

FORTUITOUS EVENT, what is,	17, § 24
“ as regards leases of farms.	1650
“ as regards obligations.	1072, 1200, 1412
“ in cases of reception of a thing not due.	1050
“ does not give rise to damages.	1072, 1200
FOUND (Things,) :—See THINGS FOUND.
FRAUD, is a cause of nullity in contracts.	991, 993
“ when may be invoked by third parties.	1033 to 1037
“ cannot be invoked against bond fide purchaser under an onerous title.	1038
“ time within which third parties may invoke it.	1039, 1040
“ as regards third parties :—See THIRD PARTIES.
FREE AND CLEAR, in contracts of marriage.	1397, 1399
“ stipulation to get back property, brought into the community.	1400
FREIGHT } :—See AFFREIGHTMENT.
FREIGHTER }
FRUITS, belong to owner of the thing.	409
“ are subject to expenses of ploughing, tilling and sowing.	410
“ accrue to possessor in good faith.	411
“ belong to usufructuary.	447
“ :—See PRESCRIPTION.
“ natural, what they are.	448
“ industrial “	“
“ civil, “	449
“ civil, accrue day by day.	451
FUNERAL EXPENSES, their privilege.	1994, 2009
“ must be registered.	2107
“ FURNITURE,” what moveables comprised under the word,	396
GAMING CONTRACTS, when binding.	1927, 1928
GAOL, burial of persons dying in,	69
GENDER, masculine, includes feminine.	17 § 9
GENERAL PARTNERS, in limited partnerships.	1872
“ their responsibility.	1873
“ have sole management of the partnership.	1874, 1881
“ must have partnership registered.	1875
“ change in, dissolves the partnership.	1879
“ bound to render account.	1885
GENERATIONS, or degrees of relationship.	615 to 618
GIVING IN PAYMENT, equivalent to sale.	1592
GIFT, of a house with all that it contains, does not comprise ready money, titles, nor debts due.	398
GIFTS, causâ mortis , in contracts of marriage, partake of gifts and of wills.	757
“ “ when void.	758
“ inter vivos , definition of,	755
“ to be valid must be inter vivos or by will,	754