ASHES OF COLUMBUS Removed From Cornerstone of New York Building.

New York, Nov. 22.--Among the interesting relics disclosed by the opening of the metal box, which for more than twenty years rested in the corner stone of the old Consolidated Stock Exchange Building, now being demolished to make room for a skyscraper, were particles of the bones of Christopher Columbus.

The box was opened by President Ogden, in the presence of the entire board of governors of the Exchange, in the new structure in Broad street.

The newspapers, coins, records of the Exchange, etc., contained in the box were all found to be in a perfect state of preservation, and were objects of great interest, but the little gold-mounted urn containing portions of the bones of the "great discoverer" attracted far more attention than all the other things.

Accompanying the urn was a letter from G. W. Stokes, addressed to the late Charles G. Wilson, who at the time of the laying of the corner stone of the edifice on September 8, 1887, was president of the Consolidated Stock Exchange. The letter, bearing the date of September 7, 1887, follows: "Here-with I hand you my contribution to the corner stone ceremony of our new and beautiful Exchange building."

The officers will be very grateful for any donations of cast-off apparel, which may be sent to the parish hall, Park street north.

A GOOD WORK.

St. Mary's Benevolent Society Begins For the Season.

St. Mary's Benevolent Society resumed its weekly meetings on Wednesday afternoon, when a large number of the members attended. Through the unavoidable absence of the chaplain, Rev. Deap Mahoney, the service was followed by the presence of his lordship Bishop Dowling, who presided, and who expressed the great pleasure it gave him to see so many ladies assembled to participate in the laudable work. All the officers of last year were re-elected, with the exception of the vice-president, who resigned. The following is the list: President--Mrs. Coughlin. Vice-President--Mrs. Badeau. Treasurer--Miss Walsh.

The officers will be very grateful for any donations of cast-off apparel, which may be sent to the parish hall, Park street north.
