SPECIALIST SAID HE MUST OPERATE

She Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Instead.
And Is Now in Perfect Health.

MME. F. GAREAU

153 Papineau Ave., Montreal.
"For three years, I suffered great pain in the lower part of my body, with swelling or bloating. I saw a specialist, who carefully examined me and gave me several tonics to take, which did not help me. Then he told me I must undergo an operation. This, I refused to permit. I heard about 'Fruit-a-tives' and the wonderful results it was giving because this medicine is made from fruit juices, so decided to try it. The first box gave great relief; and I continued the treatment, taking six boxes more. Now, my health is excellent—I am free of pain and swelling—and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' my warmest thanks."
MME. F. GAREAU.
50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Lecture in Aid of the Red Cross.

THE REV. T. J. CHARLTON, L. Th., F. R. S. (1905-1915), will deliver a LECTURE on "The Lower Animals: Their Place in Civilization," under the auspices of St. John's Anglican congregation in the schoolroom on Friday evening, Feb. 15th, at 8 o'clock. A good program of songs, readings, recitations, etc., is being arranged. Chairman, Reeve A. J. Wright. Admission 10 cents. All welcome. Proceeds in full to Red Cross Society.

W. Eader, Melbourne and W. Hill, Appin, were among a party of returned soldiers who reached London on Monday.

Complying with the general order of the fuel controller, Glencoe business places and workshops were closed on Saturday and Monday as a measure for conserving fuel, although no public proclamation was made officially. The order was accepted by those whom it affected with a good grace, but it was felt that Monday and Tuesday might have been named instead of Saturday and Sunday, thus conflicting with the Saturday marketing.

Various Parrots.
There are 350 species of parrots, chiefly confined to the warm parts of America, Asia, Africa and Australia. There is none in Europe and none in Asia west of the Indies, and, while numerous in the Malay archipelago, they are wanting in China, Cochinchina and the Philippine Islands. The only species native to the United States is the Carolina parrot.

The gray parrot of western Africa is credited with having a greater power of imitating the human voice than any bird of the species. It has long been a favorite and is the subject of many stories of greater or less credibility.

Bazaars of Gaza.
The modern Gaza is in almost every particular an Egyptian rather than a Syrian town. It is full of rich vegetation, and its many silencing minarets show up bravely against the dull green of immemorial olive trees. Gaza is still, as of old and always, a place of trade, of caravans and caravans, and its bazaars are forever loud with traffic and filled with merchandise.

Moving Pictures.
I helped with moving pictures twenty years ago. "Why, moving pictures weren't in existence then."
"Yes, but moving pictures was at that time. I was a drayman."

STORY OF A PAINTING.

The Change the Artist Made in "The Spirit of Seventy-six."
"The Spirit of Seventy-six"—the famous drum and fife trio—came from the brush and genius of Archibald M. Willard.

The artist emerged from overalls and a Wellington (O.) wagon shop. A picture called "Puck No. 1," displayed in a Cleveland art dealer's window, attracted the attention of the discriminating and paved the way to a kind of partnership with James H. Ryder, through whose suggestion the "Seventy-six" picture was begun.

In its early stages this painting was called "Yankee Doodle," and it was first planned along serio-comic lines. "But one day," declares Mr. Willard, "I caught a glint in the eye of the old man who posed for the center figure, who was posing, and in a flash it revealed itself to me what all this stood for, and I could go no further. The real picture pushed everything else aside and went ahead and painted itself."

The old man whose flashing eyes inspired this change of conception was the artist's father, Rev. Daniel Willard, a man of revolutionary stock.

Thus curiously it was only by the merest switch of an inherited sentiment that this symbol was prevented from becoming a fanciful burlesque to live only for the brief day of its creation.

THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

What a Man Should Have and Be at the Age of Thirty-five.

Jack Lait says in the American Magazine:

"At thirty-five a citizen should have a wife and children; he should have a permanent trade, business or profession; he should own a home; he should have money in bank and a commensurate endowment policy half paid off; he should be through with experimenting and on his way, realizing the dreams he dreamt when he had time to dream, walking over the paths he laid in the road building years, hiking on his second wind beyond the point to which he laboriously strained his way theretofore."

"Youth is a tonic and its manifestations are grit and gameness, hope and yearning, ambition and hard tackling, energy and pep and good as new recoveries and gay times and extravaganzas. But youth is a bargain commodity—priceless to own, cheap to buy."

"He's only a boy," says the world, and he goes at fifty cents on the dollar.

"Therefore youth is the time to invest, and sometimes later comes the time to collect. Somewhere is the turning peak. I think it is marked '35.'"

Magnificent Kaieteur.
One of the greatest natural wonders in the world is the falls of Kaieteur, in British Guiana. The valley through which the river flows, below the falls, is quite impassable, and probably no one has ever reached the bottom of the fall. The fall is 741 feet high, more than four times the height of Bunker Hill monument, 200 feet higher than the Washington monument and 300 feet higher than St. Peter's dome. A smooth but rapid river, nearly 400 feet wide, flows quietly to the brink and turns quietly downward. In its fall it breaks into soft white mist and reaches the bottom in a chaos of seething clouds. There is a gentle roar. Only now and then, from the hidden caverns at the bottom, a deep, thunderous growl arises that gives some hint of the forces contending there.

A Pacifist.
At the age of three years Reginald was already a celebrated coward. Particularly he was afraid of all four footed animals. There was talk in the family of adopting a dog.

"Would you like to have a dog, my son?" said the proud parent.

"No," said Reginald.

Somewhat later Reginald returned to his father's side. Evidently he had been turning over in his mind the proposition recently submitted.

"I'd like to have a dog," said he, "if I could have one with his mouth shut."

A Poisonous Frog.
People in general look upon all species of the frog as being perfectly harmless. Should you be traveling in New Granada (United States of Colombia), however, you would do well to let a certain little tree croaker severely alone.

"How about when a woman changes her mind?" asked the simple mug—Philadelphia Record.

Last Kind the Worst.
Teacher—How many kinds of poetry are there? Pupil—Three. Teacher—What are they? Pupil—Lyric, dramatic and epidemic.

The Nose Kiss.
The nose kiss exists in races so far apart as the Eskimos of the Arctic and the Maoris of New Zealand.

To Our School Cat.

Farewell, our cat, farewell!
We may not see you any more,
And yet you must remember,
We'll be good friends as of yore.

No more we'll hear you meowing,
When you're up in our class,
No more you'll walk in under our desks
To make the pupils laugh.

But yet, our cat, remember
That we're all your friends so true,
And, though we oft' may miss you,
Your new home will be best for you.

Written by a pupil of S. S. No. 1, Mossa, Helen Cameron, aged 12 years, when it became known that the cat which had been at the school since the fall term was about to be taken home by another pupil.
