

TRADE-Has been very quiet all week. BRNVES-The check on exports to England has dulled the market and depressed prices since our inst. Shippers have held off generally from the few shipping-lots offered and the few sold have gone off at a consumption over $4.50 to $4.75, either for local consumption or shipment, and fairly good steers have been changing hands at about $4. Second-class have been offered in numbers fully suf-ficient for the wants of buyers, and have been slow of sale and easier at $8.25 to $8.62. Third-class have shown no change of any consequence, being offered freely and selling slowly at from $2.50 to $8. SHEER-Along with the demand for shipping match has disappeared also that for shipping offerings have been of fair amount, but the demand has been ainck and prices of choice seems rather weak. Fret-class sheep cannot be relied on to bring
