parts been operated and directed by men of character and experience, willing and able to rise to the supreme demands of the hour."

"Through these trials and tests," said he, "the national banks of the country and our federal reserve system have passed triumphantly. Their resources have risen steadily during this period of stress and strain to the highest figures ever attained, the national bank resources on November, 1918, being $13,821,404,000.

During the past eighteen months this country has raised through bond issues an amount more than six times as great as was raised during the four years of the civil war, and largely at rates of interest not one half as high as those paid during that period.

The comptroller shows that of the $17,000,000,000 of liberty bonds placed, more than eight and a half billion dollars, or 50.6 per cent, were marketed through the instrumentality of the national banks.

Paris, Jan. 21.—Are the German trans-Atlantic cables to be given back to Germany? The Matin asks this question in today's issue. It points out that the two cables were cut, four hours after Great Britain's declaration of war by a British cruiser close to Payal, in the Azores. The cables became prizes of war, Great Britain taking one and France the other. Great Britain used her's in connection with her own cable lines to Canada, while France made no use of the line which she was allotted.

Paris, Jan. 21.—The attitude of the various powers toward Russia is summed up today by L'Information, which states that the situation stands as follows:

"France and Italy heretofore have been for intervention on condition that the Allies were unanimous for it. Great Britain, through Premier Lloyd George, has expressed a desire to see intervention limited to the coasts of the Caspian Sea, leaving to Russia the adjustment of her own affairs in the interior. President Wilson seems to agree with the latter conception, and to be still hoping to see the Bolsheviks, in the process of evolution, establish a regime less resembling an anarchical one. Japan has not yet agreed to consider the possibility of prolonging the action she has undertaken in Siberia.

War to Peace

Pensions

CANADA'S yearly pension bill is estimated by the Minister of Finance at $30,000,000. This is a minimum figure. How is this vast fund to be administered? To whom will pensions be paid? Everyone is asking these questions. Here is the official answer.

The Organization

A huge organization has been built up to handle pensions promptly, smoothly, fairly.

At its head is the Board of Pensions Commissioners. This Board is to be developed as a civil rather than as a military body. It consists of three men, each appointed for ten years, each devoting his whole time to his duties as a Commissioner. The Head Office of the Pensions Board is at Ottawa; and there are seventeen branch offices in the principal centres throughout Canada. An important branch is in operation in London, England.

These local branches receive applications from soldiers' dependents for pensions; send "Visitors" to call on pensioners in their homes; hold medical re-examinations; handle complaints.

The Board keeps a representative travelling from coast to coast interviewing pensioners and addressing organizations interested in their welfare. He has already conferred with more than 30,000 pensioners.

At present 60,000 pensions are being administered by the Board.

A Pension—What it is

A pension is not a gift, gratuity or reward for service done. It is compensation—money paid as a right by Canadians, through their Government, to offset in a measure the handicaps suffered in war by their fellow-citizens—a debt that the country owes to our returned men, and to the dependents of those who have fallen.

It is in this spirit that Orders-in-Council governing pensions are framed. It is in this spirit that the Board of Pensions Commissioners administers these Orders-in-Council.

To Whom Payable

Pensions are not awarded for service. Broadly speaking, any soldier or sailor who was disabled during his service is entitled to a pension—provided medical treatment fails to restore his full normal capacity.

The amount of the pension is based on the extent of the physical handicap he has suffered.

The physical condition of the disabled man is described on his discharge from the service by a Medical Board. Pension is awarded according to the amount of disablement from which he is then found to be suffering.

The percentage of handicap has been carefully and thoroughly worked out for every disability. It is both accurate and fair.

The relationship between the Medical Board and the pension applicant is that of doctor and patient. Every opportunity is given to have the man's condition judged from his point of view.

Amount of Pension

The pension is awarded to a soldier or sailor so that he can live in decent comfort, despite his handicap.

The money he may be able to earn, or the money he earned before the war, does not affect the amount of his pension. The extent of his handicap alone in the general labor market is considered.

Every man who has increased his income by Vocational Training will not have his pension decreased or discontinued.

The amount of the pension varies also according to the soldier's rank; but his trade or profession is not considered. The minimum pension for a totally disabled unmarried soldier or sailor of the lowest rank is $600 a year.

Pensions to Dependents

Widows of soldiers or sailors who have died during or as a result of service, are entitled to pension so long as they do not remarry.

Children of soldiers or sailors are entitled to pensions up to the age of sixteen, if boys, or seventeen, if girls.

Pension is awarded to the parents of a soldier or sailor according, (a) to the degree of their dependency on the deceased soldier and, (b) according to their needs.

A complete schedule of the pensions granted to disabled soldiers and sailors, and to their dependents, will be sent to anyone interested. Apply to Board of Pensions Commissioners, Ottawa.
