A WEEKLY JOURNAL.

W. & J. ANSLOW,

Our Country, with its United Interests.

Minion

EDITORS & PROPRIETORS.

Board of Works

Vol. XII.-No. 11.

The

Newcastle, N. B., Wednesday, January 8, 1879.

WHOLE NO. 583.

Altocate,

	The second state of the se					· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	and the second sec
	WAVERLY HOTEL, Law and Collect	ction Offices PETER LOGGIE,	G. A. BLAIR.	VEGETINE	'Frank, do you know who she is?	stopping to remove bonnet or shawl,	'twas so nice to leave the heiress be-
-	YEWCASTLE,	Wood Moulding & Planin	g Merchant Tailor, CHATHAM, N. B.	-WILL CURE-	'Yes I know that she is a remark-	and bursting into her son's studio like an express messenger of life and death	hind and be plain Grace Teller for
1.1.5	ADAMS & L	AWLOR, MILL,	CHATHAM, N. B.	SCROFULA,	sounds exactly like the low soft ripple	news, 'who do you suppose your	awhile. And when I saw how op-
-	House has lately been refurnished, and very possible arrangement made to ensure	Attorneys at Near the Ferry Landing,	Always on hand a large and select assort-	Scrofulous Humor	of the little rivulet where I used to	paragon of a Miss Teller is?'	ment, a spark of woman's wilfuiness
4.1	the comfort of travellers. Law, Solicitors in I		ment of	VEGETINE will eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula and Scrofulous Humor.	play when I was a little boy.'	'The loveliest of her sex.' returned	rose up within me and I recolved I
	ET LIVERY STABLES, WITH GOOD Conveyancers, Notario	EVERI DESCRITTION OF	BROADCLOTHS, Doeskins,	It has normanantly and thousands in Das	'Nonsense,' said Mrs. Seymour	Frank, briefly and comprehensively.	would maintain my incognita, come what might. Mrs. Seymour,' she
	OUTFIT, ON THE PREMISES. Real Estate, & Fire Ins		Cassimeres, Beavers, Meltons, &c.	ton and vicinity who had been long and painful sufferers.	Well, then, if you are not satisfied	lady at the height of her lungs, 'a fac-	added turning archiv round and hold
	ALEX. STEWART, Dominion.	for House or Ship Work, manufactured	SCOTCH, ENGLISH, & CANADIAN TWEEDS.	Cancer, Cancerous Humor. The marvellous effect of VEGETINE in	with my description of her as she is.	tory girl!'	ing out her hand to the discomfited
	Late of Waverly House, St. John.) Proprietor. OFFICE			case of Cancer and Cancerous Humor chal-	would you like to know what she will	'Well, what of that?'	old lady, 'didn't I tell von that T
·	Newcastle, Dec. 2, 1873. 8 M. ADAMS. R	D BATHURST. Veneti n Blinds, Doors and Sashe R. A. LAWLOR. Pine and Walnut Mouldings.	S, Velvet and other Fancy Vestings.	lenges the most profound attention of the medical faculty, many of whom are prescrib-	Mrs. Seymour looked puzzled.	"What of that? Frank Seymour, you never mean to say that you would	owed my daily bread to the factory?"
	UNITED STATES HOTEL, July 18th, 1878.	Jig Sawing and Planing, a Specialt	y. Centlemens' APPAREL,	ing VEGETINE to their patients. Canker.		have anything to say to a common fac-	And poor Mrs. Seymour, for once
	NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI, SAMUEL THO	OMSON. Estimates and Specifications furnish	ed Made up promptly, and in the best and most Fashionable Styles.	VEGETINE has never failed to cure the	be my wife.'	tory girl!'
* .	NEW BRUNSWICK. Barrister and Atto	on application.	orders from a distance will receive	most inflexible case of Canker. Mercurial Diseases.	'Frank! Frank! are you crazy?'	'I should pronounce her a very un-	Mark Twain's Catistory.
			Especial Attention.	The VEGETINE meets with wonderful suc-	mour, composedly, squeezing a little	common factory girl,' said the young	A GOOD ONE NOT IN ANY OF HIS COLLEC-
	THIS HOTEL is very pleasantly situated, has recently been fitted up in FIRST Solicitos in Bal	IKAPICY,	LATEST FASHIONS	cess in the cure of this class of diseases. Salt Rheum.	deep blue on his pallet out of a deinty	'Frank, don't jest with me,' pleaded	TIONS.
	C. Railway Station, and the wants of travel- NOTARYPU.	JBLIC &C. To Mill Owners and Mechanic	S. ALWAYS ON HAND.	Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, &c., wil	tin tube, and mixing it thoughtfully.	the poor little mother with tears in	I knew by the sympathetic glow lers will be attended to promptly.	THOS. B. PEACE,	Remember the Stand.	certainly yield to the great alterative effects of VEGETINE.	no know so mule about ner,	her eyes. Tell me at once you will	upon his bald head-I knew by the Meals prepared at any hour. Oysters served up in evry style		Stone Building, adjoining Dr. Pallen's	Erysipelas.	she is visiting Mary Elton, and Mary	give up this fancy for a girl that is no	thoughtful look upon his face-I knew by the emotional flush upon the straw-	0
	at short notice. branches, executed with a			VEGETINE has never failed to cure the most inveterate case of Erysipelas.		'No-she is in no respect my equal,'	berry end of the old free liver's nose.	R. F.
1. 4	JOHN FAY, PROPRIETOR. patch.		June 95th 1979	Pimples and Humor on the Face.	does live in half a house and taken in	raturnad Frank with raddoning about	that Simon Wheeler's memory was
	Newcastle, Oct. 8, 1877. 10 OFFICE—PUBLIC BUI NEWCASTLE, MIRA	the county. His saws are now being wide		or pimpled skin depends entirely upon an	fine embroidering for a living. But	and sparkling eye, 'but it is because	busy with the olden time. And so I
	KIRK HOTEL. July 17, 1878.	English Steel, and are warranted to be equ	at VUDIUMI I AILUDINU,	internal cause, and no outward application can ever cure the defect. VEGETINE is the	with Cynthia Parker, and Cynthia al.	she is in every respect my superior. Grace Teller is one of the noblest	prepared to leave, for all these were symptoms of a reminiscence-signs	•
-	THE SUBSCRIBER has Rented the New WILLIAM A.	to the best English or American manufiture. A fair trial will prove the c rectno	188	Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores	ways did fancy our Frank. Then	women that ever breathed this ter-	that he was going to be delivered of .
	Building erected by Mr. M'Keen, near the Downiston & Attor	i incoc statements	THE Subscriber has opened a FIRST CLASS	Are caused by an impure state of the blood.	moreover, she has five or six thousand	restrial air, as well as one of the most	another of his tiresome personal ex-
	Post Office and Custom House, and having Newly Furnished the same	References By Permission:-	A TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT in the Shop formerly occupied by Mr. P. H. Ans-	, and these complaints will disappear.	dollars of her own. But dear me, a young man in love is the most head-	beautiful. Mother, I love her, and she	periences—but I was too slow; he got the start of me. As nearly as I can z
	throughout, is prepared to accommodate the SOLICII	TOR, HON. WM. MUIRHEAD, Chatham;	low, and owned by the Hon. William Muir- head, near Letson's Scales, Water Street.			Mrs. Seymour sat down, limp, life-
	TRAVELLING PUBLIC. NOTARY PU	TBLIC , Sc. J. B. SNOWBALL, ESQ., " D. & J. RITCHIE & CO., Newcastle;	Chatham.	benefit can be obtained through the blood.	Mrs. Seymour mused awhile longer	less and despairing.	in the following language:	-
	No pains will be spared to secure the com-	J. FLETT, Nelson; BAKER & CO., North Esk.	Gentlemen wanting clothes made to order for	VEGETINE is the great blood Purifier. Constipation.	and then put on her mouse-colored		"We were all boys, then, and didn't fort fo guests. COACH will connect with the trains.— OFFICE-Over the S Park, Esq.	Store of William SHOP-Water Street, Chatham, N. B.	SDDING IND STREET	VEGETINE does not act as a cathartic to debilitate the bowels, but cleanses all the		t to see my son marry a common factory	care for nothing, and didn't have any trouble, and didn't worry about noth-
	Good stabling accommodation. D. KIRK, Proprietor.	NEWCASTLE. September, 18 1876. 20	SPRING AND SUMMER	organs. enabling each to perform the func-		And then a torrent of tears came to	ing only to shirk school and keep up a
1	Newcastle, May 13, 1878. May 1, 1877. 2		will do well to examine his splendid assort-	tions devolving upon them. Piles.	Teller, or I'll know the reason why,	her relief, while Frank went on quiet-	revivin state of devilment all the time.
