

HAD GIVEN UP HOPE

But Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored Vigorous Health.

Medicines of the old fashioned kind will sometimes relieve the symptoms of disease, though they never touch the disease itself—they never cure. Ordinary medicines leave behind them indigestion, constipation and headaches. Purgatives leave those taking them feverish and weakened. On the other hand Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do direct good to the body, the blood and the nerves. They fill the veins with new, rich blood; they tone and strengthen the nerves; they cure diseases by rooting it out of the blood. They always do good—they cannot possibly do harm.

Mrs. George R. Wilson, Moncton, N. B., says:—“A few years ago after confinement I contracted a severe cold and although I took considerable medicine, I got no better. In fact my condition was gradually getting worse. I was all run down, had no appetite and grew so weak that I could not do my housework. At last the doctor who was attending me told my husband that I was going into a decline, and I feared so myself, for a sister had died of consumption. When almost in despair a friend suggested my taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got half a dozen boxes. Before I had taken them all I began to get better. Then I got another half dozen boxes, and before I had used them all I was able to do my housework again and was in better health than I had enjoyed for years. I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved me from going into consumption and I warmly recommend them to every weak person.”

PIG FEASTS.

They Have Replaced Cannibalistic Parties in Papua.

Though cannibalism used to be practised to a great extent in Papua it has now given place to pig feasts, which are extremely popular.

“The preparation for these feasts,” says the Wide World Magazine, “often takes place days beforehand, for they are nothing if not movable. The feast is announced for a certain day, but at the appointed time all the necessary pigs may not have been brought in, or some expected visitors may not have arrived, or a pig already present may have struggled free from its bonds and have to be hunted for a day or two. But no one ever seems to mind the delay. With well bred calmness they wait until everything is ready and then the feast begins.

“On one such occasion there were nearly a thousand people present, and fifty pigs, 2,000 coconuts and huge piles of taro were distributed. The feast gives got nothing; that is a universal custom. The recipients likewise neither cooked nor ate a morsel until they got home, for it is considered good form in Papua to eat nothing, but to carry away everything, thus practically reversing our notions of hospitality.

“There was a great heap of dismembered pigs lying on the ground and the presiding genius of the feast, with his assistants, threw these violently toward the guests. Each important man had retainers, who ran forward and bore the point off, while the less fortunate ones kept up a running fire of comment—identifying a pig's head as having been the contribution of some particular man, or reproving the hill folk for their awkward gait, telling them not to fear precipices on the coast, and so on.”

Many a man has a face as red as a beet who isn't.

A LAUGHING BABY IS A WELL BABY

When baby laughs, and gurgles and crows mother knows he is well and happy. When he is cross, fretful and sleepless give him a dose of Baby's Own Tablets and see how speedily they will change him to a happy, smiling child. These Tablets cure all the minor ailments of childhood and bring healthy, natural sleep because they remove the cause of sleeplessness. If the little teeth are coming through they help them along painlessly. Mrs. Octave Paulin, Caraquez, N. B., says:—“I have found Baby's Own Tablets a splendid medicine for stomach and bowel troubles, and to promote sleep. I strongly advise mothers to use them when their little ones are ailing.” Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HIS CHANCE.

How the Prime Minister of Great Britain Made Good.

Opportunity may come through a lucky accident, but genius shows in seeing and using it. The Rt. Hon. H. H. Asquith, now prime minister of Great Britain, was bound to distinguish himself sooner or later, even though he first became noted through what seemed mere chance. Mr. Stead, in the Review of Reviews, tells of this piece of “luck” which paved the way to fortune.

Mr. Asquith was the junior counsel to Sir Charles Russell, afterward Lord Chief Justice, as Lord Russell of Killowen, in the famous Parnell commission. For nine months he was immersed in the intricacies of that celebrated case. One day, while snatching a hasty lunch, Sir Charles told Asquith that he would have to cross-examine the next witness.

“This is most absurd!” exclaimed the astonished junior. “Mr. MacDonald is the next witness, and he is one of the most important. Of course you will cross-examine him.”

“No,” replied Sir Charles. “I am tired. You will do it well enough.”

It was no use to protest. Asquith was dismayed. He was totally unprepared. MacDonald was supposed to be a shrewd, intelligent Scotchman, who would prove more than a match for the ablest cross-examiner.

