Questions and Answers.

1st—Questions asked by bona-fide subscribers to "The Farmer's Advocate" are answered in this department free.

2nd—Questions should be clearly stated and plainly written, on one side of the paper only, and must be accompanied by the full name and address of the writer.

3rd—In veterinary questions, the symptoms especially must be fully and clearly stated, otherwise satisfactory replies cannot be given.

4th—When a reply by mail is required to urgent veterinary or legal enquiries, $1.00 must be enclosed.

Miscellaneous.

Swearing.

Advise me as to the law regarding swearing. Has a farmer the right to prosecute if the hired man persists in swearing?

L. S. W.

Ans.—The hired man or any other man may be brought before a Justice of the Peace for using abusive language.

Sheep Papers and Books.

1. What are the names of the leading sheep papers published in Canada and the United States, and where are they printed?

2. What are the names of a few of the best books about the care and management of sheep, where, and at what price can they be obtained?

L. C. T.

Ans.—1. The Shepherd's Journal, Chicago, Illinois. Watch our columns closely for sheep articles.

2. Modern Sheep Breeds and Management, by Shepherd Boy, may be had through this office at $1.50, postpaid.

Mud Fever.

1. Is there such a thing as mud fever? Have horse with a dry scab on leg. When it is picked off it is raw. It is very itchy. The horse stamps and tries to rub it. Seems to be getting dry in hair.

2. Is it a skin disease?

3. Can it be cured? If so, how?

N. T.

Ans.—There is such a thing as mud fever. Give the animal a purgative of 6 to 8 drams aloes and 2 drams ginger. Follow up with 1½ ounces of Fowler's Solution of Arsenic twice daily every alternate week for six weeks. To the scales and eruptions apply three times daily a lotion made of 2 ounces each of sulphate of zinc and acetate of lead, and one-half ounce carbolic acid to a quart of water. Do not wash.

Gossip.

Jno. Miller, Jr., of Ashburn, Ont., in changing his advertisement, writes that his stock must be reduced as he is short of feed and stabling. His herd of 47 head are all for sale, among them being cows with calves, cows and heifers in calf, young heifers and young bulls of all ages, bred for milk and beef. See his advertisement.

The firm of Mac Campbell & Sons, the death of whose senior member was announced a few weeks ago, informs us that the business will be carried on as usual. See the advertisement elsewhere. The late Mac Campbell was a continuous subscriber to "The Farmer's Advocate" from his twentieth year until the time of his death, and for many years an advertiser in its columns.

The Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station Bulletin No. 266, gives some very interesting and instructive data concerning the cost of farm labor in Ohio. The data have special application, however, to the labor cost of growing corn. The bulletin contains many tables showing data of a very practical nature, such as the rate of wages paid farm hands in the different counties; the number of hours of man and of horse labor required for the production of one acre of corn in the different sections of the State. The labor cost of producing one acre of corn in the different sections of the State is as follows: South-east, $16.76; north-east, $16.29; north-west, $16.46; and the south-west, $9.62.