	L. J. TWE	EEDIE, HARNESS! HARNESS!	ment of	VEGETINE has restored thousands to health	thought the indefatigable widow.	ly fouching up the scarlet foliage of a	This yah Jim Wolf I was taikin' about
6. s	CHATHAM	BARRISTER THE subscriber having rented the sh and purchased the stock belonging		who have been long and painful sufferers. Dyspepsia.	Miss Grace Teller was 'at home, helping Mary Elton in an elaborate	' splendid old maple in the foreground	hearted feller, he was, and the most
· ····		the estate of the late Wm. Casey, is now r	re	If VEGETINE is taken regularly, recording to directions, a certain and speedy cure will	piece of fine embroidery. The room		forgivin' and onselfish I ever see-well
1	The source of the second s	orders for	to select from.	follow its use.	where the two girls sat was very plain	So you inlend to marry me. Frank	there could not be a more bullier boy
the F	CONSIDERABLE outlay has been made on this house to make it a first class Hotel, and tra-	PUBLIC, HARNESS & COLLARS	GENTLEMEN'S GARMENTS made [#] up	VECETIVE is not a atimulating hittan	carpeted with cheapest ingrain, and	in spite of everything?	than he was, take him how you would, and sorry enough was I when I see vellers will find it a desirable temporary re- sidence both as regards location and comfort.		Cutter.	which creates a fictitious appetite, but a gentle tonic, which assists nature to restore	cheery, for the fat black-bird was	Grace Teller had been crying—the dew yet on her eye-lashes, and the un-	him for the last time.
	It is situated within two minutes walk of CHATHAM,	N. B. Repairing Neatly Executed	. Cloth Purchased elsewhere will be	the stomach to a healthy action.	chirping noisily in the window, and	a natural crimson on her cheeks as	Me and Henry was always pester-	¥ steamboat landing. The proprietor returns thanks to the public for the encouragement	All orders shall have the very best att		Female Weakness. VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of	stand of mignonette and velvet-blos	- Frank Seymour came in and Mary	ing him, and plastering horsebills on
. 1	given him in the past, and will endeavor by	tion.			somed pansies gave a delightful tin	Elton considerately slipped out ite	his back, and putting bumble bees in his bed, and so on, and sometimes courtesy and attention to merit the same in	Newcastle, Jan. 21, 1878. vlv		uve organs and anays innammation.	to this pretty picture of every-day life Mary Elton was pale, thin, and no	 look for a missing pattern.' 'I should think so,' said Frank, 	we'd crowd in and bunk with him, the future. May 12, 1874.	13	Chatham, April 30, 1877. my2 ·	General Debility, In this comp laint the good effects of the	at all pretty; there was a tremulou	s looking admiringly down on the gold	notwithstanding his growling, and
14	May 18th. 1878. 14 19 WILLET & Q	QUICLEY, CRANE, WAITE & CO). Jas. R. Howie's	VEGETINE are realized immediately after commencing to take it; as debility denotes	sweetness about her mouth that seem	· head that was stooning among the	then we'd let on to get mad and fight
1	ROYAL HOTEL, Calinitana Damietas	ang Attannavo	CUSTOM TAILORING	deficiency of the blood, and VEGETINE acts directly upon the blood.	ed to whisper that she might have been different under different circumstan		across him, so as to keep him stirred up like. He was nineteen, he was,
	KING SOUARE. I DUILUIUS, DAITISIC	ers, Attorneys,	AND	VECETINE.	ces. Grace Teller was a lovely blonde	low you in social position?	and long, and lank, and bashful, and
	THAVE much pleasure in informing my NOTARIES PUBLIC, CONV	WEYANGERS, &C. OILS	CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT,	Prepared by	with large blue eyes, rose leaf skin	Social position be-ignored. What	we was fifteen and sixteen, and toler-	- numerous friends and the public gener- ally, that I have leased the Hotel formerly		MARBLE HALL	H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass	and hair whose luminous gold fel	do I care for social position, as long as	ably lazy and worthless. "So that night, you know that my
	the state of the s		the state of the s	Konotino in Fald L. All Th.		the set to the set has a set set of the set	NO UNAU HISHL, VUIL KHOW THAT DU known as the "CONTINE	ENTAL," and	ST. JOHN, N. B.	14 & 16 CENTBAL STREET, BOSTON, MASS.	MARBLE HAUL,	Vegetine is Sold by All Druggists.	over her forehead like an aureole.	my little Grace has consented 'o make	"So that night, you know, that my sister Mary gave a candy pullin,' they thoroughly renovated the sa as the "ROYAL" always had	d the reputation	A. SI. JUAN, N. D.	TT W TO UBAIMAN DIRERT, BUSION, MASS.	Queen Street, Fredericton, N. B.	Jan.1-1m	As Mrs. Seymour entered, a deeper shade of pink stole over Grace's beau-	the sunshine of my own home.'	started us to bed early, so as the com-

of being, one of the best Hot	tels in the Pro-	alter		SPRING STOCK OF		tiful face; and the fact was she wanted	'Yes, but Frank—' 'Well, but Grace?'	pany would have full swing, and we
Excellent Bill of Fare, Fir	rst-class Wines,	JOHN WILLET. RICH'D F. QUIGLEY, LL. B.	MACHINERY AND WOOL OILS,	NEW CLOTHS	Salactad Sitaratura	a chance to confide her griets to Mrs.	'Do you really love me?'	run in on Jim to have some fun.
