GOSSIP.

Mr. Wm. Smith, Columbus, Ont., writes: "Kindly stop my advertisement about exchanging the bull, Ben Lomond, for an imported bull, as Mr. Amos, of Mofat, and I have exchanged for his purchase at Mr. Ed. Robinson's sale, at Markham, last week, Royal Champion. I have recently sold a couple of young Wedding Gift bulls: One to Wilson Nesbit, of Blackstock, and the other to Prince Albert Syndicate, also a very fine young Wedding Gift cow and her calf, by Royal Archer, to Fred Richardson, Columbus, Ont."

MR. MCGILLICUDDY'S SALE.

The auction sale of Shorthorn cattle, carriage horses and brood sows, advertised by Mr. M. J. McGillicuddy, of Kenilworth, to take place on Thursday, January 31st, at his farm, seven miles from Arthur and eight from Mount Forest, C. P. R., where teams will meet trains morning of sale, will afford an opportunity of securing a good class of dual-purpose cattle, the herd being founded on good-milking strains, most of the twelve young cows showing good-milking capacity, as well as being rapid feeders when dry. These are in calf or have calves at foot by the present stock bull, a son of the imported Marr-bred bull, Prime Favorite, winner of second prize in the strong competition at the Toronto Exhibition last fall, one of the very best bulls in Canada. The heifers and the half-dozen young bulls in the sale are a thrifty, good-feeding, mossy-coated lot, which should find ready buyers at fair prices, as no fancy figures are expected. A few matched pairs of road and carriage horses, and a few pure-bred Yorkshire and Berkshire sows, are also included in the sale.

Mr. Robert McEwen, Byron, Ont., near London, writes: "My advertisement with you is bringing me many enquiries for Scotch collies, and I find farmers do not hesitate as they once did to pay a fair price for a good dog. Shipments have been made to California, British Columbia and Nova Scotia, and intervening places. I wish to announce that I have reluctantly concluded to confine my collie-breeding to one or, at most, two bitches, and, therefore, offer for sale practically the whole of my kennel, which has been before the public continuously for the past thirty years, competing at the largest shows in Canada and the United States. This is an opportunity not often afforded of obtaining working, breeding and show individuals of the highest merit and most approved breeding. Included in the sale list is Holyrood Idyll, the dam of H. Mouty, winner, at Chicago, of two firsts and three specials, one of which was the $300 American Collie Club trophy; H. Conqueror and H. Conquest, winners at New York of first and second, sweepstakes and special for the best brace bred in America. Other brood bitches are: H. Maid, H. Pretty One, H. Princess, H. Polly, and H. Elsie, winners at Toronto, Buffalo and Detroit Shows. All of these must be sold, as well as puppies now on hand, and I shall be glad to hear from anyone in need of a dog. Any buyer not satisfied with his purchase can have his money refunded, provided he re-ships immediately after inspection and prepays return charges. The offerings are all of my own breeding, and I will guarantee all descriptions and pedigrees."

Lump Jaw

The first remedy to cure Lump Jaw was

and it remains today the standard treatment, with years of success back of it, known to be a cure and guaranteed to cure. Don't experiment with substitutes or imitations. Use it, no matter how old or bad the case or what else you may have tried—your money back if Fleming's Lump Jaw Cure ever fails. Our fair plan of selling, together with exhaustive information on Lump Jaw and its treatment, is given in Fleming's Vets' Pocket Veterinary Adviser.

Most complete veterinary book ever printed to be given away. Durable bound, indexed and illustrated. Write us for a free copy.
