WE NEVER GUESS

People everywhere eventually insist on receiving the ideal service they get here without insisting. The public at large is not one-haf as particular as we are in this ma ter of pure drugs, or in regard to the accurate filling of their prescriptions. In the busing, selling or handling of drugs we never guers. We make sure that everything is right in every particular.

The police have a little joke on Henry Darr. Mr. Darr is known as one of the most careful men on the force. Monday night, when making his rounds, he discovered the door of W. N. Morley's store open. Mr. Darr walked in, laid down his gloves, then looked around to see that all was well. The lock on the door is a spring lock and the officer went out leaving his gloves behind. All night long he was minus his mitts. Yesterday morning one of the policemen secured the lost gloves for his confere.

SAD DEATH

Word was received in the Maple City yesterday morning of the death of Mrs. James Eberle, of Palmyra, Orford Township, in her the circumstances under which the Orford Township, in her 55th year. The circumstances under which the deceased lady passed away are particularly sad. She had been very ill for some months, but had improved a little and it was thought by her family that a trip to California and a sojourn in the Land of Sunshine and Flowers would restore her to her usual good health. Accompanied by her husband she left for Los Angeles two weeks ago, arriving on the 17th inst. The journey, however, proved too much for her, and after lingering for a few days passed peacefully to the Great Beyond last Saturday. The deceased lady was the second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Muckle, of Harwich, and only sister of the late Mrs. James Birch, of this city. She was a highly esteemed Christian lady, a loving wife and devoted mother. She leaves to mourn her demise a husband, three sons and three daughters, all residing at home. Five brothers also survive her. They are —John Muckle, barrister, Kansas City, Mo., and Joseph, William, James and David, of Harwich.
