Habit-forming Medicines.

Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as broadly published in some Journals of more of less influence, this publicity has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject. It has, in a considerable measure, resulted in the most intelligent people avoiding such most intelligent people avoiding such foods and medicines as may be fairly suspected of containing the injurious ingrepeted of containing the injurious ingrepeted of containing the forelock," as it were, and published broadcast all the ingredients of which in spopular medicines are composed.
