wheat pools of their own and are paddling entirely their own canoe. I would not feel like imposing now any other system upon them, but if it should later appear to be their desire to substitute for these enterprises of their own a voluntary wheat pool along the lines above set out, I would be prepared again to assume the responsibility of such a course.

Yours very truly,

Mr. Diefenbacher,
Conservative Candidate,
Prince Albert,
Sask.
