THE WEEK IN MINING

Ainsworth High Grade Ore is Attracting Great Attention.

Big Profils Made by Granby Company Last Fiscal Year .-- Dep'h at Rossland --- Details of Ore Output

The rich strikes made at Ainsworth continue to attract the attention of all mining men. Manager A. D. Wheeler, Krao, brought into this city some exceedingly handsome specimens of free silver during the past week and his to the large deposits, already located, of this rich stuff fully out the reports that have come from this, the oldest mining camp in the Kootenays, of late. Other mine owners from the camp have obtained during the week exceedingly satisfactory assay re-ports from shipments made by them and he Krao is by no means the only property that is surprising its owners at the present time.

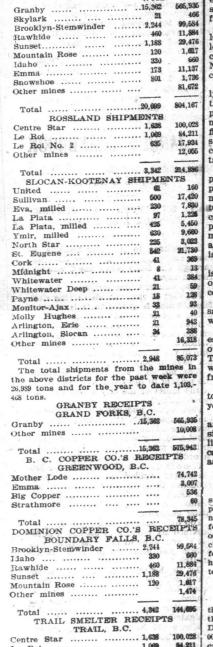

S. S. Fowler, of the Blue Bell, d it is gratifying to note that so tive a mine manager as Mr. Fowler, is more than satisfied with the way in which the Blue Bell is now showing up. The unwatering of the Snowshoe mine at Phoenix has been completed and large shipments may now be looked for weekly from this property. Over 800 tons were received at the Trail smelter last week from the Snowshoe and abo 250 tons daily may be expected shortly. The fact that the Granby company netted nearly $2,000,000 from their property during the last fiscal year shows what can be accomplished by mining on a large scale in the Boundary. The company are steadily increasing their plant and still larger profits may be looked for at the close of the current fiscal year. The Le Rol is now the deepest mine in the province. The winze is down to the 1750 foot level and sinking is to be continued until the 2000 foot level is reached. Speaking at Water eached. Speaking at Victoria during last week, managing director McMillan, while confirming the announced new deal with the Consolidated company deal with the Consonated company whereby the Northport smelter will re-open next month, declared that the Le Roi and Rossland mines generally, never showed up so well in their history as at the present time.

ore shipments are up to the general average for the past week. The White Bear at Rossland shipped 220 tons to Trail that will be credited in the next statement.

"JOE" GANS WON ON A FOUL; FIGHT WENT 42 LONG ROUNDS

Nelson Deliberately Hit the Negro Below the Belt, and the Latter Sank Helplessly to the Floor-Gans Immediately Challenges the Dane for Another Fight Within Two Weeks

lost today's fight by fouling Joe Gans in the 42nd round of the best and longest fight seen in many years. Both men were tired when the fights ended but Gans was apparently the stronger. He was away ahead on points and had smashed and cut Nelson all through the fight without severely hurting himself. Shortly after the 42nd round began the men were in their usual clinch. Nelson had his head on Gans shoulder and his arm down. Several times he touched Gans below the belt apparently feeling for a yital spot. At last he drew back his right arm and hit Gans a vicious blow square in the groin. The colored boy sank to his knees and rolled over on his back. Referee Siler, without hesitation, order-ed Nelson to his corner and awarded the fight to Gans on a foul. Siler's decision received almost unnaimous approval. The foul was so obvious that not even men who had bet on Nelson could help but admit that it had been committed All through the long contest Nelson had employed rough tactics. All Nelson would say was that Gans was tired and quit. Gans in many ways put up a re-markable fight. His endurance surprised every one. His work was all the more wonderful when it is known that in the 33rd round he broke his right hand. Never after that did he strike a blow side of Nelson's face. A bone in the hand snaped and Gans stepped back with "flake or stain" in your rock is mala-chite or green carbonate of copper, and as though he hurt a foot and no one realized that he had injured the righ hand.

Gans said after the fight that Nelson intentionally fouled. He said he knew he could finish Nelson as he was com-paratively very strong and Nelson was paratively very strong and Nelson was growing weaker all the time. "Larry' Sullivan announced for Gans that he would meet Nelson in two weeks in anwhite tock is quartz; the brown rock is quartz rusted or iron stained; the bluish rock is also quartz. O. H. M., Salmo, B. C.—The sample you submit for examination is function of the foul. Gans was the favorite. His behaviour won the admiration of the Goldfields people and they showed it 200 women were present. Announcer Sullivan declared that one of the sons of the president was in the audience. Goldfields, Sept. 3.—Battling Nelson lost today's fight by fouling Joe Gans in the 42nd round of the best and longest fight seen in many years. Both men were tired when the fights ended but Gans was apparently the stronger. He was away ahead on points and had smashed Gans brought blood again from Nelson's nose with stinging left punches. In a mixup Gans upper cut with right to jaw. Not for a moment did Nelson break ground. He swung heavily to Gans the ropes with right to head. Nelson ground. He was rebuked by a face with left, but was rebuked by a stiff right to face. The gong clanged, and Nelson went to his seat spitting blood. Nelson was badly punished in kind. The belligerents had to be separated by their handlers.

the negro smashed him in the face three times with right and easily avoided Net-son's attempts to land. Nelson bored in, forcing Gans to the ropes. The crowd objected to Nelson's boring tactics, es-pecially with his head against Gans chest. After breaking from a clinch chest. After breaking from a clinch, Gans planted right to jaw and followed it with several terrific right drives to the face, sending blood from Nelson's mouth in a stream. Gans sent Nelson's head back hammering his man almost at will. could not locate his antagonist. Nel-son was in bad shape when he took his corner. His face was cut into ribbons. Gans has big lead and looks a sure winner. Round 7.—As usual Nelson forced Gaus about the ring, Gans contenting himself to watch for an opening. Gans poked away at Nelson's face with left and right blows. Nelson missed two right swings and Gans met Nelson with a fusilade of right and left punches to the face that staggered Nelson. Gans received a slight punch on the body as they worked into a corner. Gans swung right twice to face and Nelson swung wildly. Nelson face and Nelson swing while. Nelson neatly ducks two right swings and Gans kept up merciless hammering on the face. Bey, ing and Nelson went to his corner with blood streaming from his mouth and nose. He did not break ground throughout the punishment.

Round. 8 .- Gans had no trouble in avoiding Nelson's onslaught and met Nel avoiding Nelson's onsiaught and met Nel son with right swings over kidneys. He then swung right and left to Nelson's face and found no trouble in getting away from Nelson's swings. Gans played with the Dane, sending raking rights to jaw, and then worked a left to face. Nelson swung desperately for Gans' face but seldom found the black man's anatomy. They closed in mixing it roughly. Gans swung his right and left with fear-