dation.	erior accommo-	March 24, 1876. 2inc-29	mitolinghti and wool ollo,		BICICUCU BOILCI diuit.	Randall's sympathetic ear.	For answer, he took the fair delicate	"Our winder looked ont into the
BlackhalPs Livery Stable at	CARD BOOK STREET ALS		WEST VIRGINIA,	of the Latest Styles just to hand, to which inspection is respectfully invited.	Slipping Away.	'Crying? Yes, of course I have	little hands in his and looked steadily	roof of an ell, and about 10 o'clock a
	RAYMOND.	A. H. JOHNSON,	marrow	Fancy Worsted Coatings, Trouser-		been crying, Mrs. Randall; I've done	in her eyes.	couple of old tom cats got to roarin'
St. John, July 9, 1877.		BARRISTER AT LAW,	TALLOW,	ings, Tweeds all makes, &c.	They are slipping away-these swift, swift	nothing but cry for a week.'	'Frank,' said Grace demurely, 'I'm	and chargin' around it, and carryin'
VICTORIA H	OTET.	SOLICITOR, NOTARY PUBLIC,	CYLINDER,		Like a leaf on the current cast;	'Mercy on us,' said Mrs. Randall.	afraid you will make a dreadtully	on like sin. There was four inches of
RIVER DU LO		&C., &C.,		A GOOD FIT. GUARANTEED in every case.	With never a break in the rapid flow.	' very warm this morning,' said the	strong-willed, obstinate sort of a bus-	show on the roof, and it was frozen so
JOSEPH A. FOUNTAIN,		CHATHAM, N. B.	ENGINE & LARD OILS.	Orders from the country especially attend-	We watch them as one by one they go	old lady, fanning herself. 'Do they		that there was a right smart crust of
THIS HOUSE is situated in the in		July 10, 1877,	April 4, 1877 1yr	DTIDT SPADE APARTER	Into the beautiful past.	have as warm weather where you came from, Miss Teller?'		ice on it, and the moon was shining bright, and we could see them cats of the Railway Station, and i to meet the requirements of trav	is well calculated	A. D. SHIRREFF,	TOWADD D. DOWN	READY-MADE CLOTHING	As silent and swift as a weaver's thread,		And so the gold twilight faded into	like daylight. First they would stand pains or expense have been spar	red to secure the		EDWARD B. ROWE,	AND	Or an arrow's flying gleam;		a purple, softer than the shadow of	off and e-yow, yow, yow, just the comfort of guests. Situated on affords a splendid view of the S	St. Lawrence and	AUCTIONEER AND COMMISSION	BOSTON FORWARDING AGENT	Cents Furnishing Goods,	As soft as the languorous breezes hid, That lift the willow's long golden lid,			same as if they was cussin' one an-
Adjacent country. October 24, 1877. 31-197	1 Malela	a MERCHANT,	-FOR-	of all Descriptions on hand.	And ripple the glassy stream.	'Factoryville? Is that your native	out, one by one, and still Mary Elton didn't succeed in finding the pattern.	other, you know, and bow up their
			FITT MON Fresh Bish WIDEDM	Inspection respectfully invited.	As light as the breath of thistle down :	place? Perhaps then you know Mr.	* * * * * * * *	backs and push up their tails, and
TRUNK FAC	CTORY'	Life, Fire & Marine Insurance	FULTON Fresh Fish MARKET,		As fond as a lover's dream;	Parker-Cynthia Parker's father, who	Mrs. Seymour was the first guest to	swell around and spit, and then all of
ESTABLISHED 1	1862.		-AND-	JAMES R. HOWIE. Fredericton.y May 2, 1877.	As pure as the flush in the sea-shell's throat.			a sudden the gray cat he'd snatch a
	10 10 10 10 10	AND	COMMISSION FISH DEALER.		As sweet as the wood-birds wooing note,	mills there?'		handful of fur out of the yeller cat's
	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	GENERAL AGENT.		CUSTOM TAILORING.	So tender and sweet they seem.		July-elevating her kid-gloved hands.
MR. W. H.K.		and the second	47 Central Wharf,		One after another we see them pass			ton on a barn door. But the yeller
HAS much pleasure in an many friends and cus	anouncing to his	Chatham, N. B.	BOSTON, U.S.	T. M. STEWART,	Down the dim-lighted stairs;	'No-I believe Miss Parker spends		cat was game, and he'd come and has resumed business at No.	203, over A. J.	August 29, 1876. 30-1y	Consignments of Salmon	(OF SCOTLAND,)	In the steps of the centuries long-since dead,	most of her time in this city.'		clinch, and the way they'd ronge and Lordly's Furniture Empori will be pleased to attend to	ium, where he	HERBERT T. DAWSON, M. D.,	a first the second s		As beautiful and as fair.			bite and yowl, and the way they'd trusted to his care with neath	ness & despatch		carefully re-iced and placed in best hands at very low charges.	late Cutter for W. S. Morris, Esq , wishes to announce to the people of Newcastle and	Those are only a few merels at a		entrapped, inveigled into the most
Repairs Promptly att	tended to.	PHYSICIAN & SURGEON,	All packages must be plainly marked care	surrounding Districts, that he has commenc-	There are only a few years left to love, Shall we waste them in idle strife?	society worth having in Factoryville		the row and vowed he'd climb out
St. John, Aug. 14, 1878.	16	NEWCASTLE, N. B.	"E. B. ROWE, BOSTON."	ed business over James W. Davidson's store, where with all the modern ideas in cutting.	Shall we trample under our ruthloss foot		particular of created beings, could be
			Stencils furnished if desired.	and the latest New York Fashions, he is pre- pared to make up Clothes equal to any made	These beautiful blossoms, rare and sweet.	excuse my curiosity, Miss Teller-how	resolutely determined on marrying	He hadn't reely no notion of doin' it
MIRAMICHI MARBL	F WORKS	OFFICE-In Mr. John Dalton's House:	Lowest shipping rates obtained and information furnished upon application.	abroad.	By the dusty way of life.	d.d you become acquainted with Mr.	a factory girl?'	likely, but we everlastin'ly dogged
WATER ST., - CH		DESIDENCE	May 6, 1878.	A PERFECT FIT GUARANTEED.	There are only a few swift years-ah! let	Parker and not with his daughter?'		him, and bullyragged him and 'lowed
	0	RESIDENCE.		Newcastle, 22nd April, 1878.	No envious taunts be heard;	Grace colored.	of horrified surprise, and at the same
WILLIAM LA		At Mr. Wm. Gremley's, opposite Office.	FISHERIES FOR 1879	D. E. DUNHAM.	Make life's fair pattern of rare design, And fill up the measure with love's sweet	' Business brought me in contact fre-		take a dare, and so on, and lol and
Importer of MARBLE & M	Manufacturer o.	Newcastle, March 26, 1877. 28			wine,	quently with the gentleman of whom	nounced, among whom was Miss Grace	behold you, he went-went exactly
MONUMENTS, TABLES,		DENTIOTOV	TITE are prepared to small at she	ARCHITECT,	But never an angry word!	you speak. But I never happened to	Teller, looking rather more lovely than	as he was-nothin' on but a shirt, and
HEADSTONES, MANTEL	1	DENTISTRY.	W notice, at	OFFICE-MARSHALL'S BUILDING,		meet his daughter.'	usual.	that was short. But you ought to see
	The second se			CORNER OF MARKET SQUARE AND PRINCE WILLIAM ST.,	THE FLOTODY CIDI	Mrs. Seymour gave a little start in	(Wall ! thought Mus Soumour as	him! You ought to see him creepin'
TAB	BLE TUPS, &C.		BEAT HADNET BATTA	OT IOUN N D	THE FACTORY GIRL.
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY	BLE TOPS, &c. S ON HAND.	Dr. Freeman.	BEST MARKET RATES,	ST. JOHN, N. B.		her chair-she was beginning to see	her hostess hurried away to welcome	over that ice, and diggin' his toe nails
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY	S ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup.	Dr. Freeman,	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	REFERENCES:-	It was a little studio, quite at the	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery.	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never	over that ice, and diggin' his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip-
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES	S ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- STONE WORK in	Dr. Freeman, will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per-	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the	REFERENCES:- D. J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. * Perhaps you have something to do	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's	over that ice, and diggin' his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have A GOOD STOCK ALWAY	S ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- STONE WORK in	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit.	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery.	REFERENCES:- D. J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str.,	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid-	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. 'Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.'	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac-	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREEs all its branches attended to.	S ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- STONE WORK in	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements. Dr. F. guerantees	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str.,	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory. ² ⁴ I have. ² said Grace, with a calm	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge.	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY T GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to. s given. January 24 1876.	YS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows sup- stone Work in and satisfaction	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M.LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JAS. A. TUFTS, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. TRAYIS.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. 'Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' 'I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity.	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia-	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight!
