

Contents

CHAPTER IV

THE DEATHLESS STORY OF YPRES

	PAGE
Introductory—The Canadian Line—The Attack on the Wood— Gallantry of the 10th and 16th Battalions—The 2nd and 3rd to the Rescue—Stirring Stories by Officers and Men —Heavy Casualties—A Counter Attack—Fine Work by the 1st and 4th Battalions—The "Gates of Hell"—Praise from British Soldiers—The 3rd Brigade and the Poison Fumes —Montreal Heroism—The 13th and 14th Battalions Fight for their Lives—Hanging on in Spite of Everything—The 15th Battalion Lose Heavily—Their Colonel's Charmed Life —The Glorious Part Played by the 2nd Division—Gallan- try of the Winnipeg Boys—The "Little Black Devils," Dazed by Gas, Hold their Line—"Retire be Damned!"— A Costly Triumph—"The Boys Stuck It"—The 7th Bat- talion Lose their Colonel—British Columbians' Heavy Casualties—The Work of the Scientific Branches—En- gineers, Artillery-Signallers and Army Service Corps and their Share in the Fight—An Heroic Artillery Officer— Canadian Pluck	85

APPENDICES

A.	MESSAGES OF CONGRATULATION	147
B.	THE OFFICERS' ROLL OF HONOUR	153
C.	IN MEMORIAM	166