

Silk, novelty goods, mohair, serge and a host of new Autumn textures may be appropriately made up in this style and decorated simply or elaborately.

We have pattern No. 8607 in thirteen sizes for ladies from twenty-eight to forty-six inches, bust measure. In the combination depicted for a lady of medium size, the costume requires seven yards and a fourth of dress goods forty inches wide, with two yards of silk twenty inches wide. Of one material, it will need thirteen yards and seven-eighths twenty-two inches wide, or ten yards thirty inches wide, or eight yards and five-eighths thirty-six inches wide, or seven yards and a half forty-four inches wide, or seven yards fifty inches wide. Price of pattern, 1s. 3d. or 40 cents.

FIGURE No. 189 T.—This illustrates a Ladies' basque-waist. The pattern, which is No. 8569 and costs 1s. 3d. or 30 cents, is in thirteen sizes for ladies from twenty-eight to forty-six inches, bust measure, and is shown in three views on page 303 of this number of THE DELINEATOR.

The charming style of the waist is specially noticeable in the present combination of pale-heliotrope velvet with lemon-colored chiffon over silk of a deeper shade. The back and front have fulness drawn to the center by gathers, the front drooping softly over a wide band of velvet elaborately embroidered with beads. The waist closing at the left side permits of an unusually graceful draping of a deep Bertha which droops from the round neck. The ends of the Bertha meet and fall in jabot frills at the back, and a Rhinestone buckle covers a draping at the center of the front, while drapings on the shoulders are concealed by floral sprays. Flowers are also secured over drapings in the stylish, elbow puffed sleeves, which are finished with ripple ruffles that flare downward over lace frills. The waist may be made high-necked and with a round yoke and the sleeves, may, if preferred, extend to the wrists.

Exquisite evening waists will be fashioned after this pattern of silk mull and embroidered tissues, while for day wear silk or soft woollens, always with a soft silken texture for the Bertha, will be selected.
