CLARKE (James Stainer) SERMONS on the CHARACTER and PROFESSIONAL DUTIES of SEAMEN preached in the Western Squadron during its services off BREST on board HIS MAJESTY'S SHIP IMPETUEX, JOHN WILLETT PAYNE, Esq, commander, 2nd edition, 275 pp, a beautiful little square 8vo volume, dark blue morocco gilt, gilt edges, Lon. 1801. "With the author's grateful and respectful Duty" on second fly leaf. THE BOOK of COMMON PRAYER and TATE and BRADY's new version of the PSALMS of DAVID in one well used volume, but not in bad condition. Thick 12mo, dark morocco, Cambridge, 1832. On the first fly leaf is written: ADELAIDE CAREY, THE GIFT of HER AFF'T FRIEND AUGUSTA, 1834, 50.00 the lot.

EDWARD, DUKE OF KENT, was the FOURTH SON of GEORGE III AND FATHER of QUEEN VICTORIA. He was a liberal-minded man and died in 1820. Each one of the volumes speaks in silent, and we may say melancholy, eloquence of their respective owners. They are in good condition and we prefer to dispose of them in one lot at the above very moderate sum, with the hope of their being preserved under glass in a public institution.
