AMERICAN WOMEN AND THE WORLD WAR

By IDA CLYDE CLARKE

This is a splendid story, brimming with interest, telling how the women of America mobilized and organized almost overnight, what they have accomplished and the work of the various women's organizations. Every woman can derive from it inspiration and information of particular value to these times.

GREAT BRITAIN'S PART

By PAUL D. CRAVATH

In brief compass the author tells what Great Britain has done and is doing to help win the great war. The book is unique among war books because it is a story of organization rather than of battle front scenes and is a side of the war few other writers have more than touched upon.

"It would be difficult to make language clearer or more effective. . . . It is a veritable pistol shot of alluring information."—The Christian Intelligencer, New York.

OUT OF THEIR OWN MOUTHS

With an introduction by WILLIAM ROSCOE THAYER

To prove conclusively the identity of the aggressors in the great war, and their ultimate aims this book has been prepared from the official documents, speeches, letters and hundreds of unofficial statements of German leaders. With few exceptions, the extracts included in this collection are taken directly from the German.

"It is the most comprehensive collection of this character that has yet appeared."—The Springfield Union.
