

From Bonavista South

Things are moving along as usual here last writing. The Roman Catholic people of the Bonavista section of King's Cove were delighted to receive a letter from our esteemed Parish Priest, Fr. Scully, who motored from Bonavista on Friday, Dec. 11th, and who has been in charge of the extensive parish of King's Cove upwards of 20 years, having succeeded the late Rev. Fr. Lynch.

King's Cove Parish is a very large parish comprising 9 or 10 settlements and is located some distance from the shore. A sick call on a stormy night winter through blinding snow is something but pleasant, but Father Scully always arrives at the sufferer's bedside to bring the consolation that a Minister of God can bring. The fine buildings are to be seen in the Parish since Fr. Scully assumed

R. L. Stevenson's tomb on Mount Vaea, Samoa, which had been badly defaced by tourists scratching their names on it, has been renovated by Major-Gen. Sir G. S. Richardson, the Administrator of Samoa, who is greatly indignant at the childish treatment of the grave.

Kemal Bluffing

Mustapha Kemal is too astute a statesman and too clever a soldier not to know that though his army is prepared for war and its morale good enough to affront any western nation, it does not possess enough of the sinews of war to hold out beyond a month or two. Any campaign lasting longer than that period he could not possibly finance. I believe, therefore, that the Turkish attitude regarding Mosul is one-quarter from resolve and three-quarters bluff, and that our statesmen and people would do well to recognize it as such instead of increasing the nervousness which they seem to possess whenever their responsibilities—under the mandate—otherwise are called in question.—Dudley Heathcote, in the London Fortnightly Review.
