Who Stole the Booze?

Some time ago the theft of a quantity of bonded liquor was reported to have taken place from a privately owned warehouse in the West end of the city, and it is stated that the amount removed consisted of not less than one hundred and forty cases. Since its disappearance no word has been forthcoming as to how it was removed, whence, or by whom.

It is told in ancient history that a certain individual walked off one night with the gates of the city, but there were giants in those days, and apparently there were no police, or else they were very remiss in their duty. The feat of the Samson of old fades into insignificance when compared with that of the local Samson who not only made light of the gates, but removed from the stronghold a considerable part of the contents.

It is not so much a matter of concern that this liquor disappeared, as that it has not been traced and the thief laid by the heels. Not only was it a case of larceny, but it was also a breach of the Customs Act, and for such offences to be committed with impunity under the noses of the authorities must be somewhat humiliating to their pride.

It is rather late to expect that goods of such a volatile nature may now be recovered, but to trace the culprits would at least quieten criticism, and would have effect of allaying any fears as to the efficiency of the police force.

How to Keep Cool

During the past week St. John's has been having a taste of the heat wave which the people in Canada and the States experienced earlier, and many expedients have been resorted to by everyone in order to obtain relief.

A Sydney doctor, appealed to for advice as to the best course to follow during the heat wave, says: "Forget it, and keep your mind occupied with something else. Avoid iced drinks, and drink freely of ordinary water without ice. Eat sparingly. The farmer, mechanic, and all those who work laboriously feel the heat most when they are resting. Therefore, when the mercury begins to climb, turn your attention to something else."

We pass on the advice for what it is worth, but so contrary is it to the personal inclinations of most people, that the chances are it will be completely disregarded.

Representatives for Washington Congress

The selection of representatives to the International Parliamentary Congress which takes place at Washington was made yesterday at a meeting of the Legislative Council when the following members were appointed:—Hon. Sir P. T. McGrath, Hon. R. K. Bishop, Hon. A. B. Morine.

PEPPYS BEHIND THE SCENES

Up betimes this day and do barely drag myself to Water Street, being that the heat is such as I have seldom known it and reaches high 85 degrees in the shade. So to the Board of Trade, where I do rest all the morning, in discourse with divers people, and much talk of the condition of the country. Among other things is thought by some that there be too many in business for the size of the country being that the earning power of the people is not sufficient to properly support so many traders. Comes news this day how the "Portia" do run aground at Point La Hays, but to the great satisfaction of all is speedily refloated and with little damage done. This afternoon, being overcome by the heat, do drive to Manuels in a motor coach and do there rest my weary bones, and methinks will remain there over the week end. But Lord, what energy the women have, being that my wife will play at bridge all the day and takes much pleasure from it.

Receipts of C. of E. Garden Party

The total receipts of the Church of England Orphanage Garden Party are not yet all in, as several donations are on the way, but the Treasurer, R. R. Joh, is of the opinion that the amount will equal last year's not including, of course, the gift of $1,000. Up to the present, this year, no such donation has been received, but if it were the grand total would be as high as ever. The Committee has been complimented on all sides for discontinuing the lotteries by tickets which have become an eyesore of late at many Garden Parties. The various tents and stalls are now practically all dismantled. The electric lighting service so ably installed by A. Roberts of the Newfoundland Light and Power Company, was a wonderful convenience, and it was fully appreciated by the workers, especially the ladies in charge of the tea tables. Mr. Roberts was very ably assisted by W. Cousens, and to the work of these gentlemen the success of the day was in no small measure due. Among the many interesting side shows, one of the best patronized was the fish pond. Mr. K. Ruby was in charge and he had the satisfaction of seeing every fish landed. The day's receipts will be used for the general upkeep of the Orphanage, and the management is more than pleased the receipts were so large.

At Gower Street Boy Scouts Camp

FRIDAY—The usual camp routine was followed. The Eagle Patrol won the honor to-day. There was keen rivalry in the Block House raising, which was won by the Bulldog Patrol. At Camp Fire there was the usual singing and stunts by the Scouts.

The Camp breaks up on Monday, when return to town will be made.

Underwent Operation

A cablegram from London yesterday, stated that Lieut. J. A. McGrath, M.C., son of Mr. Thomas McGrath, and nephew of the Hon. Sir Patrick McGrath, who went to England in May last for further treatment for wounds sustained in the War, underwent another operation at Queen Mary's Orthopaedic Hospital, Southampton, and that the surgeons expect it will be at least six weeks before he will be able to return.