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREEs all its branches attended to. a given.	YS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows sup- stone Work in and satisfaction	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, J. L. PALMER, JAS. A. TUFTS, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. TRAVIS, DR. MACLAREN, HENRY VAUGHAN, G. R. PUGGLEY. DP. HAULTON	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory. ² ⁴ I have, ² said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll ² gasped Mrs. Sev-	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia- dear me, what a curious mixture our	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY T GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to. s given. January 24 1876.	YS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows sup- stone Work in and satisfaction	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH ,	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, J. L. PALMER, JAS. A. TUFTS, JORN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, DR. HAMILTON, ETC., ETC., ETC.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory. ² ⁴ I have, ² said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl! ² gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white.	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.'	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY T GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to. s given. January 24 1876.	YS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows sup- stone Work in and satisfaction	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); tor the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, J. L. PALMER, JAS. A. TUFTS, JORN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, HENRY VAUGHAN, G. R. PUGSLEY, DR. HAMILTON.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration.	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory. ² ⁴ I have, ² said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl! ² gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title? ² quietly asked Grace, although her	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY T GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. Frames all its branches attended to. s given. January 24 1876. Itamps, Oil	YS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows sup- stone Work in and satisfaction	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH , Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid.	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, J. L. PALMER, JORN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TUETS, May 6, 1878. PROTECTION SECURED	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory. ² ⁴ I have, ² said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll ² gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title? ² quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson.	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting.« Mr.	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY T GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. Fræsse all its branches attended to. 1 given. January 24 1876. Itamps, Oil CHANDELIERS, BRACKET,	YS ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- stork Work in and satisfaction	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Maving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH , Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid.	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, J. L. PAMER, JORN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878. BY WEARING	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female,	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory. ² ⁴ I have, ² said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title? ² quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not;	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish-	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY T GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. Fræzes all its branches attended to. 1 given. January 24 1876. Itamps, Oil CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H	YS ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- strong WORK in and satisfaction	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR./ MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TUETS, May 6, 1878 PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in exping one's living in	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- cd as she had expected, but somehow	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to.s given, January 24 1876. Itamps, Oil CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys, Wick	 IS, &C., 	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH , Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376, 19tf.	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); tor the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, J. L. PALMER, JORN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878. BROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer'S Larakins & Moccasins.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering trom it,	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in examing one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs.	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish-	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery' shed ot old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY T GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. Fræzes all its branches attended to. 1 given. January 24 1876. Itamps, Oil CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H	 IS, &C., 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various branches, as his other engagements will persuit. The wing procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insert on of ARTICIAL TEETH. Being a resident in the County his parameter made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries.	REFERENCES:- D. J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PAMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering trom it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs.	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme.	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery' shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to. 1 given, January 24, 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys, Wick AMERICAN & CANAD	VS ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- strong WORK in and satisfaction IS, &C. HAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS;	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Maving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All kinds of Books.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JORN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering trom it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind,	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting.ª Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why,	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery' shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well.
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. I AMPRS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RE	AND LAMPS, ks, &c., DIAN OILS, ETAIL.	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Maving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Room Paper and Paper Blinds.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, J. L. PALMER, JORN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878. BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fail and Whiter Trade. These articles are well and favorably	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering trom it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting.« Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed ot old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given, January 24 1876. I EMMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAD WHOLESALE & EN J. R. CA	 IS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows sup- strong Work in and satisfaction IS, &C. IAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS: ETAIL. AMERON, 	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- nit. Taking procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH , Bither on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE , Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware, Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c.	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Room Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books.	REFERENCES:- D. J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PAMER, JOAN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878. BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering trom it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get-	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting.« Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel-	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed ot old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin ² lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin'
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given, January 24 1876. I EMMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAD WHOLESALE & EN J. R. CA	 IS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows sup- strong Work in and satisfaction IS, &C. IAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, 	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Maving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— All kinds of Books. HALL Sells— Room Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Printing Paper.	REFERENCES:- D. J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PAMER, JOAN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878. BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering trom it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.'	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him.	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Wby, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise.	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for phied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given. January 24 1876. I FAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys, Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RE J. R. CA	 IS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows sup- strong Work in and satisfaction IS, &C. IAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS: ETAIL. AMERON, 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Room Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Foolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Ledgers, Journals and Day Books.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. Tugrs, May 6, 1878. BY WEARING PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ager's Larakins & Moccasins. We have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Whiter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft fints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.'	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sueakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to.s given, January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys, Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878	 IS ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- strong work in and satisfaction IS, &C. HAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— All kinds of Books. HALL Sells— Room Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Proviscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Ledgers, Journals and Day Books.	REFERENCES: D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., Sumo Jones, G. V. NOWLIN, Slass A. TUFTS, John V. ELLIS, DR. MACLAREN, Dr. MACLAREN, Slass A. TUFTS, May 6, 1878 Shon Jones, May 6, 1878 Slass A. TUFTS, DR. MACLAREN, DR. TRAVIS, BY WEARING Slass Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins, Substantiant of the set protection for the ext, of anything in the market. My have in Stock are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ext, of anything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. JAMES R. AYER.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver-gray poplin dress-Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sueakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for phied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given. January 24 1876. I FAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys, Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RE J. R. CA	 IS ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- strong work in and satisfaction IS, &C. HAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. 	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Inaving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH , Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376, 19tf. S. F. SHUTE , Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Warej Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to res- ponsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Swwng Ma-	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Room Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Foolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Ecdgers, Journals and Day Books. HALL Sells- Sheet Music and Music Books.	REFERENCES: D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., Sumo Jones, G. V. NOWLIN, Slass A. TUFTS, John V. ELLIS, DR. MACLAREN, Dr. MACLAREN, Slass A. TUFTS, May 6, 1878 Shon Jones, May 6, 1878 Slass A. TUFTS, DR. MACLAREN, DR. TRAVIS, BY WEARING Slass Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins, Substantiant of the set protection for the ext, of anything in the market. My have in Stock are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ext, of anything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. JAMES R. AYER.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.'	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Wby, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to.s given, January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys, Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878	 IS ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- strong work in and satisfaction IS, &C. HAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Having procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Stwing Macores Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTACLES. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Room Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Foolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Ledgers, Journals and Day Books. HALL Sells- Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells- Pencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Pencils, Pens and Ink.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 STORMACLAREN, BY WEARING PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering trom it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset- light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown.	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto-	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sueakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to.s given, January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys, Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878	 IS ON HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- strong work in and satisfaction IS, &C. HAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Maving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Warej Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" SEWING MACHINE, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTRALES. Temember the Place. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells- Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells- Pencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Pencils, Pens and Ink.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 STORECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. May 6, Bare at an and stores, DAMED R. ANDER, Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. May 6, Bare at an and Store	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering trom it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes its	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them 'cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat.
