

Annual Fairs in Schools of the City and Vicinity

Prize Lists Show Large Number and High Quality of the Exhibits Entered.

The second annual fair of the Echo Place School was held on Friday, Sept. 29th, and in spite of unfavorable weather, a most enjoyable time was spent by all. The decorations were carried out in the school colors—purple and gold—and were very effective. The exhibit, though small, was very good, there being some splendid specimens of fruit and vegetables. Among other exhibits were flowers, sewing, cooking, drawing, insect collections, leaf collections, bird houses and cages for pets. The Echo Place team defeated the Cainsville school team in baseball, the score being 10 to 5. Another feature of the afternoon was the speech-making by the pupils of the school, when excellent talent for public speaking was shown. After the races, refreshments were served, under the supervision of the teachers. The Echo Place Women's Institute had a booth at which ice cream and home-made cooking were sold, and the ladies realized $25 towards the motor ambulance for the 215th battalion. The success of the fair was due to the untiring efforts of the trustees, H. C. Thomas, M. Myers and J. L. Barnes, and the teachers, Miss R. Neelands, Miss M. Walton and Miss A. Graham.

The following were the prize-winners: Miss Arvid McConkey won the $10 cash prize, presented by J. Fisher, M.P., for highest marks in the June Entrance Examinations. Potato growing—1. A. McConkey, 2. To The Editor

PUBLIC APPEAL.

To the Citizens:—Thanksgiving Day with all its happy associations will soon be with us. Nearly six hundred of our "Brant Boys" are at Camp Niagara, preparing themselves for Overseas Service, and our minds naturally go towards these men who have so nobly responded to duty, and who on this Thanksgiving Day will be absent from their obedience to the call of King and Country.

Brant is going to remember her Soldier Boys by sending them a Thanksgiving Dinner on Sunday next, October 8th. We need one hundred and fifty roast chickens or any other poultry. Also one hundred and fifty pies, pumpkin, apple, lemon, etc. We appeal to all citizens throughout Brant to get busy and send in the "215th Battalion Recruiting Office, George Street, (next to the old Post Office) some Thanksgiving donation, either chicken, or pie, not later than 4 p.m. Saturday next the 7th.

These offerings with names, will be acknowledged through the local press. Any particulars may be had by calling up Mrs. W. Norman Andrews, phone No. 283 or Mrs. J. J. Hurley, phone No. 628.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. W. Norman Andrews,
Mrs. J. J. Hurley.

POLICE COURT
The police court this morning was decidedly brief, only one delinquent facing the magistrate, Richard Peel was charged with theft of a horse and assault. He was fined $12 and costs, on the first charge, $1 and costs, amounting in all to $4.15 for the second court.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM BACKACHE?

When your kidneys are weak and torpid they do not properly perform their functions; your back aches and you do not feel like doing much of anything. You are likely to be despondent and to borrow trouble, just as if you hadn't enough already. Don't be a victim any longer. The old reliable medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, gives strength and tone to the kidneys and builds up the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar combination of roots, herbs and minerals. No other medicine acts like it, because no other medicine has the same formula or ingredients. Accept no substitute, but insist on having Hood's, and get it today.

THE FAIRY FOREST

Jan was brave. For all the frights he'd had with that opera glass, still another time, if you'll believe it, he unscrewed the lens from his mother's opera glasses and let the elf out, though he knew the minute he did it, the opera glasses would grow and grow, or seem to. Jan couldn't make out what really happened.

Sure enough the glasses began to grow the minute the elf was out and Jan and he ran through the golden tunnel to the window, lens at the end.

Now the elf didn't let Jan that the window lens was open. Not he! And Jan rushed up to it and through it before he knew what he was doing. Bang! he felt with a dreadful thump into the fairy forest at the end of the opera glass.

Where upon the elf gave a dreadful laugh of triumph and banged the lens closed and there was Jan in the fairy forest!