Funeral Obsequies of Late E. P. Crowe

Further particulars regarding the sudden demise of Mr. Edgar P. Crowe at Hampden state that there was nothing to indicate that he was unwell, and in fact he was bustling occupied on the day previous to his having been stricken down.

For a year Mr. Crowe had been supervising the work of his brother, Mr. H. J. Crowe at Hampden, and only recently his wife and young son arrived from his home in Stewiacke, Nova Scotia, to spend the summer at the settlement.

The remains have been conveyed by boat to Norris Arm, and this morning Mr. Lawrence went out by freight to make the necessary preparations for the conveyance of the body to Stewiacke. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Messrs. S. G. Collier & Co.

To-night Mr. H. J. Crowe leaves town by the Grand Falls train, and in company with the wife of the deceased will accompany the body to their former home for interment.

General sympathy is felt for the relatives, and particularly for Mrs. Crowe, in their sad and sudden bereavement.

Flower Service at C. of E. Cemetery

To-morrow afternoon at 3.15 o'clock the annual Flower Service will be held at the Church of England Cemetery. This year the arrangements are in the hands of the Cathedral clergy, and the music will be provided by the Cathedral Choir. This service will be preceded by a celebration of Holy Communion which will be held in the Mortuary Chapel at eight o'clock. Throughout the past week many of the city folk have been in attendance at God's Acre, making the graves and plots therein trim and neat and beautifying them with plant and shrub and flower. These efforts, seconded those of the Cemetery Committee for the present summer season have made of the place a beauty spot.

The whole property is in better condition than ever, and the surroundings of the graves of their dear departed is a solace and a comfort to those whose relatives and friends rest in this hallowed spot.

The Cemetery Committee are desirous of seeing a record attendance at to-morrow's event, one of special remembrance and special tribute to those who have gone before. Equally seemingly and dutiful is it for every parishioner to contribute to the upkeep and the further beautifying of a spot which has such a special appeal to families who have laid so many loved ones to rest there and to the majority who look forward to sleeping their last long sleep within its confines. All possible is being done with the present income, but much more is necessary to carry out the plans for future extensive improvements. As usual, a collection will be taken at to-morrow's service and a plate will be placed at the lych gate for the convenience of visitors. Meanwhile, parishioners of the various Churches of the city are reminded of the special envelopes recently distributed and are asked to return them to their Clergy or to the Cemetery Committee with enclosed contributions towards the upkeep and improvement of the Cemetery. Those charged with the oversight of the property will welcome any amount—even the smallest—present means will permit. And they are confident that the Church of England people of this city will not neglect so important and so manifest a duty.

Re-Railing the Tram Service

Upwards of 400 tons of rail have arrived for the re-railing of the street railway system, and work in this direction is expected to commence within the next ten days. Each rail measures 60 feet in length, weighs 72 lbs., and has six bolts with washers on either end. The track will be of the narrow gauge, 3 feet 6 inches, as formerly. The rails are now being distributed to the western and eastern end of the line. A large number of pick and shovel men will be employed in connection with the work.

Great preparation is being made for the Broad Cove regatta which takes place on Wednesday next, and it is expected a large number from the city will attend the event. Icebound

Will Be Repeated To-Night At The Majestic.

This excellent picture, which won the approval of the many who have already seen it in the earlier part of the week at the Majestic Theatre, will be repeated again to-night, and is one of the strongest stories we have seen thus far. The climax is undoubtedly an extraordinary one, and the picture has been reproduced at the request of those who have heard of it, and we advise the many who are desirous of seeing an extraordinary thrilling feature to take it in to-night.

SLIGHT BLAZE—Yesterday at 5 p.m. the Central firemen were called to Queen's Road, where a blaze was discovered at the rear of A. J. Bayli's residence. It was supposed to have been caused by children. No damage was done.

CHILD WELFARE

HEALTHY BABIES.

"An ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure."

What time do your children go to bed?

There are many of us who do not realize that the quantity of sleep for children is as important as the quantity of food. Though we may not be starving them for the want of food, we may be starving them for the want of sleep. By going to bed at 9 p.m. instead of 7 p.m. (and many of the children of the city go to bed considerably later than 9 p.m.) they lose 730 hours sleep, which is a whole month in a year.

Some may say "oh well they sleep in the morning," but this is one of the very bad habits children get into. It is a slovenly habit and has a bad moral effect on children to be allowed to sleep to late hours in the morning.