When Mr. Asquith rose in the court he was at his wit's end. By good fortune, he put a question which was answered by the witness in a supremely silly fashion. Mr. Asquith saw at once that he could play his fish with good results. He did so, and the process was one of the most brilliant displays of skill ever witnessed at the bar.

Poor Mr. MacDonald was turned inside out, and held up to a scoffing world, from which he gained the title of “Simple Simon.”

Mr. Asquith that day established a reputation throughout the nation. He had seized his chance and made use of it.

If you are a sufferer from colds get a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup and test its qualities. It will be found that no praise bestowed on it is too high. It does all that is claimed for it, and does it thoroughly. Do not take any substitute for Bickle's Syrup, because it is the best, having stood the test of years. All the best dealers sell it.

“You are an iceberg!” exclaimed her elderly but well-preserved admirer, pale with anger and mortification. “A dozen Cupids, with a hundred arrows each, could never find a vulnerable place in your flinty heart!” “Not if they used an old bean to shoot with,” coldly replied the beautiful girl.

“Life is full of ups and downs,” said the man who is airy and affable under all circumstances. “So I have heard.” “Well, I am at present in the full enjoyment of one of the ups.” “I congratulate you.” “Don't. It's a case of ‘hard-up.’”

AN AERIAL TORPEDO.

Patent Applied For by a German Inventor.

A patent has been applied for at the German Patent Office for an “aerial torpedo,” which is being built at Krupp works. The torpedo consists of a hollow body, containing a thin cylindrical reservoir one end of which is attached to the point of the projectile, and the other end to a thin plate screwed into the hollow body.

This reservoir is filled with liquid oxygen, and also contains an explosive charge fitted into a cylindrical tube. In the point of the torpedo a hole is bored, widening towards its front end, and a pill of platinum sponge is inserted in the hole. The platinum is ignited by the escape of hydrogen, when the point of the torpedo has pierced the covering or envelope of a balloon or airship and in its turn sets fire to the explosive charge.

All projectiles for use against balloons manufactured up to the present have simply pierced the balloon covering without exploding its gas contents. Experiments with the new torpedo are being regularly conducted.

MAGISTRATE'S ECZEMA CURED

AFTER 20 YEARS OF SUFFERING.

Zam-Buk's Healing Power Proved by School Commissioner and Baptist Deacon.

ONE of the most recent converts to the Zam-Buk method of treating and curing disease is Mr. C. E. Sanford, of Weston, King's Co., N.S.

Mr. Sanford is a Justice of the Peace for the County, and a member of the Board of School Commissioners. He is also Deacon of the Baptist Church in Berwick. Indeed, throughout the County it would be difficult to find a man more widely known and more highly respected.

Some time back he had occasion to test Zam-Buk, and here is his opinion of this great balm. He says:—

“I never used anything that gave me such satisfaction as Zam-Buk. I had a patch of eczema on my ankle, which had been there for over twenty years. Sometimes, also, the disease would break out on my shoulders. I had taken solution of arsenic, had applied various ointments, and tried all sorts of things to obtain a cure, but all in vain. I was advised to give Zam-Buk a trial, and as I am a firm believer in Nature's remedies, I did so. From first applying it I saw it was altogether different to the ordinary ointments and embrocations, and it soon began to show signs of clearing away the eczema on my ankle. This was so gratifying, that I persevered for some time with it, and I am glad to say it had the desired result. I am now cured of the disease which defied every other treatment for twenty years.

“This is not the only direction in which I have proved the merits of Zam-Buk. I suffered for a long time from piles, and I found a perfect cure for this painful ailment in Zam-Buk. Zam-Buk soothes the pain, relieves the congested veins, and so restores the elasticity to the tissues that the piles gradually but surely disappear.”

Zam-Buk is a positive and certain cure for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, piles, festering sores, ulcers, scalds, blood poisoning, eczema, scabs, chapped hands, cold cracks, chilblains, ringworm, scalp sores, bad leg, diseased ankles, and all other skin diseases and injuries. Rubbed well into the parts affected, it cures neuralgia, rheumatism and sprains. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, three for $1.25, and Post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse the harmful imitations sometimes represented to be ‘just as good.’