Terrified he looked about him; and now for the first time he realized how tall the forest was. Up, up, up it spread above him like white, petalled umbrellas. Yes, sir, the top of the forest queerly enough was white—not green—and the trunks looked like giant stems without branches, only here and there a leaf. And then, coming toward him, Jan saw the Purple Emperor. He knew it was the Purple Emperor because fairy heralds were crying it through trumpet flowers.

Now at first Jan thought the Purple

Obituary

Infant Pearson

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Pearson, 55 Winnet Street, mourn the loss of their infant son, Thomas, who passed away yesterday. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon, 10 Mount Hope Cemetery.

Mathias Stratford.
The death occurred yesterday afternoon of an old and highly respected resident in the person of Mr. Mathias Stratford, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John D. Hutchinson, 194 Nelson street.

The deceased, who was in his eighty-fifth year, was born in the County of Hastings, Ont., and at the age of two years, moved with his parents to Brant County, having thus lived here continuously for eighty-two years.

The late Mr. Stratford at one time conducted a coal and wood business on Wellington street, but on the death of his wife, who predeceased him 25 years ago, he retired from active work.

In religion he was a Methodist, having first been connected with Immanuel church, later Colborne St. Methodist. A staunch Conservative in politics, Mr. Stratford followed the doings of his party with great interest, and in spite of his advanced age, cast his vote regularly.

Five daughters and two sons survive, viz: Mrs. David Secord, Oakland, Mrs. Edward Hutchinson and Mrs. John D. Hutchinson, city. Mrs. Muirhead, Echo Place, Mrs. Stephen Wiles, Tuxedo, Sylvester, Oakland, and Edw. Wiles, Hamilton.

The funeral takes place on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock to Greenwood cemetery.

Council's Vote of Sympathy

A resolution of regret at the death of the late Mr. Lewis Benedict, and of sympathy to his family, has been passed by the city council upon the motion of Ald. Dowling and Ballantyne as follows:

That the Council of the Corporation of the City of Brantford expresses its regret at the decease of the late Lewis Benedict, Esq., who in his lifetime, was a trustworthy and invaluable public servant of this Corporation occupying, as he did, the responsible position of Collector for this city. In the discharge of the duties of such office, he left nothing to be desired, either in his courtesy to the public or in the painstaking discharge of his official duties. This Council feels that it not only voices its opinion but that of the whole community, in mourning the loss of a high minded, patriotic public official and citizen.

This Council expresses to his bereaved wife and family its sympathy in their great loss.

BARON SHAUGHNESSY

W HILE in Vancouver, Shaughnessy Pressed way, gave a most interesting dress lasting almost half an hour to the members of the Vancouver Board of Trade. During the evening, which were listened several hundred members of Board of Trade as well as prominent business men not connected with the board. Lord Shaughnessy, who was accompanied by what his pany had done for Vancouver Victoria, to the position of the diars after the war, the question of immigration and the duty of the citizens of Vancouver as well as the entire Dominion in furthering the interests of this country.

Prefacing his address with references to the gentlemen who accompanied him on the trip coast, Lord Shaughnessy alluded to the Vancouver of twenty-five ago.

"When you look around," he said, "and see the changes that have taken place at that period, you do not doubt as we all feel that we are entitled to a great deal of credit for the present conditions. You have your splendid waterfront, your large ocean-going ships, your magnificent streets and business blocks, and it is a pity that you have not been able to do more for the city of Victoria, where at business is not as brisk as it was, a situation that is not to be faulted in many localities of the continent, but I think that Victoria has made some marked progress and has been so successful in its business, that it is a credit to the city and its people."

The policy of the city of Victoria and the other points by the company's lines has been of creation and improvement of times probably we have seen the mark and have anticipated future, but we did it with a little while to wait when things would grow to what has been provided for in Vancouver elsewhere. The last three years have been years of depression in business, not in Vancouver, but throughout the country, by this may be attributed to some extent to over-speculation and to some extent to over-speculation.