You want your children to grow up mentally strong as well as physically, and to be strong, reliable men and women, then work towards it now, give them and teach them sleep.

To see little tots at 9 p.m. is as bad as seeing them hungry without a dinner.

Make a rule that they must be in a certain time and show them that you mean it.

There is a great deal more truth in the old proverb than we credit "Early to bed and early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."

Regatta Judges

St. John's Mtd.
 25th July, 1925.

Dear Sir,—It is essentially necessary that all matters connected with the Annual Regatta on Quidi Vidi Lake should be conducted in a fair and impartial manner. May I call the attention of the Regatta Committee, and the General Public to the statement made that among the Judges selected for Regatta day are persons who are interested in the boats that are racing. Will the Regatta Committee assure a trusting public, who have subscribed largely to the Regatta Fund, that none of the Judges have such interest either pecuniary or otherwise.

Yours truly,
 DORA.

Information Sought

Editor Evening Telegram,
 Sir,—In your issue of this date appeared an advertisement of the International Bond and Securities Exchange, Sydney, Nova Scotia giving particulars of various Government Bonds for sale.

As an investor and being interested in such securities I shall be glad if any of your readers can give me the following information, viz.

Is the International Bond and Securities Exchange above mentioned not one and the same as the following:

- (1) The London and Paris Securities Exchange.
- (2) The Canadian National Guarantee and Securities who have their offices in the old Skating Rink in Sidney, Cape Breton?
- (3) The Maritime Moving Picture business in Canada, promoted there and who sold stock in Newfoundland? And did that stock ever pay any dividend?

This information asked for would be very useful to me as an investor.

Yours truly,
 T. S.

MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR THE GRIPPE.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES

A BRIGHTER OUTLOOK IN INDUSTRIAL DISPUTE.

LONDON, July 24.

Although the Miners Federation has announced a strike of the collieries on July 31, and only a bare week now remains for a possible cessation in the coal production, the situation to-night appeared more hopeful for a bridging of the chasm of dissension between the miners and the coal mine owners. Mediation in the situation by W. G. Bridgman, First Lord of the Admiralty, has been so effective that to-day he persuaded the disputants to meet together in conference next Wednesday. In addition, Premier Baldwin has agreed to meet on Monday in an endeavor to smooth out day a special Committee of the Trades Union Congress which has been given full command of the miners case in the impending struggle.

KRIM'S REGULARS REPORTED IN FULL FLIGHT.

FEZ, Morocco, July 24.

Moroccan information reaching the General Staff here is to the effect that having abandoned the desert tribes to their fate, Abd-el-Krim's regulars are in full flight towards the North. Reports say that the morale of the dissident tribes has been further shaken by French aviators dropping bombs behind their lines. Aviators returning to-day from scouting expeditions report that Abd-el-Krim's regulars are trekking northward towards the Mediterranean, but they appear to be decided to make a stand on the southern slope of the Atlas Mountains.

THE ESQUIMO PROBLEM.

REGINA, July 25.

That the Eskimos in far northern Canada were becoming a real problem was the word of Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior here yesterday. The incursion of the white man into these territories was partly blamed for the falling from grace of the aborigines, the Minister declaring that the native providence of the Eskimos was giving way to improvidence, the result being when difficult times came he was without proper supplies.

25 PERSONS DROWNED.

SHANGHAI, July 25.

Twenty-eight persons were drowned here to-day when a sudden rain squall capsized two ferry launches crossing Whang Poo River for Pootung.

HOPE RATHER THAN CONFIDENCE.

LONDON, July 25.

Hope rather than confidence is the feeling at the moment regarding next Wednesday's conference between the coal mine owners and miners, which has been called in an effort to bring about a new working agreement, and thus prevent the strike which has been called for July 31, the day on which the old agreement expires. The attention of business interests everywhere will be focused on the conference Wednesday for the serious consequences of the walkout of more than a million miners are fully realized. The trouble between the parties is the outgrowth of the proposals for a new agreement by the owners, calling for about twenty per cent. reduction in wages and an extra hour of work daily.

THREATENED STRIKE TAKES SERIOUS TURN.

LONDON, July 25.

The possibilities of the threatened strike of coal miners became more serious to-day when the conference of the Transportation and Railway Unions decided to take steps to prevent a movement of coal in the event of the miners' strike. It has been decided to call a conference in London, Thursday, of the executives of all Trades Unions, to decide what strike action, if any, shall be taken by the Unions generally.
