DAL GIRLS LIFT N. S. CROWN

Dal Beaten By Sydney "Y"

Sydney Y.M.C.A. defeated Dal Tigers 63-55 Saturday night at the Dal Gym. Sydney seemed to have strength in every position and while Dal played well they just couldn't cope with the Cape Breton boys who were "connoisseurs" of the fast break game.

Rudy Pace of St. F. X. fame led the visitors with 23 points followed by Jim Monahan, who had an even 20 to his credit. Whitey Forde also played an outstanding game for the visitors as he ran himself ragged on brilliant defensive plays. Although Sydney copped team honors the individual star of the evening was Dal's very large Mike MacDonald, who was high point getter of the game with 25 points. Mike was really finding the target and the much guarded big fellow finally produced in fine style. From a defensive standpoint Andy MacKay rose to great heights and at times he alone was responsible for holding the score down.

Biggest factor in the Dal loss was the erratic shooting of the Dal squad in general with the obvious exception of Big Mike.

However, the game was as good as you will see in the seaside province and at times both teams played as if it was more than an played as if it was more than an exhibition game. If you want to read the last chapter to find the murderer the place to look is at the oppositions zone for it is there that the fixture was decided. Dal just couldn't find themselves in the other end of the court.

The other end of the court.

In all fairness to the Dal team it must be noted that since the game was an exhibition affair every player on the Dal squad saw action and as the summary indicates all Dal players seemed.

Despite the stellar goal tending of former senior star Barry Sullivan, who kicked aside 11 shots in the first period alone, Dal's Hockey Tigers bowed to St. Mary's University by a 6-2 count in a sudden death playoff for the City Inter Collegiate championship last Saturday afternoon at the Halifax Forum. Last year the title was won by N. S. Tech.

Both teams played the game minus some of their greater lights. Missing from the local ranks were Ron Tremblay, Dave Jardine, and Boom Boom Doig, the latter at present recuperating in hospital from an injury sustained in practice. The Saints were without the services of playing-coach Pud Reardon.

The game itself was fast, but not too rugged, referee Reg Clancy handing out only seven scattered penalties, four to Dal and three to the Saints and three to the Saints.

Enders went in a commanding 4-1 lead as they picked up the only three goals of the period, two un-assisted efforts by Ray Craig. Sandwiched between Craig's taliies at a time when Wills Parsons was setting out a kneeing charge Bob Chaisson tucked in a Don Cable rebound for what proved to

George Reardon and Art Flynn scored insurance markers for the Saints in the third while Wills Parsons finished up the Dal pair as he banged a Duck Scarfe rebound into the net from just out-side the Saints' crease at the 16:28 mark.