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAD WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL	 Is, &c., Is, &c., Iand LAMPS, ks, &c., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various branches, as his other engagements will persite. Taring procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH. Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Warej Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" SEWING MACHINE, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PREFECTED SPECTACLES. Temember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— All kinds of Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Books. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Pencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells— Writing Desks, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 STORECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Wibter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, Prunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement ' to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.'	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- cd as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico facto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.'	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them 'cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and 'yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin'right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip-
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to.s given, January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys, Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878	 Is, &c., Is, &c., Iand LAMPS, ks, &c., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Maving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Warej Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" SEWING MACHINE, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTRALES. Temember the Place. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells- Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells- Pencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Pencils, Pens and Ink.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TUGTS, May 6, 1878 Substrate Statement May 6, 1878 Substrate Statement PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fail and Wibter Trade. We have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fail and Wibter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, Pranes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hans, Corned Beef,	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft fints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that fint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.'	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the old lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey-	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sueakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given. January 24 1876. I LAMPS, OIL CHANDELIERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL	 Is, &c., Is, &c., Iand LAMPS, ks, &c., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware; Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" SEWING MACHINE, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PHERFECTED SPECTACLES. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Dec. 22nd, 1873. 241y. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— All Kindsy of Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— Boom Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Pencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells— Writing Desks, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c. FREDERICTON, N. B. oct3	REFERENCES: D. J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, SIMON JONES, JOHN V. ELLIS, JAS. A. TUFTS, Dr. MACLAREN, JAS. A. TUFTS, May 6, 1878 JAS. A. TUFTS, May 6, 1878 SHON VAUGHAN, DR. MACLAREN, BRINGY VAUGHAN, DR. MACLAREN, BRINGY VAUGHAN, DR. TRAVIS, BURANY VAUGHAN, DR. TRAVIS, Shon Sones, May 6, 1878 SHON VAUGHAN, DR TRACLAREN, Saly PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING My Cor'S LARAKINS & MOCCASINS. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fail and Wibter Trade. These articles are well and favorably Known to afford the best protection for the ect, of anything in the market. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. ff13 LEMONS, LEMONS, ORANCES, Prunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, & c.; Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beet, Ducks, Turke	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair.	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surbrised to	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery' shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to codl. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAD WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL	 Is, &c., Is, &c., Iand LAMPS, ks, &c., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various branches, as his other engagements will persite. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of " ARTIFICAL TEETH, Bither on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every curantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 19tf. S. F. S. HUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Water Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" SEWING MACHINE, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTACLES. T. Remember the Place. S. F. SHUUE, Gueen St., Fredericton. Det. 22nd, 1873. 2417. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— All kinds of Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Books. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Pencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells— Writing Desks, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 STORECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Wibter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. If-13 LEMONS, Pranes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hans, Corned Beef, DHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per Ib., at	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very pretty; bn it strikes	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton,	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a step or two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear mel' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery' shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to codd. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them 'cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels flew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin'
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11. St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand.	AND LAMPS, AS, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. CLOTHS.	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware; Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" SEWING MACHINE, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PHERFECTED SPECTACLES. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Dec. 22nd, 1873. 241y. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— All Kindsy of Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— Boom Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Pencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells— Writing Desks, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c. FREDERICTON, N. B. oct3	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON JONES, JAS. A. TUFTS, DR. MACLAREN, BY WEARING PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Wibter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of anything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, Prunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (nome made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beef, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per Ib., at Dec. 17, 1878. MENTIONES, MARCES, H. WYSE'S.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair.	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—'	her hostess hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes its name.' 'Dear mel' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery' shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to codd. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them 'cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANITE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given. January 24 1876. I LAMPS, OIL CHANDELIERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL	AND LAMPS, AS, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. CLOTHS.	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376, 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware; Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" SEWING MACHINE, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PHERECTED SPECTACLES. T Remember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Dec. 22nd, 1873. AHOP and OFFICE BOY—one willing 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Corriage and Music Books. HALL Sells- Writing Desks, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c. FREDERICTON, N. B. oct3	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 STORECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Wibter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. If-13 LEMONS, Pranes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hans, Corned Beef, DHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per Ib., at	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; bnt it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering a good many similitudes between Miss	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery' shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them 'cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels flew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given. January 24 1876. I LAMPES, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. O. SKI	AND LAMPS, AS, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. CLOTHS.	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various branches, as his other engagements will persite. Taring procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of a constraint of the second strength of the s	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Brawing Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Brawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Brawing Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Brooksap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Brooksap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Brendis, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Bencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Brendis, Pens Alberther	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS OF COMMERCIAL Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS, DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON JONES, JAS. A. TUFTS, DR. TRAVIS, HENRY VAUGHAN, DR. HAMILTON, ETC., ETC., ETC. BY WEARING Ayer'S LARAKINS & MOCCASINS. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. Must have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of anything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, Drunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beet, DLCKS, TURKOS, CEESE, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per 10., at Dec. 17, 1878. -AT-	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the subset light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very preity; bnt it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering: a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.'	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek.	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them 'cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny peoplet sot down like a vearthouake in them
