New Precious Blood Monastery Blessed

(Special to the CATHOLIC RECORD.) (Special to the CATHOLIC RECORD.)

The new monastery of the Sisters Adorers of the Precious Blood, situated on the canal bank, was this morning formally dedicated and blessed by His Grace Archbishop Duhamel, of Ottawa, in the presence of a large body of distinguished prelates of the Catholic Church, a large number of the local clergy and members of different religious orders and a large congrexation. Pontifical High Mass was free celebrated by Archbishop Bruchest of Montreal. The reusical portion, which was second tone harmonized, was rendered by the Sisters, and at the Offertory "Quid Retribuam" was sung as a solo.

and at the Offertory "Quid Retribuam" was sung as asolo.

Among the clerky who were present were; His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi, of Montreal; Archbishop Duhamel, Ottawa; Archbishop Gauthier, Kingston; Bishop Emard, Valleyfield; Bishop Larceque, Sherbrook; Mgr. Decelle, co-adjutor Bishop of St. Hyacinthe; the Very Rev. the Administrator of Three Rivers; Mgr.Routhier, Ottawa; Rev. Canons McCarthy, Bouillion, Plantin, Deguire, Ottawa; and R. Fathers Stanton, Smith's Falls; Greulx Myrin, Bazinet, Charboil, Beausoleil, Duffy, Cauvette, Moise and Jacques, Ottawa; Myrand, Billings Bridge, and Champagne, Gatineau Point.

cand, Billings Bridge, and Champagne, Gailmour Point and Point and the sermon in English, delivered by Bishop Larcque, of Sherbrooke, was an eloquent effort in commendation of the noble work of the Sisters of the Precious Blood, and the principles which they espoused. Bishop Larcque said in part: "Thirty-seven years ago a pious Bishop of the Catholic Church, distinguished for his religious zeal, established at St. Hyacinte the noble order of the Sisters of the Precious Blood. Like unto the grain of mustard seed, the order had grown and developed, and while at first its usefulness was questioned, all that objection, if any, had now been replaced will love and admiration for the self-sacrificing work that was being carried on by those devoted women."

The success of the order elsewhere lad led the distinguished prelate of Ottawa to exert his efforts to induce the Sisters to locate in Ottawa, and since their establishment here they have been the recipients of untiring kindness from the clergy and faithful of the city.

Under the paternal care of His Grace Archishop Duhamel and with the blessing of Almighty God the order had grown until new quarters were found necessary, and none more quarters were found necessary, and none more suitable than the present could have been suitable than the present could have been found.

The grandest historical fact in the annals of the Catholic Church was the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ. With his cross and passion and intolerable suffering on Calvary He had shed His blood for the remission of the suns of humanity, and to-day the Sisters of the Precious Blood and the Catholic Church commemorated on earth that holy sacrifice and vicarious suffering on Calvary.

The Catholic Church claimed a divine origin and had Christ as its Founder and by her works and charity must show the divinity of that origin.

and charity must show the divinity of that origin.

Christ's passion made it possible to be saved, to gain heaven, to gain life everlasting. This cardinal lesson should be brought out in every work of the hely Church and this could not be done better than by those devoted women who, in self-sacrifice, self-denial and seclusion from the world, prayer for themselves, for humanity, and above all for the unsaved and sinful. Their noble work merited the greatest commendation and in the devotions of the faithful and the heartfelt offerings of charity the devoted Sisterhood of the Precious Blood should His Lordship is a complete master of English language.

His Lordiship is a complete master of English language.

The sermon in French was delivered by Bishop Decelles, of St. Hyacinthe.

The visiting clerky, to the number of fifty, were afterwards entertained at a sumptuous lunch which was provided by citizens of Ottawa and Hull and the neighborhood. The table was beautifully set and ornamented by Mrs. F. Rogers, confectioner, and the repast was served by a number of young ladies of the city.

In the afternoon at 4 o'clock Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given. The reverend gentleman commenced by referring to the cure of the ten lepers, only one of whom returned to give thanks. Then pointing out the Presence of God at various times, in the garden of Eden, in the burning bush, in the pillars of cloud and of fire, etc., he enlarged upon the presence of Our Lord in the Tabernacle, and urged frequent visits to the churches and chapels, and punctual attendance at Benediction services.

chapels, and punctual attendance at Benediction services.

The Very Rev. Canon Bouillon, the chaplain of the convent, followed in a discourse in French in which he spoke of the blessing attending such a holy house of sacrifice and prayer. A hymn of thanksgiving specially prebared for the occasion was sung in addition to the ordinary hymns. The altar is a perfect gen in white and gold and elaborately carved. The ostensorium is a magnificent article, and has been made to order in France from a design of Very Rev. Canon Bouillon, who also designed the altar. Both are the results of contributions almost entirely outside of the district. His Grace Archbishon Gauthier celebrated Mass for the Sisters and pupils of Gloucester street convent. on Friday merning. After breakfast His Grace was presented with addresses of congratulation and welcome by the numis. A short musical entertainment was also given.

