What Happened On Canadian League Circuit Yesterday

The youthful pitcher, Hammond, of the local Canadian League Club, more than got his head of the water in his baptism before London fans yesterday afternoon, when he shut out Peterboro by the score of 1 to 0, allowing but three widely scattered hits. But few opportunities presented themselves to the visitors throughout the whole contest where a base hit would have been disastrous for the big Ohio lad, as each time he emerged unscathed. Outside of the opening inning "Iron Man" Sterling pitched wonderful ball and held the Tecumseh intact by making his benders keep the hitters efforts distributed.

HAMS POUND FOUR

BEAVER PITCHERS HARD.
HAMILTON May 22.—The opening game of the series between the Beavers of Toronto and the Hamilton Athletics yesterday afternoon developed into a swatfeast, which the locals won out by a 12 to 6 score. Both teams hit the ball hard and far, but the Athletics hit in the pinches and came through with the necessary runs. Knotty Lee was forced to use four of his pitchers, and, judging from the way the Athletics hammered them, his pitching staff is weakest department of the team and will require improvement.

Hamilton secured seven runs in the third, when Pitcher Kirley went up in the air, and was substituted by Schaub, who was taken out at the end of the inning. Four singles, two doubles, a sacrifice, three passes, an error, a wild pitch and a fielder's choice was the cause of the trouble, and half the Hamilton team had been at bat for the second time before three men were called out. In the fourth four more counters were carolled off of Hubert, who replaced Schaub.

KUBAT PITCHES, AND

HITS WIN OVER ERIE.
OTTAWA, May 22.—Ottawa beat Erie yesterday, 6 to 1, with Kubat on the mound for the Senators, while the Yankees depended upon Morse. With the exception of the second inning, when Schoeffler singled and scored on Wilt's double, Kubat was never in danger. A couple of singles and an error gave Ottawa one in the first and another error and Kubat's single resulted in another in the fourth. In the eighth a hit and two walks filled the bases and Kubat's three-bagger cleared them. Kubat got home on Nil's single. Erie played very poor ball behind Morse, giving him no support at all.

Harris Mixed Things.

Harris held Lage from throwing after he was out at the plate and the same Erie player threw his bat at Kubat after the former Toronto player had hit him with a pitched ball. There is bad feeling between Harris and the veteran of the Senators.

Welsh's Abuse of Ritchie Cannot Injure Champion

If Freddie Welsh is still trying to run Willie Ritchie to his hole, as he threatened to do after disposing of Leach Cross, the Britisher's courage is to be admired.

There haven't been any signs of disturbance in the champions' camp since Welsh eased his mind at Ritchie's expense, nor is there apt to be any uneasiness felt from all the shafts of sarcasm which may be directed to the Californian's immediate vicinity.

Ritchie is about as much worried over anything Welsh and his pilot, Harry Pollack, have said as would John D. Rockefeller be were he to lose a dime through riotous living. When Ritchie gets ready to take care of Mr. Welsh, and that will be just as soon as some promoter offers sufficient inducements, he will talk business.

Determined To Dictate

San Francisco's favorite fistic son is a champion whose determination to dictate and not be dictated to will stand the acid test. Willie, who has set his price for meeting all challengers for his title, went on record with the announcement that he will give every contender an opportunity to win the laurels and stands ready, he repeats, to satisfy the desires of all.

Since Welsh seems to be so certain of eventually forcing Ritchie into a match it isn't at all unreasonable to suggest that he find a promoter who will agree to stage it. Freddie isn't such a great gate card anyway to cause matchmakers to stampede for his services. Neither of his fights against Joe Rivers and Leach Cross created a panic for brilliancy, and the Englishman, in a measure, isn't all wool and a yard wide on the Pacific coast.

Could Pursue Other Methods

Furthermore, there are other ways of going about this thing besides heaping abuse on Ritchie's courage. It can't be recalled when Willie ever showed the white feather in the face of anybody's fire, and it can't be imagined that he has any fear of Welsh's feather punching. Also it is a difficult matter for Freddie to interest the public in a claim of that sort.

As a novice Ritchie got his start up the ladder by giving the Briton a terrific battle for 20 rounds, while substituting for Ad. Wolgast at the eleventh hour. Willie came out of San Francisco cold for a train ride to Los Angeles and there carried Welsh along for the whole route. Once during the contest Ritchie dropped Freddie, a fact the latter appreciates at this late day.

Under those conditions Ritchie wasn't frightened by Welsh, so why should he, an improved champion now freed a meeting with the Briton? Freddie will have to offer a better explanation than any given so far.

Also, it wouldn't be a bad idea for Welsh to wipe out that defeat Jimmy Duffy, of Lockport, N.Y., scored against him in St. Louis not so many weeks ago before he tries to hang crepe on Ritchie's door knob. The loss Freddie sustained then doesn't jibe well with his accusations against the champion.

Welsh wouldn't be an ideal titleholder were he fortunate enough to acquire the laurel wreath anyway. His p'ng-p'ng style of boxing isn't appreciated by those who support the sport. Freddie is fast as greased lightning, that's true, and he knows the game to the minutest detail, but that inspiring wallop is as foreign to the Britisher as diamonds are to tramps.

It's the fellow like Ritchie whom the critics string along with, the lad who will stand up and trade punch for punch, and, frequently, stick over the "kick" that concludes all argument. For that reason, too, Willie, when he will the word for Freddie to come on, will rule favorite with the betting element.