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given. January 24 1876. I LAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. 0. SKIL 68 KING	AND LAMPS. AND LAMPS. AND LAMPS. AS, &C., DIAN OILS. ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. LCLOTHS. DOVE always OVE ALWAYS	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various branches, as his other engagements will persite. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of a constraint of the second straint of the second strai	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells— All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells— All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells— Boom Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Booksap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Booksap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Booksap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Poolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Desks, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c. FREDERICTON, N. B. oct3 Carriage Repairing.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. Tugrs, May 6, 1878 SIMON SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of anything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. If-13 LEMONS, ORANCES, Pranes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c.: Vinegar, (nome made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beef, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per ID., at De. 17, 1878. H. WYSE'S.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering: a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frank laughed good humoredly.	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ My dearest friend—my most_pre-	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?'	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed ot old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them 'cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people! sot down like a yearthquake in them two dczen sassers of red hot condy
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OII CHANDELIERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11. 8t. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. O. SKII 68 KING May 6, 1878. St. John Stock of the spinore St. State Stat	 IS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows supproxe WORK in and satisfaction IS, &C. IAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. ICLOTHS. Dove always DOVE always INNER, G STREET, t. John, N, B. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Maving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electron Plated Ware Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Stwing Macchine. and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTACLES. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUUE, Queen St., Fredericton. Det. 22nd, 1873. ABOP and OFFFICE BOY-one willing to make himself generally useful. Apply to DR. FREEMAN. Newcastle, Sept. 11, '77. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Boom Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Books paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Books and Music Books. HALL Sells- Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells- Books, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c. FREDERICTON, N. B. Oct3 Carriage Repairing.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS OF COMMERCIAL BLOCK, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of anything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. If-13 LEMONS, ORANCES, Pranes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (nome made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beet, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per 1D., at Dec. 17, 1878. H. WYSE'S. Choice Confectionery, consisting	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that fint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frank laughed good humoredly. 'Well, mother, she is pretty.'	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ My dearest friend—my most pre- cious companion,' she murmured, ' I	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?'	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny peoplel sot down like a yearthquake in them two dczen sassers of red-hot candy, and let off a howl that was hark f'm
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to . s given. January 24 1876. I LAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAL WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. 0. SKIL 68 KING	 IS ON HAND. IENTS made to r windows supproxe WORK in and satisfaction IS, &C. IAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. ICLOTHS. Dove always DOVE always INNER, G STREET, t. John, N, B. 	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will perint. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 1907. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware, Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Stwing Macoustics, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PREFECTED SPECTACLES. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Dec. 22nd, 1873. 241y. WACNTED. A SHOP and OFFICE BOY-one willing to make himself generally useful. Apply to DR. FREEMAN. Newcastle, Sept. 11, '77. NOOT BURNED OUTT. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells- Boom Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Boom Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Booksap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Booksap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Booksap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Booksap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Booksap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Booksap Baper and Ink: HALL Sells- Breet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells- Brencis, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Brencis, Copera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c. FREDERICTON, N. B. Oct8 Carriage Repairing. The Subscriber has erected a shop on the property lately owned by Dr. J. S. Benson, and is prepared to attend to the Making and Repairing of CARRIAGES, HEAVY FARM	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS OF COMMERCIAL Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, ORANCES, Pranes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Ruspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beet, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per lb., at Dec. 17, 1878 H. J. REEVES'. Choice Confectionery, consisting of Clear Candy & Sugar Toys.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering: a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frank laughed good humoredly.	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ My dearest friend—my most pre- cious companion,' she murmured, ' I	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville? 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?' 'The blue eyes filled with tears as she clung closer to his arm.	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you knew, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people I sot down like a yearthquake in them two dozen sassers of red-hot candy, and let off a howl that was hark f'm the tomb! Them gals—well they
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELIERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAD WHOLESALE & EN J. R. CA 11. 8t. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. 0, SKII 68 KING May 6, 1878. FOR SAL	AND LAMPS, AS, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. LCLOTHS. DOVE always CNNER, STREET, 1 John, N, B. LE.	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Stwing Maconine, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTACLES. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Det. 22nd, 1873. 2447. IVAAYTED. A SHOP and OFFICE BOY-one willing to make himself generally useful. Apply to DR. FREEMAN. Newcastle, Sept. 11, '77. NOT BURNED OUT-Leather and Shoe Finding. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All Kells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books and Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Bencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Bencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Bencils, Control Score, Score FREDERICTON, N. B. Oct3 Carriage Repairing. The Subscriber has erected a shop on the property lately owned by Dr. J. S. Benson, and is prepared to attend to the Making and Repairing of CARRIAGES, HEAVY FARM AND LUMBER WAGGONS, &C.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS, DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON JONES, JAS. A. TUFTS, DR. MACLAREN, DR. MACLAREN, BY WEARING Ayer'S LARAKINS & MOCCASINS, WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of anything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, Drunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beet, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per 10., at Dec. 17, 1878. H. WYSE'S. Choice Confectionery, consisting of Clear Candy & Sugar Toys, Rings, Walking Sticks, Cream Candy, (all kinds); Almond Candy, Hazel do., Sugared Almonde.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering: a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frank laughed good humoredly. 'Well, mother, she is pretty.' 'Yes, I don't deny that she's pretty	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, T'm sure,' said the old lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a, little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ Ms' dearest friend—my most_pre- cious companion,' she murmured, 'I should be quite lost without her, Mrs. Seymour.'	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, ' will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville? 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean? 'The blue eyes filled with tears as she clung closer to his arm. 'I can't help owning the calico fac-	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to codl. And they was laughin' and talkin ³ lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you knew, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people! sot down like a yearthquake in them two dczen sassers of red-hot candy, and let off a how! that was hark f'm the tomb! Them gals—well, they looked, you know. They see he
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELIERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAD WHOLESALE & EN J. R. CA 11. 8t. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. 0, SKII 68 KING May 6, 1878. FOR SAL	AND LAMPS, AS, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. LCLOTHS. DOVE always CNNER, STREET, 1 John, N, B. LE.	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Stwing Maconine, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTACLES. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Det. 22nd, 1873. 2447. IVAAYTED. A SHOP and OFFICE BOY-one willing to make himself generally useful. Apply to DR. FREEMAN. Newcastle, Sept. 11, '77. NOT BURNED OUT-Leather and Shoe Finding. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All Kells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books and Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Bencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Bencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Bencils, Control Score, Score FREDERICTON, N. B. Oct3 Carriage Repairing. The Subscriber has erected a shop on the property lately owned by Dr. J. S. Benson, and is prepared to attend to the Making and Repairing of CARRIAGES, HEAVY FARM AND LUMBER WAGGONS, &C.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SHON SECURED BY WEARING Ayer'S Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, maufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. MUR have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, maufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of an ything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, Dranes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beef, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per Ib., at Dec. 17, 1878. H. WYBE'S. HOLIDAY CONFECTIONERY -AT- H. J. REEVES'. Choice Confectionery, consisting of Clear Candy & Sugar Toys, Rings, Walking Sticks, Cream Candy, (all kinds); Almonds, Sugared Janonds, Stick Jane, Screed Stick, Drocolate Drops, Conversation Lozenges, Stick	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft fints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that fint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frack laughed good humoredly. 'Well, mother, she is pretty.' 'Yes, I don't deny that she's pretty enongh.' 'Now, mother, what's the meaning of that ambiguous tone ?' demanded the	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the old lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a, little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ Ms dearest friend—my most pre- cious companion,' she murmured, 'I should be quite lost without her, Mrs. Seymour.' The old lady took her leave stifly, and did not ask Grace to return her	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, 'will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a step or two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville?' 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Randall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico facto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factory ville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?' 'The blue eyes filled with tears as she clung closer to his arm. 'I can't help owning the calico fac- tories, Frank. Don't you loye me	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to codl. And they was laughin' and talkin ² lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you knew, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people I sot down like a yearthquake in them two dczen sassers of red-hot candy, and let off a how! that was hark f'm the tomb! Them gals—well, they looked, you know. They see he wasn't dressed for company, and so