Mr. Thomas Tucker, Cobourg.

We regret to record the death of Thomas Tucker, of Cobourg, which took place in Toronto on the 12th of November.

The deceased went to Toronto about ten years ago where he was employed in Cobban's glass factory for about five years, afterwards working for Sanderson Pearcy glass works in which place he was employed up to the time of his death. He was only ill one week in the hospital, where he died of typhoid pneumonia, on Saturday morning, 9.30, on November 12, as above stated. He received all the rites of the Church and was attended by the Rev. Father Minchan of Toronto, Rev. Father Amarray attended the funeral in Cobourg. He was a first class forkman and a very honest man, He was liked by every person who knew him. His family did not know he was ill until the day before he died when word was sent to his brother, J. H. Tucker of Oshawa, who immediately notified thefamily in Cobourg. His sister arrived at his death-bed an hour and a haif before he died, and had the melancholy satisfaction of being recognized by her departing brother. MR, THOMAS TUCKER, COBOUR

May his soul rest in peace

This our sad duly to chronicle the death of Patrick Quirk, who died of paralysis, at his home in Brant township, County of Bruce, on the 2nd of Nov., All Souls Day, at the early age of thurty-eight years and seven months. The dethe 2nd of Nov., All Souls Day, at the early age of Initry-eight years and seven months. The deceased was born and had lived on the old homestead in Brant. He was the fourth son of the late Wm. Quirk, who died about three years ago. He had lived in apparently good health until a few weeks previous to his death, when he was suddenly stricken with paralysis. Although medical aid was immediately applied, yet it had no effect on the disease. Speaking of his personality, one of his chief characteristics, was his kindness of heart and Christian charity to all with whom he came in contact. He was always a strict adherent of the Carholic faith, and received the last rites of the Church from the parish priest, Rev. Father Kelly, of Walkerton.

from the parish priest, fiev. Father Keily, of Walkerton.

The funeral left his residence Friday morning, Nov, 4, and was followed by a large concourse of people, which showed the great respect in which he was held. He was a kind husband and a devoted father. Mass was ceibrated for the repose of his soul by Rev. Father Kelly, who delivered a very appropriate sermon on life, death, judgment and eternity. Mr. Quirk leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss, besides a sister, Mrs. J. Finerty, of Matcolm, and a brother, Wm. Quirk, of Dyden, Raimy River District. The prayers of the readers of this paper are requested for the repose of his soul.

MR JEREMIAH COLLINS, MAIDSTONE.

A few weeks ago the parish of Maidstone Cross lost of its pioneers in the person of Mr. J. Collins. Practically his whole life was spent in Maidstone Cross, for he came to that village while yet a child and died after being one of its respected members for a period of about sixty years. In the course of this time he succeeded by his industry and intelligence, in building up for himself and family a handsome independence. But better than the success of the man was his integrity and high sense of religion. He seemed to possess a thing which, unhappily, is becoming rank of the man was his integrity and high sense of religion. He seemed to possess a thing which, unhappily, is becoming rank of the man our midst, a Cathonic instinct which enabled him, without trouble or effort, to get at and hold a correct view in all questions connected with our faith. His death, which occurred on wet. 20, will leave a great void in the parish, were it only for the example of his life and for the feine Catholic sense to which allusion has been made. The parish is bound to miss him and to feine the many ways that a man difficult to replace has gone out from it never to return.

Mr. Collins was married twice. Of his first marriage there remains one daughter, who is married and lives in Maidstone Cross; of the second marriage, severalchildren remain, four boys and four grils. Of the boys, Frank is an honored member of the Fire Department, in Detroit and is married; Henry and Jerry still remain at the old homestead in Maidstone Cross; Charles is a deacon and is finishing the studies which prepare for priesthood in the Basilian House of studies near Toronto. All, no doubt, will perpetuate the good tradition to well begun by their excellent father. Of the four daughters two are married and two remain at the homestead, Generous sympahy is felt by all his friends, of whom there are many in the county of Essex.

MR. PATRICK HOLLY, HAGARTY, ONT. MR. PATRICK HOLLY, HAGARTY, ONT.

It is with much regret we have to announce the death of Mr. Patrick Holly, one of the early settlers of the Township of Hagarty. The sad event which occurred on the 13th of October last, followed close the death of his dear friend and cousin Mr. Patrick Enright of Admaston. Heart disease, from which the deceased gentleman had ocen suffering from some years, was the immediate cause. He had been prepared some time previously, for death by having received the holy sacrament of Extreme Unction from Rev. Father Frynch, P.P. Brudenell, and although he had recovered fits former health a good deal, he still was patiently and resignedly awaiting the fatal summons, which for him seemed to not have the usual terrors, as he was a man of strong faith and had always led a very pious and virtuous life. The deceased gentieman leaves a widow, three sons and two daughters to mourn his loss. The boys are Mr. John Holly, farmer near Killaioe Station; and Mr. Patrick Holly on the homestend farin near Rochefort. The girls, Miss Mary and Miss Katie Holly, reside at the homestend. The deceased gentleman was a native of the County Kerry, Ireland, and on his mother's side a descendent of the Ancient family of the Kissanes so renowned in the south of Ireland for their great virtue and strength. He had come to Canada sbout the year, 1855, and after working a few years for the late Mr. Lorn McDougall Renfrew, settled on the home where he resided till death. The esteem in which he was held by the community in which he lived was illustrated by the large funeral which conveyed his remains to the handsome burying place of Killaloe station.

