Sir,

I have to inform you that you should as soon as possible after the end of each month, send in a return shewing the money received by you on account of land and timber during the month, from whom received, amount in each case paid, and on account of what lands.

If no money has been received by you, a "nil" return should be transmitted at the end of each month.

Yours,
Sir,

J. M. Macleod

Deputy of the District of the District.
