will bring to you and the members of the Foundation a satisfaction and sense of merit in the virtue of the work quite as great as, if not much greater than, that which I am sure is yours in the two State Reports which now give visible expression to what ~~at~~ ^{at a} time of great confusion were visions just as intangible as the one now entertained in regard to this larger ideal.

No acknowledgment of this letter is necessary or will be expected until the volume has been presented. Then, however, I shall be glad to know whether your faith in my judgment remains as constant as I feel it to be at the present time.

Yours very sincerely,
