Mr. Percy C. Fuller,
204 Sylvia Court,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Mr. Fuller:

I thank you very cordially for your letter of December 5, and the dummy copy of "The Householder" which accompanied it.

I appreciate exceedingly the compliment you pay me in quoting from my "Industry and Humanity" in this publication. You are of course at entire liberty to reproduce, in any way you may think will serve a useful purpose, any part of this volume.

I shall bear in mind your wish for suggestions of books that might be of service in this connection you have indicated, and shall write you of them later on. I regret that the time at my disposal at the moment permits only of this line of acknowledgment.

Wishing you every success in your endeavours,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
