

encroaching upon it.

Should the landmarks have been removed as represented, the Superintendent General thinks that a line should be again run by a Surveyor in order to define accurately the boundaries of the Reserve. In such case you will be at liberty to employ a Surveyor to perform that duty, which, it is expected, will not cost more than Eight or Ten Dollars.

It is understood that you have a plan of the Reserve in question: and if necessary you should apply to the