We regret to record the death of Miss Mary Land, who departed this life on Saturday morning at the home of her cousin, Mr. C. O'Brines, Camlachie, Deceased went to Camlachie on Wednesday, Nov. 9, to join her mother who was visating there. On Friday a. m. she took suddenly it and at an early hour next morning bid the last farewell to her heart-broken mother, who did everything possible to save the life of her beloved child. The remains were taken to their home in Forest on Saturday evening. The task of breaking the sad news to the suddenly bereaved sister, who was at home, having been entrusted to her brother. Joseph. all by her unvarying good nature, her unstinted generosity to those in' trouble, and her cheerful disposition.

It is safe to say that all who knew her are deeply grieved and concerned at her untimely end. These, we know, offer their sincere and everlasting sympathy to the surviving mother, brother and sister who are all that are left to mourn her sad death out of a family of seven, who were and are highly esteemed and respected. To the afflicted and other bereaved ones they can echo the beautiful prayer of holy Cnurch, "That she may rest in peace." She was a model Christian and will be greatly missed. She was a faithful member of the League of the Sacred Heart.

Many floral tributes were sent, among them being a beautiful one from the choir girls, of which she was a member.

The pali-bearers were John O'Donnell, Jas. O'Donnell, Guss Hubbard, Ed, O'Donnell, Peter Hubbard and Chas, F Hubbard, all cousins of the deceased. The funeral took place on Monday, Nov. 1, at 143 to the Church, where the Requien High Mass was sung. Rev. Father Hogan offliciated, and afterward the interment was made at Beechwood cemetrey.

It has been well said that "creative epochs are invariably epochs in which men believe. Faith watches by the cradle of nations, and criticism argues and doubts over their graves."

REASON.

"The farthest reach of reason," says Pascal, "is to recognize that there are n is an infinity of things above it. It no he must be weak indeed if it does not see ated thus far."

The wise man knows that he knows | imit little, but the fool in his self-complac- their ency has reached the ultima thule of knowledge.

IMPERIALISM.

Lords Salisbury and Rosebery have ceased beating the war drum and Europe is resting quietly. Marchand has stepped out from Fashoda and Cham berlain is now at liberty to build the railway to connect Cape Colony with Egypt. And so the policy of Imperialism goes on-a policy which consists in robbing the natives of their own, and which, however glorified by the friends of "civilization," will have ever as accuser the saying : " Thou shait not steal." But the tourist will wait for many a year yet before he will be able to run down by rail from Egypt to the Cape Colony Territory, for Abyssinia is in the way and Menelick may possibly object to the scheme of Mr. Chamberlain.

THE CHAMPION ON THE RE. FORMATION.

The Catholic Champion, a High Church journal, does not believe in the spotless purity of either the lives or methods of the Reformers. It says that "the ruthless pillaging of sacred shrines and violation of vows on the part of women and men who undertook the work of purifying the Catholic Church have made the Reformation a stench in the nostrils of Christendom."

Their distinguishing characteristic was lack of principle. "Lecherous thieves and unprincipled intriguers set about the task of destroying the Catholic religion for which Christ died."

THE ACCEPTABLE TIME.

We are told that the present season is a time set apart by the Church for a preparation for Christmas. And she tells us also that preparation means repentance-a cleansing of the soul from all defilement, from meanness and bitterness, from low ideals, from love of vanity, from all that mars the beauty of life. It means that the future must mark a strenuous upholding of the principles laid down by the God of Bethlehem. The man, therefore, who endeavors to prepare himself for a worthy celebration of Christmas will begin to understand the deep significance of the words, "tidings of great joy." They were a message of liberty to a world enslaved. To individual bound down by vice and error they were laden with consolation and hope The dark shadow was uplifted and th rays of glory fell down on the tear stained face of men. The Son of ma set up a school and taught His people and His lessons have, like seed fallen into human hearts and regene ated and influenced the generations the world. We too must need pause awhile ar read them and understand them as we shall learn that all the noise as fulsome eulogy of what we have do and our pitiful strivings and bicket ings and our success, which is oft a disguised failure, can never fi place in a heart dominated by spirit of the Infant God."

OUR YOUNG MEN.

We heard recently an address young men. It was compiled for Samuel Smiles' works and was gi out in an unctuous manner and w accent peculiar to the denizens garrison towns. We wondered the gentleman unlocked his wise treasure for the gaze of the multitu