With Amateurs

The junior Stars defeated the Mohawk sluggers 6 to 1 at Tutela park last night. Workman, who pitched for the Stars, pitched good ball, striking out five men in five innings. The Sluggers only getting one hit off his delivery. Cutts, who pitched for the Sluggers, was very wild, he walking six men. Batteries, Stars: Workman and Walters; Sluggers: Cutts and Andrews. Umpire Wilkinson; scorer Hartley.

Football

The first encounter of the season in connection with the John Hill Cup takes place to-morrow, when the preliminary round is fought out. For this round the two teams could not be more evenly matched and the game more interesting.

It is the meeting between the Duffs and Cockshutt's. Cockshutt's are the holders of the trophy and will defend it to their uttermost. The Duffs on the other hand are the league champions and have already shown that they have not lost their old time vigor. They have, however, been put out of the Courier Cup by Tutela and it can be imagined they will be all out to remain in the running for the Hill trophy. Cockshutt's have good men and also have a fine lot of reserves. They play good football and are well man aged. Duffs are not yet so sure, but have shown that they have much in hand. Can they win? This question will not be solved until the last kick of the ball on Saturday.

Tutela vs. Paris.

Tutela visiting at Paris in a league fixture may be able to get the points. After their strength against the Sons it would not be surprising to see them garner all in. Paris is a hotbed of enthusiasm for their own team, and such has a heartening effect upon their men to the discomfort of the opponents. This will possibly not count for much with the Tutela brigade but one never knows. On paper they look good enough to master the Parisians.

Wanderers v. P. S. A.

Wanderers, who are weak in the forward line, meet another weak team in P. S. A. Both combinations are rebuilding and are both equally determined to play the straight manly game and any man caught giving an ankle tap or shine rub, is politely told that his room is preferred. Therefore a most gentlemanly exhibition ought to be seen at the Agricultural Park on Saturday.

Holmedale v. S. O. E.

Holmedale enter into conflict with the S. O. E. and a strong lusty exhibition of the game will be put up. Holmedale are finding their legs and are anxious to put themselves right, after their recent defeat, while the Sons are no less anxious to add to their points. A hot contest is on.

The Scots having no fixture, will hold a practice match.

Will Represent Duffs

The following will represent the Duffs on Saturday next at Agricultural Park when they play Cockshutt United in the preliminary round for the John Hill Cup: Knowles, Holland, Keightley, Williamson, Mercer, Biggs, Usher, Humphries, Drake, Blower, Alexander. Reserves—Evans, Coale, Palmer. Referee—Mr. Smith.

All players and reserves are requested to report at the Armouries at 5 p.m.

Cockshutt vs. Paris.

The Cockshutt United team will meet Paris in a league game at Agricultural Park on Monday, May 25. Kick off at 11 a.m.

This game should prove very interesting as the Paris team intend putting up a strong fight. The Cockshutt team will be selected immediately after the match with the Dufferin Rifles on Saturday.

Cockshutt's Line-up.

The Cockshutt United team will meet the Dufferin Rifles in the first round of the John Hill charity cup, on Saturday May 23rd, at Agricultural Park, with the kick off at 6 p.m.

Players are requested to be at the Armouries at 5 p.m. The Cockshutt team will turn out as follows:—Goal, H. Carey; backs, S. Howell, C. Stubbs half backs, A. Maich, E. Clark and another. Forwards: R. Plant, R. Charlton, J. Anderson, R. Richardson and S. Hutchinson. Reserves—J. Molloy, R. Richards, J. Store.

Tutela Line-up.

The following have been chosen to represent Tutela against Paris on Saturday at 6 p.m. at Tutela Park. Referee, McElair. Teams dress, Tutela Park. Goal, S. Clark, backs, T. Mason, F. Burns; half backs, N. McLeod, Captain; E. Roberts, P. McLeod; forwards, E. Hamilton, J. Hingley, C. Gore, H. Hingley, E. Fisher. Reserve, Cossells, Pining.

Wanderer's Line-up.

Wanderers vs. P. S. A. at Recreation park, Saturday, May 23rd. The Wanderers will line up as follows: Goal, Whelan; backs, Johnson and Charlick; half backs, Johnson, Little and Wallace; forwards, Mears, C. Chambers, Bonner, Duddon and A. Johnson.

Reserves, Hayes and Mockford. The team must be on the grounds at 5:45 p.m.

P. S. A. Line-up.

The P. S. A. football club picked the following team to meet the Wanderers on Saturday at Recreation park: G. Giles, A. Hingley, G. Richards, F. Westcott, Rogers, Barnett, R. Leman, F. Riches, F. Knowles, W. Holder, H. Arthur. Reserves, T. Blackburn, Sweeney, J. Bury. All players should be on the field at 5:30.

In Splawn of the 1913 freshmen eleven of Michigan university Coach Yost of the Ann Arbor institution, says he has the greatest kicker Michigan ever had enrolled among its football stars, one whom he expects to prove a match for Charles Buckley, the Harvard captain, when the eleven clash at Cambridge next October.

Various estimates have been made of the cost of the Defiance, as well as the Vanitie and the Resolute, the yachts which will battle for the honor of defending the America's cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, Shamrock IV. One of the latest estimates places the cost of the Vanitie and the Resolute at $200,000, and that of the Defiance at $300,000.

Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia, former middleweight boxing champion, is thought to have considerable interest in the boxing business, has made a suggestion that decisions be given in boxing matches between professionals just the same as they are rendered in amateur contests. His plan is to have judges, say three or five, and their vote to settle the matter as to the superiority of the contestants.
