Straight Talk to Europe by New U.S. Ambassador

Stabilization Credits Will Not be Liable to Interest Charges—Ghandi Adopts Role of Peacemaker in Bengal Prov. Congress—New S. African Tariff Grants Britain Most Favoured Nation Treatment.

FROM UNITED STATES.
LONDON, May 4. The new United States Ambassador, Mr. S. Houghton, speaking to a distinguished audience which included the Premier of Britain, declared that unless based on God will were re-established in Europe, he feared the success of the United States in the negotiation of Europe must cease. He referred not only to moral but to material aid. Inter-locked with this has been commented, may be the Security Pact proposed by the United States and warmly seconded by Britain as a great step towards the establishment of real peace.

ARMED IN ARMS CONFERENCE OPENS.
GENEVA, May 4. The conference in arms cannot be considered a commercial matter and the international regulations, declared Count Henry Di Wiart, former Premier, in formally opening the International Conference for control of traffic in arms by the League of Nations. Count Di Wiart welcomed the presence of the United States, stating its participation had now a practical significance, and also the presence of Germany and Argentina.

STABILIZING CREDITS.
LONDON, May 4. During the second reading of the Standard Bill in the House of Commons this afternoon, Walter Guinness, Financial Secretary to the Treasury said two credits had been financially negotiated in connection with stabilization of exchange. The first of these, Mr. Guinness stated, was the Federal Bank which had undertaken to give the Bank of England a credit of $200,000,000, for the period from May 10, or the date of the Government's guaranty, to the date of the latest. The second arrangement was with a bank headed by the house of Rothschild with the British Government for a revolving credit of $200,000,000.

FAVORS BRITAIN.
CAPE TOWN, S.A., May 4. The favored nation treatment will be granted to Great Britain in South Africa's new tariff, so Finance Minister announced in the House of Assembly to-day.

TRAGEDY FEARED.
SIDBURY, Ont., May 4. A few pieces of clothing on the shore of Round Lake, on the White Mud Reserve, bear mute testimony of a triple drowning fatality. Accounts for the disappearance of the farmers of Waters and Broadbent, who set out upon a fishing expedition to Fenage Lake. The men were of Finnish extraction.

SEARCHING FOR THE BODIES.
DETROIT, May 4. A search party, aided by fishermen, searched for the bodies of the eight men who were lost in the sand bar Kelly Island which turned over to the sea two and a half miles off Pelee Saturday. The body of one of the men, W. G. Stackford, who stayed in a boat house to the last, was recovered Saturday. Heavy seas hampered the searchers.

WOMEN CAPTIVATES CAPE TOWN.
CAPE TOWN, S.A., May 4. A group of women has captivated the attention of the men and particularly its female

The law was abandoned when the rudder post of the schooner gave away yesterday at noon, leaving nothing to which the hawser could be attached. Captain Cousins, of the Arleux, will attempt to bore holes through the keel in order to get a new grip on the half submerged craft.

MOORE CRITICIZES N.S. LEGISLATION.
OTTAWA, May 4. Criticism of legislation introduced in the Nova Scotia Legislature by Premier Armstrong, supposedly to find a way to settle the Nova Scotia dispute, was made here this morning by Tom Moore, President of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, who said that the legislation if passed would put the workers of that Province absolutely at the mercy of their employers. Nowhere in the world had compulsory arbitration been a success in preventing strikes or satisfactorily settling any dispute, Mr. Moore said.

DEVONSHIRE RECOVERING.
OTTAWA, May 4. Government House received word to-day that the Duke of Devonshire, former Governor General, was making excellent progress and a complete recovery was confidently expected. His recent seizure was very slight, it was stated.

A MINOR DISTURBANCE.
WASHINGTON, May 4. A cabled report indicating an earth movement among the Florida Keys reached the War Department late today, but inquiry revealed that fears of a serious disturbance had been unfounded.

SWARAJISTS COMPOSE DIFFICULTIES.
CALCUTTA, India, May 4. Differences which arose at the Bengal Provincial Congress yesterday between Cr Das, leader of the Swarajists (home rulers) and some delegates at the Congress while in committee on resolutions, were composed to-day through the good offices of M. Gandhi, former Swarajist leader. The trouble was in connection with conciliatory resolutions proposed by Das, and which are thought to have been the outcome of his presidential address on May 1. Das in his presidential address urged conditional co-operation with the Government of India. He coupled with his proposal the threat that if the Swarajists' offers of settlement were not responded to, they must continue to make the work of the administration impossible and be prepared for ultimate disobedience. Gandhi today alluded to Das' speech and said Das could not hurt anyone at the British throne. They had to admit, Gandhi said, the present incapacity of the Swarajists to govern. Freedom could be attained, he added, by a Hindu-Muslim unity, the removal of the untouchability of caste, and the adoption of the spinning wheel. The Congress ultimately adopted resolutions condemning revolutionary methods.

DIE TOGETHER.
MONTREAL, May 4. John D. Kennedy, aged 52, inventor, and his wife Edie, aged 47, of this city, were found huddled together dead on a bed in their home this afternoon. The police believe that Kennedy, who suffered from heart trouble, dropped dead while standing by the edge of the bed and fell upon his wife knocking her unconscious and then asphyxiating her.

AGED MARINER'S PLAN.
VICTORIA, B.C., May 4. Commander Eustace S. Maudo, aged 70, who announced his intention to sail from Victoria to England in a 25 foot sloop has disappeared since departing from here Saturday afternoon. It is thought he may be at some point awaiting an opportunity to make a dash for the open sea or that he is already passed round Cape Flattery.

CAPE DOR STILL ADRIFT.
LIVERPOOL, May 4. Drifting bottom up with all sails set and anchor chains out, the schooner Cape Dor, rammed and sunk with the loss of five lives off Cape La Have last Thursday afternoon and later refloated by the action of the sea, was this morning lying abandoned in Latitude 43.57 North, Long. 64.35 West, while the Government steamer Arleux which had been attempting to tow the schooner to port was lying in harbor here awaiting favorable conditions to make another attempt to remove the hulk to a place of safety.

Adams and Cheney a Tremendous Success

MUSICAL TEAM RECEIVE WONDERFUL OVATION FROM MAJESTIC PATRONS.
Crawford Adams and Louis Cheney, the musical team who opened an engagement at the Majestic Theatre last night, scored a decided hit. The various items of their initial programme were vigorously applauded, and on one occasion, the audience almost rose in their seats. The splendid recommendations which were sent in advance were fully justified and in no way were they exaggerated. As will be seen by to-day's advertisement, these two artists have something which very few in their line possess. Their record has been one of constant success, and we are safe in asserting that never before were we favored with such a combination of instrumental and vocal music. There is no wonder that the Majestic patrons were lost in admiration and applauded unceasingly the various items as rendered by these musical wizards. Words fail to express their real worth as entertainers and the best advertisement one can set forth is the very complimentary references coming voluntarily from the audience last night. Everywhere the word is spoken to-day "Adams and Cheney," and the prediction is that their engagement will not only be a successful but a lengthy one. Their recital last night was a fitting illustration of the extraordinary talents possessed by these artists, and their popular ballads harmonized faultlessly with the classical numbers that were entwined in their programmes.

The feature "The Call of the Canyon" Zane Grey's masterpiece, a story of the wild, held the attention of the audience to the very end. Richard Dix, Lois Wilson and Marjorie Daw were the stars. This same bill is repeated to-night and to-morrow afternoon and night.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement elsewhere in this issue, which briefly records the marvellous record of the violinist, Crawford Adams.
