

PLACE	DATE	TIME	SUMMARY OF EVENTS Page 4.	REFERENCE TO APPENDICES
Camp Borden, Ontario	16-1-43 (Cont'd)		Harvard 2756 piloted by LAC Jones, K.L., groundlooped on main aerodrome at 1640 hours. Pilot uninjured. Aircraft on landing levelled off, too high. Wing dropped and struck ground. Categorized C $\frac{1}{2}$.
	17-1-43		At 0900 hours heavy fog. Flying washed out. At 1300 hours C. 100, V. 1 mile, flying washed out. Total flying time 2.25 hours.
	18-1-43		At 0830 hours, snow, W 1045/8. Flying washed out. At 1400 hours C. 1500, V. 5 miles, dual. Flying washed in at 1415 hours. Washed out at 1630 hours. Dual only 2.15 hours. Total flying time 118.40 hours.
			Harvard 3303, piloted by F/O J.R. Wright, student pilot LAC Bick, R.V., turned over on main aerodrome, Camp Borden, at 1510 hours. Pilot and student uninjured. Aircraft on landing ran through soft snow, hit a well compacted spot slightly higher, and turned over. Bad surface on runway. Categorized C4.
			Harvard 2650, piloted by F/O R. Henderson, student pilot Sgt. Parker, P.R., airscrew caught in snow at main aerodrome, Camp Borden, 1445 hours. Pilot and student uninjured. In landing aircraft hit soft spot and airscrew caught snow slightly. Categorized C $\frac{1}{2}$.
	19-1-43		Harvard 3201, P/O W. Sawers pilot, LAC Curry, L.F. student pilot, turned over on main aerodrome, Camp Borden, at 1700 hours. Occupants uninjured. Aircraft on landing ran through soft snow, hit hard spot slightly higher and turned over. Categorized C4.
			At 0900 hours, heavy snow storm, W. 230/15/20. At 1330 hours, drifting snow W. 230/40. Flying washed out.
			On completion of the new 720 Mess, the old building No. A61 was left vacant. This was accordingly converted for use as an airman's lounge and reading room. There was also ample space to provide a Library. Suitable furniture was obtained through the airman's Station Fund and on completion, this new recreation centre was opened to the airmen and airwomen on this date.
			W.E. personnel gave a party in honour of S/O N.E. Hargan who is to be married to S/L C.K. Card on Saturday, January 23rd.

