have struck the mark. Shortly after the apprehension of Lay, other three persons were lodged in jail, on suspicion of intimate connection with the affair, and what would seem to confirm the suspicion is, that in the pocket of one of them was found a key which was taken from his house on Monday night. One thing is entain, that it fits the lock as exactly as if it had been made for it. An examination will take place to day, when full particulars will be elicited.