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. I CHANDELLE'RS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAN WHOLESALE & RM J. R. CA 11 St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. 0, SKI 68 KING May 6, 1878. St. John SL 1 of best pattern and material	AND LAMPS. LS, &C. LAND LAMPS. KS, &C., DIAN OILS. ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. LCLOTHS. DOVE always NNER, G STREET, t. John, N. B. LE. E I G H, , and handsome	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Maving procured every appliance and the marches all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1376. 1917. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro o Plated Ware; Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Stwing Maconics. Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTACLES. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Dec. 22nd, 1873. 2419. IVAAVTED. A SHOP and OFFICE BOY—one willing to make himself generally useful. Apply to DR. FREEMAN. Newcastle, Sept. 11, '77. NOCT BURNNED OUTC. Leather and Shoe Finding. The subscriber, thankful for past favors, begs leave to say to his customers and interest. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- All Kells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books and Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books of Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Books. HALL Sells- Bencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Bencils, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Bencils, Control Score, Score FREDERICTON, N. B. Oct3 Carriage Repairing. The Subscriber has erected a shop on the property lately owned by Dr. J. S. Benson, and is prepared to attend to the Making and Repairing of CARRIAGES, HEAVY FARM AND LUMBER WAGGONS, &C.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON SECURED BY WEARING Ayer's Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. These articles are well and favorably known to afford the best protection for the ect, of anything in the market. All Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. ff-13 LEMONS, ORANCES, Pranes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Ruspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (nome made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beet, Ducks, Turkoys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per ID., at De. 17, 1878. H. WYSE'S. HOLIDAY CONFECTIONERY -AT- H. J. REEVES'. Choice Confectionery, consisting of Clear Candy & Sugar Toys, Rings, Walking Sticks, Gream Candy, (all kinds); Aimond Candy, Hazel do., Sugar Almonds, Sechen Mixtures, Gum Drops, Chocolate Drops, Conversation Lozenges, Stick Candy and Assorted Drops.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset: light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very preity; bnt it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frank laughed good humoredly. 'Well, mother, she is pretty.' 'Yes, I don't deny that she's pretty enough.' 'Now, mother, what's the meaning of that ambiguous tone ?' demanded the young artist. bleasantly. 'What have	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁵ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁵ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁶ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁶ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁶ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a, little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁶ Ms dearest friend—my most pre- cious companion,' she murmured, 'I should be quite lost without her, Mrs. Seymour.' The old lady took her leave stiffly, and did not ask Grace to return her call, although she extended an in-	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, ' will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- od as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville? 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factory ville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?' 'The blue eyes filled with tears as she clung closer to his arm. 'I can't help owning the calico fac- tories, Frank. Don't you loye me just as well as though I didn't?'	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people! sot down like a yearthquake in them two dozen sassers of red hot candy, and let off a howl that was hark f'm the tomb! Them gals—well, they looked, you know. They see he wasn't dressed for company, and so they left. All done in a second it
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. I CHANDELIERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAN WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11. St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. 0. SKI 68 KING May 6, 1878. STOR SAI N E W SLI	AND LAMPS, is on HAND. ENTS made to r windows sup- strong Work in and satisfaction Is, &c., LAND LAMPS, ks, &c., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. LCLOTHS. ovve always OVVe always UNNER, S STREET, t. John, N, B. LE. E I G H, ured.	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will permit. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 19tf. S. F. SHUTE, Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware Clocks, Fancy Goods, &c. Orders Solicited, and goods sent to responsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Stwing Maconine, and "Lazarus & Morris & Co's PERFECTED SPECTACLES. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Det. 22nd, 1873. 2447. IVAAYTED. A SHOP and OFFICE BOY-one willing to make himself generally useful. Apply to DR. FREEMAN. Newcastle, Sept. 11, '77. NOT BURNED OUT-Leather and Shoe Finding. 	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE.CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells— All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells— All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Pondscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Boots and Music Books. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Pencils, Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Beactis, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Desks, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c. FREDERICTON, N. B. oct3 CARRIAGES, HEAVY FARM AND LUMBER WAGGONS, &C. Prompt attention given to all orders. Good Work guaranteed.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON JONES, JAS. A. TUFTS, DR. MACLAREN, DR. MACLAREN, May 6, 1878 PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer'S Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. MUE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. MI Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, Drunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Ruspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beef, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per ID., at Bec. 17, 1878. H. WYBE'S. HOLIDAY CONFECTIONERY -AT- H. J. REEVES'. Choice Confectionery, consisting of Clear Candy & Sugar Toys, Rings, Walking Sticks, Cream Candy, (all kinds); Almond Candy, Hazel do., Sugared Almonds, Sotch Mixtures, Gun Drops, Chocolate Drops, Conversation Lozenges, Stick Candy and Assorted Drops. Also, Pastry, Sugar and Gingér Cakes, Sponge Cake, Sotch Cake.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset; light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frank laughed good humoredly. 'Well, mother, she is pretty.' 'Yes, I don't deny that she's pretty enough.' 'Now, mother, what's the meaning of that ambiguous tone ?' demanded the young artist, pleasantly. 'What have you discovered about Miss Grace Tell-	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the old lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a, little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ Mr dearest friend—my most pre- cious companion,' she murmured, 'I should be quite lost without her, Mrs. Seymour.' The old lady took her leave stiffly, and did not ask Grace to return her call, although she extended an in- vitution to Mary, couched in the	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, ' will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting. Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factory ville? 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?' 'The blue eyes filled with tears as she clung closer to his arm. 'I can't help owning the calico fac- tories, Frank. Don't you loye me just as well as though I didn't?' 'My little deceiver. But why didn't	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sueakin' up unbenown to them cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people! sot down like a yearthquake in them two dozen sassers of red hot candy, and let off a howl that was hark f'm the tomb! Them gals—well, they looked, you know. They see he wasn't dressed for company, and so they left. All done in a second, it was just one little war whoon and a
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for jlied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAN WHOLESALE & EN J. R. CA 11 8t. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A full Stock of the ab May 6, 1878. May 6, 1878. NEW SIL	AND LAMPS, IS, &C., LAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. LCLOTHS. DOVE always INNER, STREET, t. John, N. B. LE. E I G H, I, and handsomguet. S. FREEMAN.	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various branches, as his other engagements will period. Taving procured every appliance and the distribution of the insertion of a construction of a constructin of a construction of a constructin of a constructin o	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Room Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Ink. HALL Sells- Brendis, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Brenzis, Pens And Ink. HALL Sells- Bren	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS OF COMMERCIAL BLOCK, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS, DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON JONES, A. L. PALMER, JAS. A. TUFTS, DR. MACLAREN, B. MENRY VAUGHAN, DR. HAMILTON, ETC., ETC., ETC. May 6, 1878 Suprement of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. Mre have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. MI Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. 16-13 LEMONS, Drunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beet, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per 10., at Dec. 17, 1878. H. WYSE'S. HOLIDAY CONFECTIONERY A. J. REEVES'. Choice Confectionery, consisting of Clear Candy & Sugar Toys, Rings, Walking Sticks, Cream Candy, (all kinds); Almos, Candy Alazel do., Sugared Almonds, Socteh Mixtures, Gam Drops, Chocolate Drops, Conversation Lozenges, Stick Candy and Assorted Drops. Also, Pastry, Sugar and Ginger Cakes, Sponge Cake, Ac.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset; light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frack laughed good humoredly. 'Well, mother, she is pretty.' 'Yes, I don't deny that she's pretty enough.' 'Now, mother, what's the meaning of that ambiguous tone ?' demanded the young artist, pleasantly. 'What have you discovered about Miss Grace Tel- ler that isn't charming and womanly	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ My dearest friend—my most_pre- cious companion,' she murmured, 'I should The quite lost without her, Mrs. Seymour.' The old lady took her leave stiffly, and did not ask Grace to return her call, although she extended an in- vitution to Mary, couched in the politest and distant terms.	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, ' will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville? 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?' 'The blue eyes filled with tears as she clung closer to his arm. 'I can't help owning the calico fac- tories, Frank. Don't you loye me just as well as though I didn't?' 'My little deceiver. But why didn't you tell me?'	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to codl. And they was laughin' and talkin ³ lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people! sot down like a yearthquake in them two dczen sassers of red-hot candy, and let off a howl that was hark f'm the tomb! Them gals—well, they looked, you know. They see he wasn't dressed for company, and so they left. All done in a second, it was just one little war whoop and a whish of their dresses, and blame the
