

occasion ;— the 29th day of March, 1844, for Sister Caron and how she found herself prepared therefore ; — God was henceforth the portion of her inheritance.

CHAPTER VI

1844 — 1849

SISTER CARON AS TREASURER. 46

The day after profession ;— reading of the Rules ; — the Sister Treasurer ; — what she should be ; — how Sister Caron carried out that programme ; — her relations with those whom she governed ; — her good and beautiful qualities appreciated on the outside ; — her generosity ; — her prudence ; — her success.

CHAPTER VII

1849 — 1851

SISTER CARON SUPERIOR AT ST. ELIZABETH 52

The foundations in the missions ; — at St. Elizabeth ; — the good people of that locality fear expense ; — Sister Caron wins them over ; — the yellow house of St. Elizabeth ; — the Superior's kindly dealings ; — a visit to St. Elizabeth in 1908 ; — Sister Caron's works ; — an unfortunate lunatic, a poor idiot, a beggar, sick and old such were the "lords and masters" of the Sisters ; — works of charity and the training of children ; — Sister Caron gives the example ; — how much she was loved and revered ; — house to house visitation ; — an original demonstration ; — Sister Caron succeeds Mother Gamelin who is just dead, Oct. 7th, 1851.