

The Society deplores the deaths of four members, Mr. John Brooke, Mr. Henry John Noad, (twice Vice-President,) Mr. Robert Stride and Mr. Joseph White.

Mr. White was an active member of the charitable committee for many years, and the judgment, diligence and kindness he ever manifested will be long gratefully remembered by the Society; he also ably filled the office of President during two terms.

The last anniversary was celebrated by evening service in the Cathedral, when a sermon was preached by the Rev. C. F. Thorndike, prayers read by Rev. G. V. Housman, M.A., and Rev. M. M. Fothergill, Chaplains to the Society; with an appropriate musical service conducted by Mr. F. W. Mills, F. C. O., on which occasion a collection in aid of the ~~friends~~ funds of the Society was made.

The whole respectfully submitted.

W. CLINT,
Secretary.

HENRY W. WELCH,
President.

Quebec, 12 January, 1871.