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for plied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. I CHANDELIERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAN WHOLESALE & RH J. R. CA 11. St. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A. 0. SKI 68 KING May 6, 1878. STOR SAI N E W SLI	AND LAMPS, AS, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. CILOTHS. DOVE always CNNER, STREET, 1 John, N, B. LE. E I G H, , and handsomg B. FREEMAN.	will attend to DENTISTRY in its various Branches, as his other engagements will per- mit. Taving procured every appliance and the most recent improvements, Dr. F. guarantees all operations and gives special attention to the insertion of ARTIFICIAL TEETH , Either on Rubber or a new and improved Base called Celluloid. The Being a resident in the County his patrons will find no difficulty in having every guarantee made good. Newcastle, April 18, 1876. 1907. S. F. SHUTE , Direct Importer of Fine Watches, Rich Jewelry, Electro Plated Ware; Olocks, Fancy Goods, &c. To Orders Solicited, and goods sent to res- ponsible parties on approval. WATCH REPAIRING, in all its branches promptly attended to. AGENT for the "Florence" Sewing Ma- corders, Streates. Themember the Place. S. F. SHUTE, Queen St., Fredericton. Dec. 22nd, 1873. YEAVTED. A SHOP and OFFICE BOY-one willing to make himself generally useful. Apply to DR. FREEMAN. Newcastle, Sept. 11, '77. NOCT BURNIED OUTC. Leather and Shoe Finding. THE subscriber , thankful for past favors, and the still able to supply at asual prices, any who may favor him with their patronage.	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE.CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells— College and School Books. HALL Sells— All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells— All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells— All Kinds of Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells— Drawing Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Pondscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Boots and Music Books. HALL Sells— Foolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Pencils, Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Beactis, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells— Sheet Music and Music Books. HALL Sells— Drawing Desks, Opera Glasses, Port folios, &c., &c. FREDERICTON, N. B. oct3 CARRIAGES, HEAVY FARM AND LUMBER WAGGONS, &C. Prompt attention given to all orders. Good Work guaranteed.	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, Owners of Commercial Block, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS. DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON JONES, JAS. A. TUFTS, DR. MACLAREN, DR. MACLAREN, May 6, 1878 PROTECTION SECURED BY WEARING Ayer'S Larakins & Moccasins. WE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. MUE have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. MI Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. tf-13 LEMONS, Drunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Ruspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beef, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per ID., at Bec. 17, 1878. H. WYBE'S. HOLIDAY CONFECTIONERY -AT- H. J. REEVES'. Choice Confectionery, consisting of Clear Candy & Sugar Toys, Rings, Walking Sticks, Cream Candy, (all kinds); Almond Candy, Hazel do., Sugared Almonds, Sotch Mixtures, Gun Drops, Chocolate Drops, Conversation Lozenges, Stick Candy and Assorted Drops. Also, Pastry, Sugar and Gingér Cakes, Sponge Cake, Sotch Cake.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset; light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frank laughed good humoredly. 'Well, mother, she is pretty.' 'Yes, I don't deny that she's pretty enough.' 'Now, mother, what's the meaning of that ambiguous tone ?' demanded the young artist, pleasantly. 'What have you discovered about Miss Grace Tell-	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girll' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the old lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a, little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ Mr dearest friend—my most pre- cious companion,' she murmured, 'I should be quite lost without her, Mrs. Seymour.' The old lady took her leave stiffly, and did not ask Grace to return her call, although she extended an in- vitution to Mary, couched in the	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, ' will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville? 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?' 'The blue eyes filled with tears as she clung closer to his arm. 'I can't help owning the calico fac- tories, Frank. Don't you loye me just as well as though I didn't?' 'My little deceiver. But why didn't you tell me?'	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to codl. And they was laughin' and talkin ³ lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people I sot down like a yearthquake in them two dczen sassers of red-hot candy, and let off a howl that was hark f'm the tomb! Them gals—well, they looked, you know. They see he wasn't dressed for company, and so they left. All done in a second, it was just one little war whoop and a whish of their dresses, and blame the
A GOOD STOCK ALWAY FF GRANTTE MONUM order; CAPS and SILLS for jlied at short notice. FREES all its branches attended to a given. January 24 1876. ILAMPS, OIL CHANDELLERS, BRACKET, TABLE and H Chimneys; Wick AMERICAN & CANAN WHOLESALE & EN J. R. CA 11 8t. John, May 7, 1878 CARPETS & OIL A full Stock of the ab on hand. A full Stock of the ab May 6, 1878. May 6, 1878. SCOR SALL N E W SL 1 of best pattern and material, style, on liberal terms if secu	AND LAMPS, IS, &C., LAND LAMPS, ks, &C., DIAN OILS, ETAIL. AMERON, King Square. LCLOTHS. DOVE always INNER, STREET, t. John, N. B. LE. E I G H, I, and handsomguet. S. FREEMAN.	 will attend to DENTISTRY in its various branches, as his other engagements will period. Taving procured every appliance and the distribution of the insertion of a construction of a constructin of a construction of a constructin of a constructin o	Nets, Seines, Pounds, Traps, Hedges, (cheaper than brush); for the ensuing year's fishery. AMERICAN NET & TWINE CO'Y, BOSTON. November 21, 1878. de4-3m HALL SELLS SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOKS. HALL Sells- College and School Books. HALL Sells- Bibles and Commentaries. HALL Sells- Room Paper and Paper Blinds. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Drawing Books. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Printing Paper. HALL Sells- Boolscap Paper and Ink. HALL Sells- Brendis, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Brenzis, Pens and Ink. HALL Sells- Bren	REFERENCES:- D.J. M'LAUGHLAN, STEPHEN WITTAKER, JAS. E. WHILTAKER, S. K. FOSTER, OWNERS OF COMMERCIAL BLOCK, King Str., G. V. NOWLIN, A. L. PALMER, JOHN V. ELLIS, DR. MACLAREN, G. R. PUGSLEY, F. TURTS, May 6, 1878 SIMON JONES, A. L. PALMER, JAS. A. TUFTS, DR. MACLAREN, B. MENRY VAUGHAN, DR. HAMILTON, ETC., ETC., ETC. May 6, 1878 Suprement of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. Mre have in Stock a number of Larakins and Moccasins, manufactured expressly for Fall and Winter Trade. MI Orders Promptly Filled. JAMES R. AYER. Sackville, Nov. 11, 1878. 16-13 LEMONS, Drunes, Tamarinds, Maple Sugar, Raspberry Syrup, &c. Vinegar, (home made), Rolled Bacon, Hams, Corned Beet, Ducks, Turkeys, Ceese, OHEAP. SAUSAGES, 15 cents per 10., at Dec. 17, 1878. H. WYSE'S. HOLIDAY CONFECTIONERY A. J. REEVES'. Choice Confectionery, consisting of Clear Candy & Sugar Toys, Rings, Walking Sticks, Cream Candy, (all kinds); Almos, Candy Alazel do., Sugared Almonds, Socteh Mixtures, Gam Drops, Chocolate Drops, Conversation Lozenges, Stick Candy and Assorted Drops. Also, Pastry, Sugar and Ginger Cakes, Sponge Cake, Ac.	It was a little studio, quite at the top of the house. Upon the easel that occupied the post of honor in the mid- dle of the room, a large piece of canvas glowed with the soft tints of a spring landscape and Frank Seymour stood before it, pallet in hand, his large brown eyes dreamy with a sort of in- spiration. In a comfortable easy chair, by the door, sat a plump, rosy, little female, in a face cap with plenty of narrow white satin ribbons fluttering from it, and silver gray poplin dress—Mrs. Seymour, in fact, our artist's mother who had just come up from the very b sement 'to see how Frank was get- ting along.' 'Here mother,' said the young man with an enthusiastic sparkle in his eyes, 'just see the way the sunset; light touches the topmost branches of the old apple tree. I like the brown, subdued gold of that tint; it somehow reminds me of Grace Teller's hair.' Mrs. Seymour moved a little uneasi- ly in her chair. 'Yes, it's very prefty; but it strikes me, Frank, you are lately discovering a good many similitudes between Miss Teller and your pictures.' Frack laughed good humoredly. 'Well, mother, she is pretty.' 'Yes, I don't deny that she's pretty enough.' 'Now, mother, what's the meaning of that ambiguous tone ?' demanded the young artist, pleasantly. 'What have you discovered about Miss Grace Tel- ler that isn't charming and womanly	her chair—she was beginning to see through the mystery. ⁴ Perhaps you have something to do with the calico factory.' ⁴ I have,' said Grace, with a calm dignity. ⁴ A factory girl!' gasped Mrs. Sey- mour, growing red and white. ⁴ Is there any disgrace in the title?' quietly asked Grace, although her cheeks were died crimson. ⁴ Disgrace. Oh, no—certainly not; there's honor in earning one's living in any honorable way,' returned Mrs. Seymour, absently. The fact was, she was thinking in her inmost mind, ⁴ what will Frank say,' and anticipat- ing that flag of triumph she was about to wave over him. ⁴ I do not hesitate to confess,' went on Grace, looking Mrs. Seymour full in the eyes, ' that to the calico factory I owe my daily bread.' ⁴ Very laudable, I'm sure,' said the oid lady, growing a little uneasy under the clear blue gaze, ' only—there are steps and gradations in society, you know, and—I am a little surprised to find you so intimate with Miss Elton, whose family is—' Mary came over to Grace's side and stooped to kiss her cheek. ⁴ My dearest friend—my most_pre- cious companion,' she murmured, 'I should The quite lost without her, Mrs. Seymour.' The old lady took her leave stiffly, and did not ask Grace to return her call, although she extended an in- vitution to Mary, couched in the politest and distant terms.	her hostoss hurried away to welcome the new comers, ' will wonders never cease? Grace Teller at Mrs. Randall's soiree! But I suppose it's all on ac- count of Mary Elton's uncle, the judge. Here come Mr. Parker and Cynthia dear me, what a curious mixture our American society is; how they will be shocked at meeting Grace Teller.' Involuntarily she advanced a stepor two to witness the meeting Mr. Parker looked quite as much astonish- ed as she had expected, but somehow it was not just the kind of astonish- ment that was on the programme. 'Miss Grace, you here? Why, when did you come from Factoryville? 'You are acquainted with Miss Tel- ler?' asked Mrs. Handall, with some surprise. 'Quite well; in fact I have had the management of her property for some years. Miss Teller is the young lady who owns the extensive calico tacto- ries, from which our village takes. its name.' 'Dear me!' ejaculated Mrs. Sey- mour, turning pale and sinking down on a divan near her. 'Why, they say the heiress of the old gentleman who owned the Factoryville property is the richest girl in the country.' 'Grace,' said Frank, gravely and almost sternly, 'what does this mean?' 'The blue eyes filled with tears as she clung closer to his arm. 'I can't help owning the calico fac- tories, Frank. Don't you loye me just as well as though I didn't?' 'My little deceiver. But why didn't you tell me?'	over that ice, and diggin', his toe nails and finger nails in to keep from slip- pin', and 'bove all, you ought to have seen that shirt tail a-flappin' in the wind, and them long, ridiculous shanks of his a-glistenin' in the moonlight! "Them company folks were down there under the eaves, the whole squad of them under the ornery shed of old Washin'ton Bower vines—all sett'n around about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd set in the snow to codl. And they was laughin' and talkin ³ lively; but bless you they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbenown to them (cats—they was a-swishin' their tails and yow-yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' right up to the comb of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of 'em, and then all of a sudden he made a grasp for the yeller cat. But, by gosh, he missed fire and slip- ped his holt, and his heels fiew up and he flopped on his back, and shot off'n that roof like a dart—went a slashin' and a crushin' down through them old rusty vines and landed right in the dead centre of them comp'ny people! sot down like a yearthquake in them two dczen sassers of red-hot candy, and let off a howl that was hark f'm the tomb! Them gals—well, they looked, you know. They see he wasn't dressed for company, and so they left. All done in a second, it was just one little war whoop and a whish of their dresses, and blame the

