Dail Eireann to Discuss Treaty Next Week.

Ratification Despité Opposition Anticipated--Anglo-French Premiers Will Meet in London--Vengeance Overtakes Sinker of Lusitania.

CONFIDENCE IN LONDON.
LONDON, Dec. 9. After the first surprise occasioned by De Valera's repudiation of the proposition for creating the Irish Free State, officials in both London and Dublin were occupied to-day mainly in canvassing prospects for ratification of the Treaty when it comes before the Dail Eireann next Wednesday. The balance of opinion in both cities is that Arthur Griffith's sponsor for the Treaty will obtain an effective majority, although it was admitted here that De Valera possesses a strong following and voting may possibly be close. If De Valera is defeated in the fight against ratification, it is thought he may resign his position as head of Sinn Fein. Should the question be finally referred to the plebiscite of the Irish people, it is thought there would be a great majority in favor of the Treaty. Premier Craig of Ulster had a long conference to-day with Lloyd George and other cabinet members. In the present case, owing to the fact that in the latter stage of the negotiations, the views of the plenipotentiaries differ from those of certain members of the Cabinet, this course cannot be taken. The motion for ratification will now be introduced by Arthur Griffith, Chairman of the delegation.

BRIAND INVITED TO LONDON.
LONDON, Dec. 9. Premier Briand of France is to be invited here for a conference with Lloyd George on Wednesday agreement, and the general subject of reparations in kind from Germany, it was learned to-day. The British Cabinet, it was stated, had not yet expressed a definite opinion on the suggested moratorium for Germany, but the recovery of the mark to-day was ascribed to the belief that London would prove favourable to the moratorium.

GRIFFITH WILL MOVE ADOPTION OF TREATY.
DUBLIN, Dec. 9. The ratification of the treaty between Ireland and Great Britain will be moved at the Dail Eireann meeting next Wednesday by Arthur Griffith, as Chairman of the plenipotentiaries. It was announced to-day by Mr. De Valera in a statement issued by the Dail Publicity Department that while not to be moved as a Cabinet measure, it was announced to-day by Mr. De Valera in a statement issued by the Dail Publicity Department that while not to be moved as a Cabinet measure,

THE PRINCE AT LUCKNOW.
LUCKNOW, India, Dec. 9. The Prince of Wales arrived here to-day and was enthusiastically welcomed by the municipal authorities.

OBJECT OF CONTENT IS MURDERED BY CREW.
PARIS, Dec. 9. According to a despatch to the Journal, Captain Schwieger, commander of the submarine which sank the Lusitania was bogged and thrown into the sea by the crew of the Paraguayan warship Adolfo Riquelme, on whom he is said to have tried to practise Prussian discipline. Captain Schwieger had become a naturalized citizen of Paraguay, following wanderings from country to country the object of universal condemnation, according to the Journal, and was given command of the Adolfo.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding took place at Holywood on Nov. 28th when Miss Anna Sullivan, daughter of Cornelius Sullivan, was united in matrimony to Mr. Llewellyn Crosby of Lennox, Mass. The immediate relatives of the family were in attendance and the ceremony was performed by the esteemed pastor Rev. W. P. Finn. The bride was dressed in becoming style fitted and fashioned in the latest artistic design of the American tailors. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Annie Kennedy, and the groom by the bride's brother, Mr. Dominic Sullivan. The bride is a nurse who graduated in America, winning many honors and distinction, showing talent and ability in every examination. The groom is a fine specimen of the American and an extensive farmer in the land of his birth. The happy couple after partaking of a sumptuous supper at the residence of the bride's parents, took the train for Carbonate to spend the honeymoon at the hospitable and well-known McCarthy Hotel. They will take passage by the next Rosalind for their future home where their numerous friends earnestly hope they will spend a happy life and wish them an abundance of success.

Husband: Dearest old pal of mine, that was wonderful Bacon you gave me for breakfast this morning. Wife: Yes, old dear, of course it was; don't you realize it was WILSON'S CERTIFIED?—Dec 8/10.
